Westlake's Lead In Survey Narrows As Election Nears

With Columbus' "day of decision" approaching, a final feeling-out of voter opinion through the Hartley Newspapers Mayoralty Poll shows incumbent Mayor M.E. Sensenbrenner and Republican Ralston Westlake running practically even in the battle for the city's top political post with the mayor showing marked gains as the election gets closer.

"Representing all of the city's 33 wards; the poll indicates that either opponent can win by swaying a sizeable block of uncommitted votes between now and election day.

Westlake	38.4%
Sensenbrenner	33.3%
Undecided	[illegible]
Total	100%

This, in itself represents a big gain for Sensenbrenner. When the city was polled earlier this fall, Westlake's lead was

Westlake	43.3%
Sensenbrenner	27.9%
Undecided	28.8%
Total	100%

This straw vote was started Aug. 8 and a running account of the poll was published weekly in Hartley Newspapers for five weeks. The above figures represent a sampling from all the 33 city wards as of this week. The poll has been conducted along lines recommended by reputable pollsters.

While the above figures show that Westlake has a slight lead among those who have actually expressed themselves on the campaign, there are several other important factors to take into consideration to-wit:

In winning the 1955 election, Sensenbrenner defeated Joseph Jones by a vote of 50,792 to 43,863 or a percentage of 54 to 46. In the current poll of the voters who said they had supported Sensenbrenner in 1955, an even 20% indicated they may not vote for him this time.

Only 4.8% of these votes indicated their actual belief in Westlake. Another 50.6% of those who have weakened in their support of the mayor indicate that while they have some personal complaint or have not been too happy with the administration they still are not sure they would vote for Westlake.

In the last round of the poll there was a decided upswing of votes favorable to Sensenbrenner which could indicate that as the election draws nearer Westlake has still done nothing to cause them to come over to his camp.

Experienced pollsters indicate that it can be expected that Sensenbrenner will get a greater percentage of the undecided votes because he is the incumbent and because the present trend is toward [illegible].

While some people might disagree, it is perhaps a fact that Republican voters are generally ready to voice an opinion about a candidate while fewer Democrats are so willing to talk. This could mean than an additional element of several percentage points might be expected for Sensenbrenner at the polls.

Conclusion: Present indications are that the race will be a close one but there are enough factors in Sensenbrenner's favor to predict that he will be re-elected.

Mayor Sensenbrenner Should Be Re-Elected

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner should be re-elected.

We believe Columbus has much progress to look forward to in the next four years with Mayor Sensenbrenner at the head of the city government.

We like the mayor because he has been for a program. Nothing is accomplished by people who are constantly against things. The mayor has a record of being positive, but while he has been so firm in his stand, he has been for a wide array of activities that have resulted in good for Columbus.

One of Sensenbrenner's most outstanding characteristics is his enthusiasm for the work he is doing, enthusiasm for the future of Columbus. He believes in our city. He has confidence in the future of the city and an abundance of confidence in his record.

He believes that the people of Columbus are entitled to credit for the All-America City Award. But it should be recalled that this award did not just happen. It was the result of things being done in Columbus city government. It was based on progress in the building of expressways, sewers, streets, recreation centers, the air terminal, railway underpasses, extensive growth and general good government.

Many a person who has had an opportunity to visit other major cities in the United States recently have remarked that Columbus got a late start in expressway building, slum clearance and other major programs. But today Columbus is a beehive of activity as expressways, sewers, slum clearance and other programs are progressing at top speed.

A large segment of business people of Columbus will attest that the progress being witnessed in Columbus today has been the result of decisions being made and then followed by careful expediting.

Establishment of the office of a finance director has long been advocated for Columbus. Business people of the city have long recognized the need of a capital improvements budget. Both have been accomplished by the Sensenbrenner administration.

Columbus is one of the fastest growing cities in the United States today. Such rapid growth makes it an essential that the city administration be able to make decisions now. It is one thing to talk about our needs, it is another to do something.

We believe the record of the mayor is such that he should be re-elected. A careful look at his record will reveal that in practically every instance the mayor's program has been one of the greatest good for the greatest number.

He is the only truly independent mayor Columbus has had in more than 35 years. No individual or organization has been able to influence him except for the things that were good for Columbus.

Columbus voters should base their decision Nov. 3 on a look at the Sensenbrenner record and what he is for rather than what others are against.

Westmoor Ready To Meet Public

Dedication, Open House Are Planned

School officials, board members and faculty will be on hand Thursday evening to formally present to the public a proud addition to the city school system, Westmoor Junior High.

Ceremonies of dedication will be held in the auditorium at 8, with Dr. Harold H. Ebling, superintendent of Columbus Schools, and Mrs. Ralph Davidson, president of the Board of Education, as speakers.

Westmoor's band and orchestra will provide music, and Dr. A. J. Wold will give the invocation and benediction.

Open house will follow, with everyone invited to tour the million-dollar educational plant.

Teachers will also be in classrooms to meet and talk with students' parents.

Opened to seventh and eighth grade students in September, the school will be in full operation as a three-year junior high by next fall.

Originally, the school was scheduled to be opened in January, but was delayed because construction was not far enough along.

Designed By School Architect

David Schackne, Jr., architect of the Columbus Schools, designed the immense, rectangular building, constructed around an open courtyard and featuring three wings for classrooms in specialized instruction.

Gay accents of vivid orange doors, canary yellow walls and splashes of turquoise and purple with plenty of white, sparkle the building's soft taupe brick, and basic gray-green interior [illegible].

A soundproofed music and dramatics wing, extending east from the front of the building, houses vocal, instrumental and orchestra rooms, completely equipped recording booth, three private practice booths, rest rooms and supply rooms.

Spacious One-Floor Layout

The immense auditorium dominates the east wing.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cunningham of 3053 Valleyview-dr.

Mr. Cunningham was an inspector at American Blower Co., where he had been employed a number of years. He was a well known bowler, and belonged to several bowling leagues.

Also surviving are his wife, Irene; daughter, Sharon, 10, and sons, Johnny, eight, and James, five months; brothers, Bill, twin, of 2272 Colfax, Ben of 343 Tappan-st, Dick of 131 S. Brinker-av; two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Bennett of Mayfield, Ky., and Mrs. Juanita Mazarov of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Burial was at Green Lawn Cemetery.

Board Of Trade Nominations Up

Officer nominations for the next two-year term on the West Side Board of Trade were made last Wednesday.

Up for office are Emmett Seely and Bob Morton, president; Homer Johnson and Vernon Crossop, vice-president; Gene Roach, secretary; and Mrs. Billie Mulholand, treasurer. Tom Timlin is retiring president.

Elections will take place Nov. 11 at Sunshine Center. Installation will be in January.

Westlake Asks For Monday Confab On Bus Extension

Council President, W. Ralston Westlake, today invited "all interested parties to talk over ways and means of extending the W. Mound-st bus lines out to Westgate Manor." He hopes to see a large local delegation at City Hall next Monday night before council convenes.

"It is not fair for one developer to hold up construction of a 350-foot piece of street, depriving 1000 families of bus service," Westlake said. He was referring to a missing link on Eakin-rd in Westgate Terrace.

Both Westlake and his political opponent, Mayor Sensenbrenner, have urged the new bus loop in recent months. Westlake, as council president is also chairman of the transportation committee.

A spokesman for the Lloyd Brothers developers said the firm cannot see its way financially to building the street now unless the city cares to help. "The money market is tight now," he told Hartley Newspapers, "and we can't begin to consider it until spring."

At Westlake's request, Public Utilities Director, Ferd Pickens, gave a report on the city's cost if it did the job. Pickens said city engineers told him the project would cost $90,000, taking a year to complete.

Says Builders Responsible

Westlake said he feels it's the duty of all developers to put in their own streets and alleys as soon as they are needed. "We approved Lloyd's plan in 1958 in good faith that he would do that. He'll need the city's cooperation later—we need his now," the council chief stated. The developer has already built 40 units of a 118-home project.

"Ed Pelliser of the Transit [illegible] informed me that buses could use some kind of temporary paving for a while," Westlake continued. "Maybe we should look into that."

He said he expects city directors and engineers at the Monday meeting and urged representation from the Hilltop Business Association, Westgate Manor, Georgian Heights and all other areas involved.

No Hallowe'en Planned At West High This Year

Organized haunting on the Hilltop will drop off some this coming Hallowe'en night.

That seemed certain this week when the Hilltop Community Council announced that the traditional community celebration will not be held at West High [illegible].

Lack of enough volunteer help was one of the main reasons given by council president Noble Allen, Jr. He said the OSU football game in town the same day was an important factor.

Football Game Conflicts

"The police department is pressing every man and auxiliary into football crowds and street duty," Allen said. "Ordinarily we need from four to six officers to supervise outside the school and about 35 men to patrol stairways and halls. They just aren't to be found this year."

"We have other worries, too," Allen added. "Cost of the school rental for an evening has gone up considerably and vendors' licensing and stamps would put a burden on our concessions. And, out of 53 organizations we weren't able to get enough volunteers."

While West Siders went ahead with customary Hallowe'en planning, the only Hilltop activities are at Glenwood Recreation Center, church parties and one for children of lodge members.

Glenwood Arranging Party

Chuck Moore, director, Glenwood, said all Hilltop youngsters 12 and under are invited to the center's costume parade and pre-teen dance from 7 to 10 p.m. Several PTA's will assist in manning a few booths, where prizes will be awarded, he said.

West Side committees are meeting this week to shape up their Hallowe'en fun. Sunshine Recreation Center will host a teenage dance. Pre-teens will be

City Orders Sewer Start

City Council this week set aside $840,000 and authorized the start of construction on Early Ditch branch of Big Run sanitary sewer.

The branch is to be an important element of a system designed to relieve overloaded Hilltop sewers and prevent flooding in the West Side. It will connect with Big Run (started a month ago) near Ganta-rd and run 15,000 feet north to Highland and Mound-st, following Highland to Pal[illegible].

Rents Easily With Ads

Rapid results are almost a sure bet when renters advertise in Hartley Classifieds. Chris Sicaras, 2386½ W. Broad-st, rented a three-room apartment and office space the first week with a couple of three-line ads. To place yours, just call BR. 4-1155. Courteous, expert help is at your service.

OSU Win Surprises Contestants

Ohio State's upset win over Purdue completely surprised most contestants in this week's Hartley Newspaper Guessing Contest who showed amazingly high accuracy in other respects.

Only three other games really baffled the local Monday morning quarterbacks who had everything figured but Capital's loss to Muskingum, Louisville's trouncing of Dayton and Wisconsin's tripping of Iowa.

This week's winners are:

Rea Wilcox, 336 Sullivant-av; Bill Miller, 3033 Sullivant-av; and Marion Brandenberger, 2025 Whitehead-rd.

They will receive in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, a free lube and oil change from Tunison's Sohio and a lube and oil change from Hilltop Motors.

Man Sentenced For Setting Fire Fatal To Four

Ervin Ben Oliver, 45, of 498 Walnut-st, was sentenced Oct. 14 to three years in the workhouse, on a charge of carelessly setting a fire Oct 11 that claimed the lives of his four grandchildren.

Municipal Court Judge Richard McCracken sentenced Oliver on his record as a habitual offender, after he had pleaded guilty of the charge. He had been arrested more than 30 times for intoxication, police said.

Oliver was charged for carelessly setting the fire while

CAN TWO PARK AS CHEAPLY AS ONE?

Sale Scheduled For Saturday Night At Prairie Twp. School

by Ike

What has been aptly described as a "three-ring circus"—the West Franklin Kiwanis Club's Annual Auction Sale—will get under way Saturday night at 7 at the Prairie Township School, on Norton-rd, near Broad-st, in New Rome.

This is the fourth consecutive year the organization has sponsored the event, which from a small beginning as grown until it attracts buyers—and visitors—from the entire Columbus area.

Thousands of dollars in merchandise, for the most part contributed by business men, farmers and others who "just want to help," will be placed on sale by the auctioneers to be awarded to the highest bidder.

The auctioneers, incidentally, are all professionals who contribute their services for the evening and when four or five are working at one time to get the highest bid for an article—whether it has a value of 50 cents or $1—is a spectacle that's worth traveling miles to witness.

Also adding to the uniqueness of the affair is the variety of merchandise and services offered. For instance, there will be available "genuine antique whale bone suspender buttons," a power mower, a brand new leather jacket, size 40, a snow plow, home-made cakes, electrical appliances, a doll that went unscathed through the flood on the west side of Columbus last winter, a 50-foot length of standard width sidewalk, poured wherever the top bidder desires, baskets of groceries, jugs of cider, a spanking new electric kitchen range and hundreds of other items which have general appeal.

Another unusual aspect of the Kiwanis Auction Sale is that no top bidder is compelled to accept merchandise which he feels does not represent full value.

"Everybody must have a good time and get their money's worth," Harry Eberhard, a co-chairman of the auction said. "Every cent we raise through the auction is used for work among the children of West Franklin County to purchase eye glasses, provide medical aid, clothing and other items, and we want no 'unsatisfied' money in our coffers."

The sale will be preceded by a dinner for the visitors, beginning at 5 p.m. Ham or turkey will be served in the school cafeteria by the Prairie-Norton Parent-Teacher Association.

During the auction, free movies will be provided for the children of those who wish to devote their full time to the "business at hand."

CIDER PRESS NEXT STOP—Members of the West Franklin Kiwanis Club preparing to haul apples they had just picked at the Lewis orchard on Demorest-rd to the Hoffman cider press on the Rome-Hilliard-rd. The cider will be sold at organization's Annual Auction Sale. From left, Bassel Johnson, Harry Eberhard and Maurice Stretch.

Wild turkeys are hard to find today, but you can still bag a big bird if you are a sharpshooter.

Franklin Heights PTA Plans Supper-Meeting

The members of the Franklin Heights PTA will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday, Oct. 22, at the school starting with a potluck supper at 6 p.m.

Following the potluck supper a tour of the classrooms and annual "open house" will be held. All parents and members of the PTA are urged to attend this meeting, by Mrs. P. B. Jarvis, president.

High School Journalists Get Chance

Junior and senior high school journalists will get an opportunity to break into print in the 23rd annual School Press Project which runs through Jan. 8.

Sponsored locally by the Tuberculosis Society and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, this year's Press Project reporting assignments are on "Health Workers in Our Community" and "Our School in the Fight Against TB."

These same themes must be pictorially presented by participants in the senior and junior editorial cartoon divisions of the contest.

Entries must be published in the November or December issues of a school paper, a mimeographed special edition, or in a student-written and edited page of a local newspaper.

A gold loving cup will be awarded the school publication which shows journalistic excellence, plus ten gold, silver and bronze medals for winning artists and reporters. Local award winners will be eligible to compete on the state-wide level of the press competition.

School Press Project entries must be at TB Society headquarters by Jan. 8, 1960.

REALTOR CAN REMAIN

Councilmen Rezone 24 Wilshire Corner Lots

One hundred Wilshire Heights residents watched Monday night as city council did away with a 35-year old zoning situation which would have permitted "a grocery store on every corner" in their area.

The group represented about a third of the petitioners who last July, protested the dormant ordinance. The law came to light when a realtor opened offices in a house at Mound-st and Hague-av. Five property owners won a temporary injunction suit against the firm, saying its presence was not in keeping with a residential area.

Council agreed with the residents and the City Planning Commission that the 24 Wilshire lots should be rezoned to residential but told realtor Larry Wade and his attorney that they had "gotten there first" and could hold onto their location. Wade's office has remained closed since Judge Henry Holden's order was granted last July. Meanwhile, a court hearing on the case involving property deed restrictions, is due soon. Residents will be notified, said Henry DeMastry, one of the filers.

Bechtel Explains Law

Planning Director, Jack Bechtel said the realtor and a small TV repair shop on the opposite corner are permitted by state law to continue their "non-conforming use" of the corners. In the event they should move, similar businesses could be opened by someone else, he said, unless the commercial operation is abandoned for longer than two years.

Bechtel said his commission has authorized a staff to analyze all such obsolete zoning throughout the city. "Times have changed, he said," we have shopping centers now and such corner businesses don't suit present land use. He said his studies may lead to wide revamping of zone laws, including 60 more corner lots on the Hilltop.

Following a $35,000 robbery, a Rockford, Ill., department store advertised that burglars preferred the quality of their merchandise, adding: "So will you, but we recommend the hours from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. so we can serve you personally."

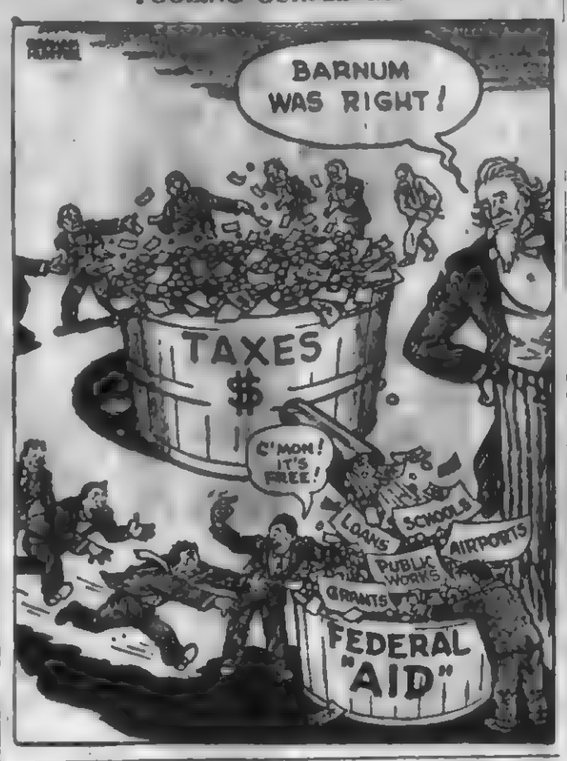
ANOTHER PROBLEM FOR THE SCHOOLS

Time was when reading, writing and arithmetic, along with a smattering of Greek or Latin and a dab of history, made up a good basic education.

Time also was when the sky was the limit, when it took weeks or months to learn about the latest trouble in the Indian territories or across the sea.

No more. Things have speeded up, stretched out, interlocked, overlapped and generally complexed themselves so as to be practically unintelligible to anybody.



The basic education of yesterday has become about as adequate for modern day life as the Pinta, Nina and Santa Maria would be for space travel. Our educational system has struggled manfully to keep up with the expanding needs of our society — and with a good measure of success. Still, the graduates coming out of our high schools are scientifically and economically illiterate.

Science is a specialized field that must be entrusted to the specialists. But economics is something that every family head, housewife, jobholder, businessman, taxpayer, voter, public official and legislator has to cope with individually, collectively and constantly.

Economic knowledge is important enough in the affairs of individuals. When the future of whole communities, states and the nation rest on policies and candidates chosen by popular vote, economic knowledge is imperative.

Something new needs to be added to the basic three "r's" of education — and that's basic economics, taught early and thoroughly in our schools.

BIBLE COMMENT:

His Kingdom Lies Within Each Of Us

Where is the kingdom of God?

Men have been speculating on this question for centuries. For what seems the most clear answer we can go directly to the words of Jesus.

"My kingdom is not of this world," He said. If we thought of the realm of God as a kingdom in the literal sense, we would be unwise.

Other words of Jesus, "The kingdom is within you," seems to carry the meaning that this kingdom rests inside the souls of men.

To believe in the kingdom of God is to accept the authority of Him, and to find the power of the Holy Spirit. His kingdom is the rule of God in the heart and life.

John made it plain that it was not of this world, but rather a kingdom essentially within our intellect, having to do with motives, ideals and aspirations of men and with moral and spiritual values very different from those normally associated with earthly kingdoms.

In the Lord's Prayer, we say, "Thy kingdom come." Here, we are praying that we will be granted the coming of the kingdom and its consummation in heaven.

This kingdom is not delimited by political boundaries or trade barriers, but is infinite —as infinite as the human soul and God's love for his mortal creatures.

Strictly Fresh

Tactful reference letter: "Dear Sir: An honest difference of opinion between Mr. Smith and the office manager over the length of coffee breaks led to the release of this young man from our employ."

Forman To Seek Low Light Rates

The city's municipal light plant should be expanded so it can supply power to more users, believes Robert T. Forman, Democratic candidate for city council.

"Columbus citizens were shocked not long ago when Public Utilities Commission of Ohio granted another rate increase to the electric company," Forman said in a recent speech.

"In most cities the people can do nothing, but Columbus has its own light plant," he added. "If elected, I will work for the immediate expansion of the municipal light plant." Forman said the city light plant has been selling its power below the rates charged by the electric company.

Hicks States 11-Point Platform

William M. Hicks, a Republican asking voters to return him to city council, has an 11-point program.

As itemized by his campaign chairman, Arthur G. Starrett, it includes:

Development of an adequate mass transportation system, pre-zoning of industrial sites, proper advance planning of the growth of Columbus, hiring by city of full-time engineers to replace consulting engineering firms, establishment of a non-partisan Civil Service Administration.

Also, adequate parks and recreational facilities, proper use of the office of the finance director to eliminate waste and inefficiency, expansion of fire and police facilities, a competitive bidding purchasing system, construction of an adequate water distribution system and construction of a planned system to handle both sanitary sewage and surface drainage in all parts of Columbus.

During his three years in council, Hicks has been chairman of the airport committee, a member of the finance and service committees and a member of the special water investigation committee.

Jones Running For City Council

Russell M. Jones, a Democratic candidate for city council, feels he is well qualified for the post because of his background.

Jones is chaplain at Benjamin Franklin Hospital and since 1957 has been co-ordinator or chaplaincy service for the Columbus Area Council of Churches.

He lists as qualifications formal training in sociology, work with community organizations, work in the field of human relations and various civic activities.

"The average man's idea of a good sermon is one that goes over his head and hits a neighbor."

Band Concert, Olympics Run To Spark UN Celebration

United Nations Week planning shifts into high gear this week as local civic, service, and religious organizations prepare for the UN Festival next Saturday, Oct. 24 at Ohio State Fairgrounds.

Secretary John Hoskins, planning director, said festivities will begin with a 11 a.m. band [illegible] downtown at Capitol Square.

From there a 14-man olympic relay team will sprint with the torch of knowledge to the Arts and Crafts building on the Fairgrounds, where the rest of the day's activities will be held.

Hoskins said a special program for Columbus school children has been arranged for Friday afternoon, Oct. 23. Buses will transport the youngsters from the school to the fairgrounds to see Columbus public library films, exhibits, and entertainment.

Highlights Saturday will be:

• An "Around-the-World" song and dance program, including music and folk dances from the Philippines, Indonesia, British Guiana, Greece, India, Iraq, Yugoslavia, Russia, the Middle East, and America, 4 p.m.

• A concert by the Columbus Opera Club, accompanied by Mrs. Marguerite Heer Andrews, 7 p.m.

• A speech by Eamonn Kennedy, Republic of Ireland's representative to the United Nation, 8 p.m.

• A play, "Soldadera," presented by the Columbus Community Theatre, 9 p.m. Winners of Junior and Senior High School UN essay contest will be announced and awards presented.

• The International Ball, beginning at 9:30 p.m.

Activities prior to 7 p.m., are free of charge.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Maurey Defends 'Baby-sitting'

To The Editor:

"Spent more time baby-sitting" (page 1 of this newspaper last week) is a real classic in Mr. Ringer's efforts to stretch the facts. He is referring to a single incident that happened about two years ago.

"A woman called about 10:30 p.m. to complain about some boys creating a disturbance in the street. I told her it was impossible for me to leave as my wife was at a church meeting and I was baby-sitting. I had four children at that time. I told her I would relay her call to the sheriff—the next day she called Ringer.

"I can recall another occasion upon which I received a "prowler" call from about two blocks away. My wife was out so I locked up the house and went looking for the prowler. I didn't find him, but I did pick up a window screen which had been removed from the house by the prowler. I sent it to the sheriff's office and a suspect was picked up later that week and proved to be the guilty party.

"I did flatly refuse to answer one call. A couple of years ago a man called from Hague-av and wanted me to remove a swarm of bees from his yard. This, I told him, was definitely not in my duties as marshal.

"The police problems in this village are few and scattered. You can clock cars for three hours and never spot a speeder, but the minute you put your car in the garage, some joker speeds right by your house. Then you are a poor policeman because you weren't there to catch him.

"In January, 1954, when Mr. Ringer asked me to take the job, he assured me the salary was very large ($750—later raised to $900) compared to the small amount of work required to police the village. It seems, however, that he was really expecting someone like J. Edgar Hoover.

"His attack on me was really without cause inasmuch as when I started to build a four-room addition on my house in July, 1956, I went before council and Mayor Ringer and told them my budget would not stand outside help, that I would have to do the work myself. I offered to give up the job if they thought it best, Council agreed that I should keep the job and do the best I could with it.

"In July when I heard of this plot to get me out of office, I told Mayor Boothe that if he wanted me to resign I would do it then. He said he wanted me to keep the job. And yet he would not say one word to Ringer in my behalf.

"Mr. Ringer's attack upon me was purely unnecessary and unethical. I might also mention the following incident:

"For several years past in the early summer when the Hilltop swimming pool opened, Mr. Ringer would take the permits and applications down to the pool for Bob Case to sign and he would collect the fees personally. Then, in 1958, he waited until the pool opened and ordered me to arrest Bob Case and bring him in to face charges of opening the swimming pool and pop stand without a permit. He fined Mr. Case $10 on each count. He did this because Mr. Case "balked" at the village ordering him to place a guard-rail along the Valleyview-dr to protect people from cars which could enter Valleyview-dr from anywhere along the entire length of the parking lot.

"In the nearly six years I was marshal of this village I put in more time on its behalf than the other officials would put in in 20 years. And many people of this village know it.

"I present these facts to the press to bring them out in the open. I am sick and tired of all these things that went on behind my back. At no time did Mr. Ringer make any straightforward or "above the board" move to seek my removal from office.

Such a person is certainly not worthy of holding a public office, but apparently it is the accepted thing in Valleyview."

Yours truly,
Jack Maurey

Navy Entertaining Teens At Dance Next Saturday

Instead of the bootslap of drill squads, the Navy and Marine Training Center, 240 N. Sandusky-st, will rock to hi-fi strains of teenage dance music from 8 to 11 Saturday, Oct. 24.

Young people, 16 to 19, have been invited to revel at Navy Day Dance with door prizes, refreshments, dance contests, a floor show and free admission. The announcement was made today by Commander J. R. Wills of the training center.

Master of ceremonies for the record hop will be popular Dean Lewis, WBNS disc jockey. Lewis has issued personal invitations to 80 hi-fi clubs in this area. Navy buses will carry dancers to the center from the southeast corner of Broad and High-st, every 20 minutes between 7:30 and 9 p.m. and back again after the dance.

At intermission Dean Lewis will introduce singer Patricia Guess, yeoman second class in the Reserve, the Navy Chanteymen, a reservist chorus, singing songs of the sea, and the Training Center drill team in a series of maneuvers.

The dance is in honor of the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, the president who established sea power as a major factor in national defense. This is the first time the navy has played host to the youth of the community. The training center in Columbus has one of the largest and finest floors for dancing in Central Ohio.

Janitrol Dealers Arriving Sunday

More than 1000 select dealers and sales representatives of the Janitrol Division of Surface Combustion Corp., will convene here Sunday, Oct. 23 for a three-day sales meeting.

A reception Sunday at the Deshler-Hilton will be followed by two sessions Monday and Tuesday at Veteran's Memorial auditorium. A tour of the firm's manufacturing plant at 400 Dublin-av, will be made Monday afternoon.

Highlight of the meeting will be the introduction of a newly-engineered line of central air conditioners and a unit heater line.

Committees For Mission Plan Event

A steering committee, representing three ministerial associations and 28 churches sponsoring the Dr. E. Stanley Jones Spiritual Mission on the Hilltop, planned Nov. 1 through 6, is completing plans for the event.

Mission meetings will be held each evening during the week at Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, 63 S. Powell-av.

In the event the crowd exceeds the 1200 the church can accommodate through closed-circuit television, the mission will be moved to West High auditorium.

GIVEN TRIBUTE—Boy Scout committeemen from the Hilltop, West Side, Lincoln Village, New Rome, Grove City and Briggsdale had some nice words to say about Robert Meade (foreground, and Fred Rudolph (last Tuesday night.

Southwest Scouters Honor Meade, Rudolph For Services

Two men of scouting, one a professional and the other a volunteer, who have done much to build the organization in Southwest Franklin County were singled out for praise Tuesday night.

They are Robert G. Meade, 725 Highland-av, who on Nov. 1 is to be elevated to a new post in the Central Ohio Area council, and Fred Rudolph, 272 Midland-av, long-time scouting enthusiast.

Jerry Spears, Jr., presiding at a meeting of the district committee, announced that District Executive Mead will become the council's first field director, supervising five districts. He pointed out that Southwest scouting grew from 42 units when Meade took over in 1955, to the present 68. Twelve additional units were transferred to the Central district last year. Spears emphasized that the executive had served efficiently and cheerfully in a job that carries double the normal work load.

He was presented a plaque and a brief case by Vernon D. Sanford.

Mead characteristically shifted the spotlight to one of his volunteers, 77-year-old Mr. Rudolph. "Here's a man who is still going strong after 35 years of service," he related, "a true friend, counselor and guide for boys."

Rudolph, a retired employe of Central Ohio Paper Co., is an accomplished camper and nature authority, said Meade in Tribute. "Several generations of boys learned that a merit badge wasn't always a snap when he gave the tests. Well read in his subjects, Rudolph fills an important cog in the local organization. In the last two months he has counseled 35 boys."

Still looking hearty as he nears the eighties, Mr. Rudolph gets a kick out of going to the national Jamborees. In 1956, he was on the scene at Valley Forge, clad in his camping shorts like the rest of the boys. He went to the California convocation in 1953, too.

Rudolph has served in many Scouter capacities with Troop 147 of Highland Friends church.

District Executive Meade's interest in Souting stems from boyhood in the year 1918. He was a teacher 18 years in Central Kentucky and served as a high school principal at Stanford. Acquaintance of Governor Chandler, he is a Kentucky Colonel.

He turned to professional Scouting in 1948 and is working on the topmost (Fellowship) degree in that craft.

Successor in Training

Meade's successor will be William Lindsay of Ashland, Ky., now in executive training on the East Coast. Lindsey once belonged to one of Meade's Explorer posts.

Later in Tuesday's meeting, Commissioner Bob Rinehart reported that the camporee held Oct. 2, 3, 4 near Grove City, was a great success. More than 200 boys attended and about 100 parents visited one evening. Rinehart read a correspondence from Ted Lee of the host Southeast Conservation Club, praising the boys for keeping an orderly campsite.

Swedish Housing Experts Will Tour Lincoln Village

Homes on the far west side of Columbus will be inspected by a group of 16 housing experts from Sweden this weekend.

The Swedes, members of HSB, National Association of Tenants, Savings, and Building Societies (Swedish Cooperative Housing Association), will be in Central Ohio, Oct. 23-24 as guests of the Nationwide Development Co.

According to Edward F. Wagner, ND's vice president and general manager, the delegation will visit ten cities in the United States as part of a three-week tour arranged by the International Housing Service of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the National Association of Home Builders, and the American Travel Association.

The group will inspect both single-family and apartment housing developments including Lincoln Village and Lincoln Village South on W. Broad-st.

The Swedes will see their first football game, the Capital-Wittenberg clash at Capital University on Saturday.

Training Center Scene Of Saturday Dance

Instead of the bootslap of drill squads and the barked commands of petty officers, the Navy and Marine Corps Training Center, 240 N. Sandusky-st, will rock to the strains of teen-age dance music from 8 to 11 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 24.

The dance in observance of Navy Day also commemorates the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt. Young men and women, between the ages of 16 and 19, from Franklin County have been invited.

Mayor To Start Campaign On TV

Mayor Maynard E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner will bring his campaign for re-election before the voters in four television talks within the next three weeks.

Sensenbrenner's first television appearance is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 29, from 6:10 to 6:25 p.m. over WTVN.

Other telecasts, all slated for WLW-C, are scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 30, 6:10 to 6:25 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 31, 11:25 to 11:10 p.m.; and Monday, Nov. 2, from 6:10 to 6:25 p.m.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and Bert Kerbs

Indian Guide Dance Team began practice this past Saturday morning and welcomed five new members. They are Jerry Valentine, Jeff Valentine, Mike Valentine, Jeff Culp and Jeff Hollowell. The dance team meets each Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. for one hour.

Girls' craft class is enjoying a four-week contest, the girl who creates the outstanding craft will receive a hula hoop. First week's winner for outstanding achievement was Marta Renner who won her hoop for decorating an Indian necklace.

We welcomed two new regular attenders to the boys' craft class. They were Paul Clay and Jeff Tilton. This is the first year of craft for these two outstanding model builders.

In action in the Gra-Y Flag Tag Football League last Saturday, Highland defeated Westgate 32-6. Ovorn Miller paced the Highland attack as he scored two TD's on long runs. Larry Ginn, Ken Butler and Jim Bell scored the other touchdowns with Bell also adding their only extra point. In one of the best played games of the young season West Broad and Valleyview played to a scoreless deadlock.

Information about the South Section games will be available in next week's column.

On Oct. 29, the Hilltop YMCA will hold its eighth Annual Gra-Y Induction in the new Westmoor Junior High School auditorium on Valleyview-dr. All boys are urged to attend and become official members of the National Gra-Y movement.

All parents and friends are encouraged to accompany their sons to get a better insight into the real meaning of Gra-Y. Officers will also be installed.

First monthly meeting of the Hilltop YMCA Gra-Y Council will be held tonight at 6:30 at the Hilltop "Y" office. All officers should attend this important session.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits — Apples, grapes, cider and canned peaches.

Protein Foods — Pork loin roasts, ham, bacon, turkeys, cheese, eggs.

Meet The Cabbage Clan

How well do you know the cabbage family? Four members of this clan — cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli and Brussels sprouts — are all "in season" right now. All are easy on the food budget, flavorful, nutritious, and low in calories, too.

Actually, all these vegetables are available the year 'round in one form or another, but now you can get them fresh. In this form these four vegetables are all rich in Vitamin C and minerals. This is particularly true of the ones you can serve raw.

Cabbage—The "Head of the Family"

This year's cabbage crop is of good quality. Plant breeders are working together to improve this "head" of the cabbage family. Eastern states' growers are making a concerted effort to produce smaller, more solid heads. Reports indicate that we may see some interesting results in the next two years.

Meanwhile, you can select good quality from current offerings by choosing cabbage with reasonably solid heads, heavy for their size. The leaves should be fresh and crisp and firmly attached to the core. Fall varieties normally have whiter leaves. Spring cabbage is greener.

Cauliflower—The Family "Aristocrat"

Most of the fall crop of cauliflower is produced along Lake Erie. Cooler weather and recent moisture will mean good cauliflower will be harvested into November. Choose creamy white heads that are heavy for the size, with compact clusters. Size has little relation to quality. Large or small heads, equally mature, are equally good.

Broccoli — The "Flower of the Flock"

Good broccoli has tight, dark green heads with fresh looking leaves. Tenderness is important. You can look forward to even better quality broccoli in the future, for plant breeders are working on broccoli, too. They are developing varieties with darker green color and with flowers that stay tight longer.

Brussels Sprouts—the "Baby" of the Family

These miniature cabbages are best when they are compact or firm and fresh appearing with good green color. Puffy sprouts are edible but are usually of poor quality and flavor. You can expect a good supply of sprouts until the end of January.

Egg Sizes Are Changing

The difference in price between the large and the medium eggs is becoming steadily less. At this season more large eggs are produced. In many stores large eggs may be the better buy this week. A rule-of-the-thumb to follow is: when the larger size eggs are less than seven or eight cents higher than the smaller size, the larger ones are the better buy on a cost-per-pound basis.

Red Cross Seeks Volunteer Help

Franklin County Chapter of the American Red Cross is seeking many new volunteers in the first general recruitment since 1957. Red Cross is a United Appeal Agency.

Mrs. Harold H. Eibling, chairman of Volunteers, is announcing the coming week as Volunteer Recruitment Week when prospective new members will be interviewed in the Volunteer Office, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day Monday through Friday at Red Cross headquarters, 995 E. Broad-st.

Many Red Cross chapters in Central Ohio are also recruiting volunteers at this time. Interested persons are asked to contact their local chapter if living outside of Franklin County.

Weather Affects Squirrel Hunting

"Squirrel hunting has been disappointing up to this point in southern Ohio, but it isn't due to a lack of squirrels. The weather has been the deciding factor. The woods have been extremely dry and this doesn't provide good squirrel hunting conditions."

So reports Jack Kamman, game management supervisor for the Division of Wildlife.

"There appears to be a very good crop of hickories and various kinds of acorns and the squirrel population, although spotty, is about average. With hunting open for another three weeks, hunters should have the best part of the season ahead of them."

West Division Shows Well In UA Drive

West Side section stands at the top of the list in small business solicitation after two weeks of United Appeal campaigning.

Led by Division Vice-Chairman William J. Alder, assistant district manager of International Harvester, the West group rang up a $2,177 report for 24.4 per cent of quota.

Top area in the section so far is Grove City, headed by Curtis Kunz, with 61.9 per cent in. Following are West (Al Wilder) 11.8; Milltop, (Al Roesner) 3.8; New Rome (Robert Edwards) 3.4.

With the overall drive standing at 51.2 per cent, General Chairman George W. Kauffman stated: "If unreported accounts can come in with the same rate of increased giving as shown to date, the goal can be made."

History reveals that churches and states have always struggled for control of peoples.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

AMERICAN RAILROADS

GAY TIME, GOOD FOOD—The sumptuous native feast, luau, was a highspot of their three-week's vacation trip in the Islands for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coffman, 25 S. Southampton-av. Hawaiians, dressed in native style, entertained with music and served roast pig that had been stuffed and surrounded with hot coals and baked in a pit, with barbecued beef on skewers, baked sweet potatoes, salmon with onion and tomatoes, poi, coconut cake, punch and coffee. The Coffmans returned home Sunday night.

Charm Of Hawaiian Islands Captivates Hilltop Travelers

By Betty Daft

The new Aloha State, land of leis and luaus, "is every bit as glamorous and lovely as our imaginations had pictured," is the happy conclusion of returning vacationers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coffman

"The flowers are fabulous, the music, with the sound of surf in the background, perfectly beautiful, and the stars really do twinkle and even have color."

"And surely there are no happier people anywhere than the Hawaiians."

The tour plane was welcomed on arrival by smiling Hawaiians laden with leis, and their unfailingly gracious hospitality and good manners were a source of wonder to the tourists.

Faces From Home

The unplanned meeting with two Hilltop friends also visiting in the islands, was an unexpected pleasure.

Mrs. Lou Saunders, 138 Powhatan-av. and Mrs. Herbert Deems, 26 Algonquin-av. traveled to Hawaii by ship from California. They plan to remain there until Oct. 29.

"Everywhere, Muumuu"

The Coffmans found, to their great amusement, that the abbreviated street clothing shown in travel posters were worn on the street only by tourists, never by Hawaiians.

Hawaiian women were modestly gowned, always, in muumuus, the floor-length, loose, Mother Hubbard style of dress. For formal or evening wear they changed into an adaptation of the muumuu that was fitted and featured a short train

Mrs. Coffman described their hairdos as "quite long, and beautifully arranged in elaborate chignons and rolls. Some of the younger women wore ponytails."

The men wore slacks, never shorts on the street and cotton sport shirts in prints as brilliantly beautiful as the women's

They found the food and the service excellent, and particularly enjoyed the luau feast they attended as well as a Japanese tea party at the Nateoymus Tea House in Honolulu.

Japanese Tea Party

Four Japanese girls and two men in elaborate costume performed their stylized dance movements and sang to accompanying rhythms beat out on gourds.

The couple was also among the 15,000 who watched the Lawrence Welk show being televised from Waikiki Beach.

The Coffmans' tour flew first to Las Vegas for a three-day stay, then to Hawaii and a change in planes for Honolulu. In the islands they spent 21 days at Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, and joined a one-day trip to nearby Kiaua. They arrived home Oct. 18.

Mementos And Memories

As all travelers do, the Coffmans returned with mementos and memories to keep their trip alive for years to came . . . a string of pearls, muumuu and sport shirts; remembrances of the color and beauty of the islands and, most of all, of the happy hospitality of the Hawaiians.

48 Schools And 62 Additions Keep Pace With City Growth

Columbus Public Schools have experienced substantial growth and progress since the end of World War II, Superintendent Harold H. Eibling reported today.

The superintendent noted that "school facilities have been expanded and improved in every neighborhood in the city and the program of education has been strengthened on all grade levels." He added:

"Anyone who reviews the last 14 years should be impressed and inspired by the record of the people of Columbus and the employes of the Board of Education."

Dr. Eibling said that the investment of approximately $5 500 000 has resulted in the following major improvements in the Hilltop and West Side area

New Schools: Hilltonia Junior High School, capacity, 900 pupils; Westmoor Junior High 1000 pupils; Sinna, 24 classrooms;

Georgian Heights, nine classrooms; Lindbergh, nine classrooms; Valleyview, eight classrooms; Westgate, 20 classrooms; and West Mound, 22 classrooms, Franklinton, 16 classrooms and Sullivant, 16 classrooms.

Additions and Remodeling West Junior-Senior High School three classrooms and physical education stating added; home economics, guidance, and music facilities improved

Remodeling only: Avondale, complete remodeling; Bellows complete; remodeling; Chicago complete remodeling.

Dana, two classrooms added through remodeling Greenlawn, temporary school established, Highland, complete remodeling, and West Broad, heating plant and minor remodeling

City Doubled

Turning his attention to the entire city, the superintendent declared that Columbus has more than doubled in geographical area since the end of World War II.

He said that the population of Columbus has increased by approximately 145,000 people during the period and that the number of births in Columbus has increased sharply. He noted that 8,139 babies were born in 1945, as compared to 12,542 last year.

Dr. Eibling reported that enrollment in the Columbus Public Schools has doubled since the late 1940s. To keep up with this incredible growth and to meet the educational demands of the times, he said that the Board of Education has taken the following steps

48 New Schools

- It has built 48 new schools, erected 62 additions to schools, and carried out 46 major remodeling propects and 200 minor improvement projects
- It has nearly doubled the size of the teaching and the non-teaching staffs
- It has revised the curriculum on all grade levels and improved instructional services for all pupils substantially.

On this point, Dr. Eibling noted the establishment of WCBE-FM, the Board's educational radio station; expanded use of educational television; establishment and expansion of a library of educational movies, filmstrips, and recordings; expansion of counseling services; broadening of the program for slow learners, and the establishment and expansion of a program for able learners.

- It has decreased the size of classes. "In view of our tremendous growth in enrollment, this is a remarkable achievement," commented Dr. Eibling
- It has strengthened salary schedules and employee-welfare policies

People Support Schools

The superintendent emphasized that this progress has been made possible "solely because the people of Columbus have given such strong support to their school." He added:

"We are counting upon their continued support to see us through the 1960s, which definitely will bring the schools new challenges."

THERE WAS ALWAYS TALK, BUT:

Mayor Got Things Moving

Columbus has more than doubled in land area since 1954 and its 88 square miles makes it the largest city in Ohio and the third largest in the Midwest. Only Chicago and Detroit cover more area

Columbus had but 41.735 square miles of land in 1954. The tax valuation was $767,374,490, compared to $1,089,849,130 now and an anticipation of more than $1,110,000,000 next year.

When Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner took office nearly six years ago, he invoked a water and sewer freeze that required that all unincorporated areas annex to Columbus before they could receive water and sewer line facilities. His reasoning was that he did not want Columbus to be "strangled by a ring of municipalities around the mother city," as he phrased it.

The annexation program, he says, insures sufficient land inside Columbus for new industry for generations to come.

"This means the city receives the benefit of the property tax," he said. "It means something else, also quite important. Our share of the sales tax from the state of Ohio is in proportion to the amount of taxable real estate inside the city limits."

Sensenbrenner, who is seeking another four-year term, in his report to the people, tells about progress made in various other areas under his administration.

He pointed to completion of Raymond Memorial Golf Course on Trabue-rd; Sunshine, Whetstone and Linden Recreation Centers as well as completion of Dennison-Hunter, now known as the Thompson Recreation Center. Now under construction is the Windsor Terrace Recreation Center.

Referring to slum clearance, the mayor said that though for years civic leaders talked about the evils of slums — and Columbus had a plan — not until he became mayor did blighted, sub standard buildings begin to disappear.

The start and completion of the new Port Columbus terminal building and field expansion under the Sensenbrenner administration prepared Columbus for the jet age, the mayor said.

He listed these other achievements:

New fire stations at Arcadia and Deming, Livingston and Hamilton, and Southgate and Parsons. Fire department personnel increased from 558 to 700.

Police department personnel increased from 536 to 643 and police equipment modernized to meet additional requirements.

Construction and improvement of 133 miles of streets plus maintenance of 233 miles of streets added because of annexations.

Three across-the-board salary increases for city workers.

Free polio vaccine program of last summer.

Inauguration of a program of providing park areas near all new schools.

Combined weekly collection of garbage and rubbish.

Longevity benefits for all city employes.

Construction of the Long-st parking garage and offstreet parking lots at Belle and Town and Mound and Third.

the main building.

All industrial arts, fine crafts, home economics and commercial subject classrooms are included in the north wing.

The gymnasium is contained in the south wing.

Putting into practice his theory that "buildings should be functional as well as fun to attend," Schackne has combined features to assure an efficiently operated school, with beauty and color in decor.

The People's Mayor . . .
THE PLEDGE

"I pledge my energies . . . and the efforts of my administration . . . to continue working for the growth, prosperity and security of the Columbus community in every possible way. I pledge a free and approachable city administration where any citizen can talk it over with an interested and sympathetic administration. This will continue to be a city governed by dedicated men for all people."

From Speech By:
Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner
All-American City Progress Dinner
September 24, 1959

The past six years have seen Columbus turn from a dormant city surrounded by a ring of small satellite communities into a free and growing "All American City" where progress, jobs and expansion are assured for our ever-increasing population. This was the big challenge which was met by the Sensenbrenner administration. The result and the record is one of good city government where progress and growth speaks for itself.

But the job is not done. Plans are under way in every area . . . from A to Z . . . the airport to the zoo . . . to meet the needs and solve the problems of the citizens and community already honored as an All-American City.

Mayor Sensenbrenner's pledge to continue to work for greater progress, prosperity and gowth can be wholeheartedly believed because the past record proves he can and will do it!

Attempt To Slow Down Hurricanes Under Investigation At Mercier Lab

THE "VANE" WEATHER—Atop the house in which he lives, Rev. Mercier has had weather vanes and wind-direction finders placed. At the present time, Rev. Mercier is immersed in a research study concerning the possible eventual control of hurricanes.

Hurricanes may not be in too much of a hurry when a study now being undertaken by the Mercier Weather Station on Home-rd is completed.

At least that is the implied opinion of weatherman, Rev. M. J. Mercier, a skilled veteran of 51 years at tracking and plotting atmospheric conditions.

"Whether people believe it or not," he began, "something is being done about the weather—and no pun is intended."

Rev. Mercier, a former pastor of the Home Road Christian Church, still calls his preoccupation with weather a "hobby." He assisted in setting up the first such station near the corner of Broad and High in 1906.

Keeps Recordings

At the present time at his Home-rd lab, he keeps an exact instrument recording on atmospheric variations in a daily log with no one to assist him. "Too hard to get expert help," he commented on the situation.

Rev. Mercier began his description on hurricanes with a question: "Why does it appear that there are more and bigger hurricanes than ever before?"

He supplied his own answer: "There aren't. It is just that we did not know about them before. The modern equipment we have today makes it easier for us to follow and chart their courses."

The weatherman followed with another iquiry: "Why do more hurricanes come inland than they used to? And here we get to the heart of the study now being conducted."

The answer, he pointed out, has something to do with heat. At least, he explained, that is what some scientists have come to believe.

"Back in the old days," he cited, "energy exerted by people at work was comparatively nil when viewed alongside today's output.

"For instance, a man working on the farm with a team of horses did not expend as much energy, heat-wise, as today's tractors."

"Likewise, yesterday's gravel and muddied roads soaked up rain fall. Today, the way the highways are built, the drainage system allows the rain to slide off. The roads are left hotter and this heat dissipates into the air.

"And one other thing. Heat used to be absorbed by the ranging mountain forests. Where are the forests of today? Certainly not in the quantity that they used to be."

For all of these reasons and more, Rev. Mercier explained, it is thought that temperature is playing a large part in the production of hurricanes. And the control of temptrature is what the study group is interested in.

Besides his interest in the weather, Rev. Mercier has acquainted himself with cameras, astronomy and radio.

Some 27 years ago, he helped in starting a radio station in the Andes Mountains near Quito, Ecuador in South America.

It is maintained by free will offerings of people throughout the world, Rev. Mercier said.

MANY GADGETS—It takes a lot of equipment to keep track of weather conditions as evidenced by a look inside the laboratory at the Mercier Weather Station on Home-rd. Rev. M. J. Mercier, the man who operates the lab, has spent 51 years working with his "hobby" on atmospheric conditions.

UCCEndorses Welfare Levy

A one-half mill tax levy for Child Welfare and Poor Relief will be submitted to Franklin County voters for renewal on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

The levy provides funds for services to orphaned, neglected and abandoned children—and to needy families, the blind, the sick and the disabled.

After studying the programs and financing of the Franklin County Child Welfare Board and the Franklin County Welfare Department, United Community Council has endorsed the levy as essential to carry on services to families and children.

Dean Phillips, UCC president, emphasized that because it is a renewal and not a new levy, there will be no increase in taxes. Approval of the five-year levy will not raise taxes.

"The levy must be renewed. Otherwise vital services for helpless children and needy families will collapse," he said.

Thousands of children and families depend on the levy for life itself. The income from the levy—$850,000—is a major source of support for the Franklin County Child Welfare Board and the Welfare Department.

We have a recent example of what happens when agency services are crippled due to a lack of funds. In the summer of 1958, services to children and families collapsed. The effect on these unfortunate people was tragic.

When the need became known to the public, the voters of Franklin County approved an emergency one-half mill levy for child welfare services. As the result, today we have improved welfare services for families and a good child welfare program.

And more than 10,000 children are in families being aided by the Welfare Department. In some of these families, the wage earner is just temporarily out of work and in need of something to tide the family over. Others have been hit by death, blindness, desertion or crippling disease.

Phillips says that unless the levy is renewed, thousands of helpless children will be hurt. If the levy should fail the following would happen again as they did in 1958:

1) Some of the cottages at Franklin Village—the Children's Home—would have to be shut down. The children would be sent back to the "home" they came from—the same homes they were taken from to protect them!

2) The Child Welfare Board would have to close its doors to many children in desperate need of treatment and care.

3) Adoptions would come to a stop again. The passage of the levy last year made it possible to place children for adoption for the first time in years. Failure of the levy would deprive many children of a chance for a home of their own.

4) The Protective Service Unit would be disbanded. Since its job is to prevent abuse and neglect of helpless children, many would suffer.

5) The health care and medical programs of both agencies would be crippled. Nearly 4000 persons received medical care from the Welfare Department this year.

6) A 25 percent slash in allowances for food and shelter would be made for families on poor relief. This means that if the levy fails, a baby would be given less than seven cents a meal for milk and food.

A.F. CONTRACT CANCELED

The Air Force has abandoned development of the F-108 fighter-interceptor.

The cancellation of the contract with North American Aviation, Inc., of Los Angeles, was an economy move, the Air Force said. About $150,000,000 has gone into the program.

Hit Knitted

Young Mrs. Scott was attending her first ball game. The home team was doing well that day, and for a time she patiently endured her husband's transports and his brief explanations. But when, amid the cheering, howling crowd he sprang upon his seat, waved his new straw hat three times around his head and almost shattered it on the fat man in front, Mrs. Scott exclaimed:

"What on earth's the matter, John?"

"Why dearie," he answered, as soon as he could get his breath, "didn't you see the fielder catch the ball?"

"Of course," said young Mrs. Scott disgustedly. "I thought that was what he was out there for."

Moore Rates With Top 10 Seal Artists

Ned Moore, 178 Guernsey-av, Columbus Art, Inc., artist, has placed among the top 10 designers in the competition to create the National Christmas Seal for 1961, the Tuberculosis Society reports.

Moore's sprightly design, featuring a "Raggedy Ann" doll and a toy soldier peering from a jack-in-the-box, was chosen by a national committee from entries coming from all over the United States.

Moore won $100 for taking first place in the local competition.

William H. Eisele, Jr., 79 S. Weyant-av, art director for Wheeler, Knight and Gainey Advertising Agency, was named second place winner in the national contest. Dave Wagstaff, Grove City, art director for WBNS-TV, also placed among the top 10 designers.

After dry cleaning summer woolens such as suits and coats, seal them in an air-tight box or bag, say Extension specialists at the Ohio State University.

Boating Season Is Not Over Until Boat, Motor Are Stored

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

This may seem like a strange time of the year to be talking about boating. But it's not.

In the first place, fall and winter are the best times to buy boats, motors and marine supplies. It is almost a ritual for prospective boaters to buy their boating equipment in the spring just prior to the opening of the boating season. Dealers are not busy right now, and can spend plenty of time with you to help you get the rig you want and can explain the fine points to you—something that is not always done in the spring madrush of servicing and selling.

Also, you can usually pick up good deals on used boats and motors now.

Another reason for a fall boating discussion is that you should properly store your equipment for the months ahead. Metal or glass boats offer little or no problem in storage. Just find an out-of-the-way spot for them to spend the winter. With a wooden hull, however, there are several problems to be taken into account

Support Bottom Evenly

For a boat to be stored on the floor of a basement or garage, the keel should be supported by a board laid flat on the floor. The bottom should be supported by boat cushions or old tires, to take some of the weight off the keel. It is often wise to cover the boat with a tarp. If the storage place is damp, then you need plenty of ventilation both inside and outside the boat. If placed in a dry room, a pan of water placed in the boat under the tarp will keep the hull from drying out too much.

A boat trailer can be used for storing a boat either indoors or outdoors. A tarp covering the boat is a necessity if a wooden boat is left outdoors all winter. If you do not have a trailer and must store your boat outdoors, then it's best to completely wrap the boat in canvas and turn it upside down on horses. Use at least three horses to prevent sagging.

Drain Gas From Outboard

When it comes to winterizing your outboard, give it a general cleaning-up and going-over. Get rid of any old gasoline so you won't be tempted to use it next spring. Varnishes and other residues form when gasoline is stored for prolonged periods.

To start the fall storage going-over, put your motor in an easy working position and remove the shroud or cowl. Remove the carburetor filter bowl and clean it. Then remove the sparkplugs and squirt some rust preventive oil into the cylinders to protect them from moisture during the winter. Don't use penetrating oil. With sparkplugs out, pull over the motor several times to distribute the oil. Be sure to ground the sparkplug leads.

Drain gear lubricant from the lower unit, and check it for water bubbles. If you find them, there's a leak somewhere and you'd better have the motor checked by a trained outboard mechanic. If no water is apparent, fill the lower unit with hypoid gear oil, filling from the bottom until the oil runs out the top plug. Remove the prop and inspect for nicks and to see whether it is bent. Put grease on the propeller shaft before you put the prop back on.

Wipe a little oil on the external parts of the motor to protect the finish. Store your motor in an upright position in a dry place. Don't cover it because moisture might accumulate under the cover and damage some of the engine parts.

With your boat and motor properly taken care of you can rest assured that everything will be ready to go on the first warm weekend next April or May.

State Parks To Lower Area Lakes

"Operation Lake-Lowering" at five state parks will commence Nov. 1, according to V. W. Flickinger, chief, Ohio Division of Parks.

At Buckeye Lake, Fairfield, Perry and Licking Counties, the water is to be dropped 20 inches. Natural causes, such as evaporation, lack of rain, and the like, have already cut the level more than 20 inches. Thus it may be necessary to drop 10 more inches. This work is being done so repairs may be made to walls and docks around the lake.

"Lowering of Buckeye and other lakes," says the parks chief, "will also help to alleviate damage caused by the movement of ice during the winter months."

Two lakes, Loramie, Shelby County, and St. Marys, Mercer and Auglaize counties, will be dropped one foot to give farmers a chance to dry out their fields which lie above the lake. They contend this will give them better plowing conditions.

Cowan Lake, Clinton County, will be reduced eight feet for the purpose of repairing and building docks. At [illegible] Woods State Park, Butler and Preble Counties, Lake Acton will also be lowered eight feet. This is for the purpose of ice control.

"The actual lowering of the lakes may vary," says Flickinger, "depending on the weather. If it rains in some areas we may have to drain off more water. If it does not rain the opposite course will be true. We are in hopes that normal pool stages in all lakes will be obtained again by April 1, 1960."

Derby Champ Is Still At It!

Lando Eblin, 160 S. Warren-av, winner of this year's Hartley Newspapers Fishing Derby hasn't put away his fishing tackle yet — not by a long shot!

Last week Eblin landed a near-state-record smallmouth bass at Rocky Fork Lake, near Hillsboro. His catch measured 22 inches and weighed six and a quarter pounds. According to the Ohio Division of Wildlife, the state record was a whopping 24½-incher, weighing seven pounds, eight ounces. It was caught in the Mad River by James Bayless, Dayton, in 1941.

Lester B. Pearson, Canada's Nobel peace prize winner, on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposed disarmament plan: "The proposals . . . should be studied both between and behind the lines."

West, Watterson Paired In Homecoming Duel

By Bob Wilcox

Very little can be stated about this Friday's foe for the West Cowboys. West scouts didn't even have a program last Saturday night as they watched St. Charles dump Watterson, 42-8. Watterson scored in the last six seconds.

To date Watterson has a 2-3 mark, winning from St. Marys and Hamilton and losing to Linden-McKinley, Lancaster and St. Charles.

They use a straight "T", sometimes tight and sometimes with all variations of slots . . . both ends, one end, the halves slotted in behind the wide ends, both halves or one flanked, etc. However, they also pull one of their halfbacks in front to form a box effect in the backfield. (Much like the old Notre Dame box, but off the "T" offense.)

On defense they use a 4-5-2, but mainly the 6-3-2-1. At least against St. Charles they were almost exclusively a passing team, but showed no exceptional passer. The scouts had little chance to look at the receivers as St. Charles rushes rarely let Watterson's passer get his throws off. Their average weight and speed probably parallel that of the Cowboys fairly closely. Of the running game very little is known since they hardly ever ran the other evening.

The Cowboys will be celebrating their homecoming this Friday evening. Queen candidates and the court are composed of Polly Fisher, Sherry Alban, Karen Rovias, Sue Roush and Judy Newkirk.

After last week's game a life-long friend on one of the sports staffs downtown asked "What in heaven's name kind of [illegible] you have out there? You've scored a total of 80 points this year . . . and all in two games!"

Well, I shall go out on the proverbial limb and predict that Friday evening will be a happy homecoming with another good sized victory . . . most certainly if the Cowboys play up to their ability with their "new found" big, but speedy backfield (If that isn't crawling out far enough in thin air, then I'll try to do better later in the year!) But to answer my friend, "We have seen . . . and we shall see!"

BANDAGED HAND FAILS TO STOP JERRY

Hummel's Big Performance Thrills West Fans Friday

This proved to be "bounce back" week all over Columbus, further proving that the third time is the charm!

Coach Woody Hayes and his Bucks did it—so did Coach Bill Schmitter and his West Cowboys as they snapped back from two consecutive losses in previous weekends. The Cowboys mauled Marion-Franklin 26-12 last Friday evening.

It was definitely a team victory with many fine individual performances, but halfback Jerry Hummel was spectacular. He scored two touchdowns and one extra point for a total of 14 points and carried the ball 24 times for a total of 132 yards and a fabulous 5.5 average per carry.

But his blocking accomplishments were almost as shining as his ball carrying chores. Note the astronomical climb of this lad—coming from an athletic family, he was last year a seldom-used reserve halfback. At the beginning of this season he was one of a trio that split the two halfback chores. Quickly he became a starter with a fairly fine running performance against Springfield.

Against Franklin Heights he put on an outstanding running display. Midway through the second quarter he replaced the injured Bill Biggers at fullback and without "batting an eye" at the switch continued to run through Franklin. He climaxed that evening with a beauty of an 85 yard kickoff return for a TD. Still running from the fullback slot against Eastmoor, he again started out to have a fine evening, but found himself retiring in the second quarter with a broken left hand.

He dressed for the East fray, but with his hand in a cast and no practice all week he confined his duties to the phone on the bench all evening. But last Friday, after a week of drilling on gripping the ball with practically one hand, he really made up for lost time. He showed he is no flunky—future opponents better start defensing for him.

But back to the game . . . a big experiment proved quite successful Friday. Big co-captain Jim Horn switched from tackle to fullback with Biggers (who is built and swift enough for it) going to the other halfback slot. Horn proved to be an exceptionally fine short-yardage gainer and almost unstoppable on short plunges, gaining 37 yards in 13 carries for an 2.8 average per carry. Although the experiment seemed to be working, and West seemed to be dominating everything but the scoreboard, they left the field at halftime trailing 12-0.

One wondered what miracles had been performed (or orations given) in the Bronco's locker room at halftime as they soared back in the second half, not only to continue mauling the Red Devils statistic-wise, but also in the scoring column. The answer seemed to be that Cowboy tackles were calling the wrong blocks and Marion-Franklin was shooting the gap. For this reason only Horn was put back in at tackle for his fine blocking ability.

But as Coach Schmitter later stated, "It would have made little difference whether Horn returned to the line or the backfield in the second half. After we went over their blocking assignments at halftime and Stew Randall started to click at the other tackle we would have 'gone' no matter where Jim played."

It didn't do them much good, but Horn's off-tackle plunges were the only plays that Marion-Franklin seemed to analyze and stack for later in the evening . . . they never did figure out or stop the others.

Biggers Scores From The Three

Biggers had a good evening helping to smash the Marion-Franklin line and started things off at 6:17 of the third period by driving over left guard from the three for the score. Hummel went over right tackle for the extra points. This climaxed a 12-play, 61 yard drive which saw these two lads carry the ball exclusively; the big gainers being an 11 yarder by each.

At two minutes even of the same period, Hummel wound up a seven-play, 35-yard drive by going the final 7 over right tackle. Bob Saint went over left tackle for the extra points. That made it 16-12, West, at the three-quarter mark.

In the final stanza the Cowboys drove to the Marion-Franklin 16 only to lose the ball on a fumble. However, Marion-Franklin immediately dittoed with Bob Montgomery falling on it on the seven. Set back five yards by a backfield-in-motion penalty, the Cowboys finally pushed the score across at 8:44, as Biggers went the final two over left guard. Saint's sweep of left end for the points was no good.

At 5:33, Hummel set sail around right end for 18 yards and his second TD, and the Cowboy's second of the period, to wind up a 61-yard, five-play drive. Another big gainer was Saint's 11-yard end run. Biggers went over right guard for the extra points.

Kern Pulls Surprise

Then to finish the scoring up on a very fine note, quarterback Bill Kern, with 4:12 showing on the clock, completely outfoxed everyone. Faking beautifully to his left, he whirled and, 'bootlegged' the ball around right end and alone outraced the Marion-Franklin team 19 yards into the end zone. West's extra point try failed as they were set back 15 yards for holding.

Biggers again was forced to run on a punt attempt Friday evening as a bad pass from center bounced in front of him. Although he picked up yardage, it wasn't quite enough for a first down. And speaking of first downs—to show that West's defense was just as potent as their offense in that second half—Marion-Franklin did not gain a single first down the entire second half.

Franklin's play was exactly as our 'scouting' report indicated last week. They started right off with razzle-dazzle, two and three handoffs both for running and pass plays. Their TD plays both demonstrated what scout Larry Gray meant last week when he said, "If you let them get by you, they're gone . . . with hustle and speed."

Their first score came on a 60-yard pass-run play in the second quarter. Their final score, also in that period, came with about one second showing on the clock on a 70-yard right end run after the quarterback could find no receivers and had eluded several Cowboys in his own backfield. The big play to set it up was a 40-yard dash over tackle . . . which saw Biggers faked out of his shoulder pads, and that takes some real doing!

They almost scored again in the final seconds of the game on a breakaway run, but he was caught from behind after a 53-yard jaunt by little sub halfback Dave Duerler who never gave up, and he sure looked ('long gone'), and finally nailed him.

Some other fine Cowboy performances . . . Kern and Bob Ross split the quarterback chores and both looked extremely good in giving the Bronco offense a 1-2 director's punch; on the line some fine jobs were turned in by Bill Paske, Montgomery, Gary Alwood, Randall and Don Birle. Alwood, the "poundless wonder" as linemen go, has been playing both offense and defense for the past two weeks (defensive end) and really doing a job. Biggers as a defensive linebacker also did some fine work there.

Only injury of the evening seemed to be Terry Linson, but of a more minor nature that shouldn't keep him out of action. John Peterson, switched to end, and Dave Morris at end offensively also did fine jobs.

Central's Famine Continues . . .

Meanwhile Central continued to have their woes as their famine for victory continued. They lost to Eastmoor, 28-0. To date they have dropped games to Newark, 16-6 (were in the game right up to the final minutes), Westerville, 14-8, East, 52-0, and St. Charles, 24-12.

Howe has always prided himself that he could bring teams along fast—thus they did look the best of the lot this fall at the West preview. But from then on . . . POW; he claims he's never had a squad improving quite so quickly. And as one might consider injuries as a possible factor, this has been their most injury-free season; only one boy, Steve Morland, a defensive end, was lost for a couple of weeks, but that wasn't enough to account for this tailspin.

He started the season with a lot of inexperience (he had no man back from his '58 offensive team which topped the league in offense last year), but he can look to the future, he hopes. He's loaded with juniors and this week his starting unit will contain only one senior, and he feels that it'll be just as strong as his senior-studded lineup was. The Pirates meet Aquinas at home this Friday night. The rest of their schedule is Oct. 30—North, there; Nov. 6—Linden-McKinley, home; and Nov. 13—Marion-Franklin, there.

Ohio Valley Revitalized . . .

The Ohio Valley Football League went from almost out to back in business this week. They had only one team remaining in the loop to start the season from their originally scheduled four to six team league). The 'breath of life' was poured in last Saturday evening as they revitalized into a four-team league, with the possibility of two more squads by this coming weekend.

Last Sunday's lone fray found the Bears being dumped by the Hawks, 26-7. Big gun for the winners was fullback Potts with two TD's. The losers were paced by the running of Bob Brown and their entire scoring output was by quarterback Jim Blum.

The league at present is composed of the West Side Jokers, the Sunshine Hawks, the Valleyview Hawks and the Oklahomans, a squad from Rainbow. Next Sunday's schedule finds the Jokers playing at Sunshine, and the Bears and Oklahomans playing at Lockbourne Road School. Jim Leach is commissioner of the league and can be reached at BR. 9-3516, should anyone want to join the league.

The West cross-country team was rained out at their meet with Springfield, but came in third in their triangular meet with Linden-McKinley and Central last week. Final score—Linden 20, Central 51, West 59. They met East and North in another triangular meet last Tuesday and meet Marion-Harding, both at Raymond Memorial, Thursday at 4 p.m. City meet will be at Raymond, Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Rams Take Over Top Spot In Glenwood Center League

Rams of Glenwood Recreation Center moved into first place this week by downing the Colts 18-8, behind the hard running of Virgil Starks and Jim Alexander.

Alexander smashed into the line many times for good gains. The Ram defense was the determining factor during most of the games. They held the Colt backfield to no gain during crucial points in the contest.

The Colts' score came in the third quarter in a Melvin Thompson-to-Jim Bell pass which was good for the needed 60 yards.

The Colts, behind the hard running of Melvin Thompson blasted the Giants, 20-0. Thompson scored twice on runs of 10 and 20 yards. A one-handed catch by Jim Bell was good for six points.

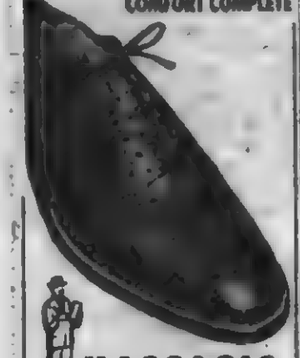
Moore Scores Twice

Moore scored two touchdowns in runs of 60 and 50 yards. Willie Snull's run around right end was good for two points.

Overn Miller of the Giants scored in a 50-yard run and also passed to Jerry Frances for another.



Behind a five-touchdown barrage, the Rams trounced the undefeated Browns 33-0. The Rams scored in all quarters in a game played in a mud bowl. Scoring was as follows: Virgil Starks, two; Jim Alexander, one plus point after touchdown; Ed Smith, one; Ron Tidwall, one, and Bobby Weisenberger point after touchdown.

Behind the hard charging line and good running of the backfield, the Rams blasted the Giants 33-13. Scoring was as follows for the Rams: Ron Tidwell, two; Jim Jester, one; Jim Alexander, one, and Virgil Starks, one.

Glenn Foster scored all Giants' points on an intercepted pass and an off-tackle plunge.

YOUR WIFE
You and your wife want the best out of life. But you also want to put a 'little something' away for emergencies and for the future. And what better way of systematic saving than through the medium of life insurance? Through life insurance, your wife's standard of living can be maintained if you should die prematurely; through life insurance, your retirement years can be financially secure if you survive. And the accumulation of dividends over the years increases the attractiveness of life insurance as an investment for the living.

I'm sure I can be of service. Why not give me a call? You will be under no obligation.

South-Western Board Hits Trail To Stump For Bonds

Members of the South-Western City School Board will continue hitting the trail next week to acquaint various district factions with the need for passage of the $2.25 million school bond issue and renewal of the operating levy.

Along with the board members, Acting Superintendent V. J. Ullman and board clerk R. A. Jennings will be on hand. The distinguished group will appear Wednesday, Oct. 28, at Franklin Heights High School and the following night at Pleasant View.

All were present last evening at Grove City High School to present the facts behind the need for more monies in the expanding district.

William Spangler's topic will be on the location of buildings.

Frederick Kunz will tell of the cost and size of sites as compared to home sites.

Clyde Crandall will give the whys and wherefores on the need of more buildings. He will also show what the future will hold for the district in the event that the issues are not passed.

Ullman will detail the need for the renewal of a 14.85 mill operating levy. Monies from this levy go to paying teachers' salaries and securing equipment.

Jennings will speak of bond retirement and building fund monies.

The board will be asking for passage of three-quarters of a million more dollars than requested in the bond issue that failed last summer, Ullman said. The $1.5 million bond request failed by a large majority in the July election.

Hearing Set

A public hearing on whether or not Grove City Band Director, Richard Harris, will be ousted will convene Nov. 4 at the cafeteria of East Franklin Elementary School at 9 a.m., the South-Western School Board determined Monday night.

Boxelder Bugs Prevalent; May Seek Shelter In Walls

Boxelder bugs are very prevalent this year, especially around homes where boxelder trees are growing, according to a report from the Madison County Extension Office.

The Boxelder bug is a flat-backed, rather narrow bug, one-half inch long, brownish-black, with three longitudinal red stripes on the thorax. The young are bright red in color.

During the summer these bugs feed on the foliage of boxelder and ash trees, but in the fall they leave the trees and seek shelter in the walls of buildings or in other protected places where they live through the winter. They often find their way into houses, usually from the sunny side and cause great alarm.

The bugs are not capable of biting or harming foods, clothing, or other household materials.

Boxelder bug are difficult to control. Since they breed only on the pistillate or seed-bearing boxelder trees the removal of such trees is a possible solution. It should be noted, however, that they frequently come from trees some distance away—possibly in the neighbor's yard.

After the bugs have congregated on the tree trunks, or have migrated to the house, they can be killed by spraying with chlordane one-half pint or 75 per cent emulsion in one gallon of water. A 3-5 percent chlordane in kerosene solution (purchase ready mixed) is also satisfactory.

Plugging all cracks and crevices around doors, windows and foundation may help prevent bugs from entering the house. Periodical use of a vacuum cleaner is effective in picking up bugs after they have entered the home.

Beauty Of Autumnal Leaves Often Given Wrong Reasons

The Ohio landscape is now entering a period of bright and varied hue as the leaves change color. In the past many wrong answers have been given as to the reason leaves change color.

"Leaves are made up of cells filled with green, yellow and brown chemicals," explains a member of the Division of Forestry. "The green color is dominant through the growing season or as long as the leaf receives a food supply and adequate sunlight."

"In the fall the leaf food supply is cut off by a natural process. A separation layer of cells which develops in the leaf stem blocks the food supply.

"With no food supply, the green element slowly disappears. Then the yellow shows up for the first time.

"Sugar trapped in the leaf when it is blocked off results in the formation of a new substance which makes the bright colors of fall—red, blue and purple. If the leaf material is acid, a red coloration results as in the case of maples, sumac, some oaks and the skins of some apples.

"If the leaf material is alkaline then the leaf is some shade of blue or purple. Ash, dogwood, gum and some oaks show various shades of these colors. There may be variation from one cell to another in the chemistry of a single leaf. This accounts for multicolored leaves.

"Contrary to popular opinion, frost is not necessary for fall coloration. The change takes place every year. In fact, an early frost may spoil the autumn beauty by killing the leaves before the separation layers develop. Then the leaves turn brown rather than the brilliant shades which normally result.

"Ideal weather for the production of fall beauty occurs when the days are bright and the nights cool. Buckeye Sunday drivers who make a color tour should learn to read the bright landscape in terms of the trees which make the color.

"Purple means ash, dogwood, gum or some of the oaks. Orange, a mixture of red and yellow, usually indicates maples.

"Yellow, one of the early colors, can mean tulip poplar, hickory, aspen, sassafras, beech, elm or maple.

"Red indicates maple, gum, some oaks, sumac, occasionally dogwood or five-leaf ivy. Dark green usually means evergreens, especially after color change is well under way. Tree shapes help to identify tree species, too.

"There are variations of these colors. In the southeastern Ohio hills, the oak ridges show us as masses of rose, rust and purple, especially late in the season. And everywhere, the infinite variety of which nature is capable will guarantee color combinations to delight every eye."

Pastor At St. Cecilia Marks Silver Jubilee

Rev. Kimberley

Today, some 25 years later, Rev. James H. Kimberley, pastor of St. Cecilia Church near New Rome, is once again preparing for a life-time milestone — the Silver Jubilee anniversary of the ordination that took place Oct. 28, 1934.

A solemn mass of Thanksgiving will take place at noon Sunday at the church in honor of the observance. Bishop Isenmann will preside.

Following the mass, a dinner will be held for the clergy at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Lodge. A parish reception will be held at the Lodge from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

In between his ordination and his present duties, Rev. Kimberley has led a varied, active priesthood.

He was assigned by the late Bishop Hartley to act as chaplain at St. Ann's Hospital. He has also served as chaplain at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Zanesville.

He was appointed pastor of St. Sylvester Church in Zaleski in November of 1945. In January of 1950, he was transferred to St. Patrick Church in Junction City.

Rev. Kimberley has been pastor at St. Cecilia since June of [illegible].

Deacon at Sunday's Mass will be Monsignor George T. Wolz, of St. Charles Seminary; subdeacon will be Father Earl Holtzapfel, pastor of St. Augustine Church.

The sermon will be presented by Monsignor Herman E. Mattingly, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church in Newark.

Child Welfare Levy Should Be Passed

Voters are asked to support the one half mill tax levy for Child Welfare and Poor relief services in Franklin County next Monday. This is a renewal levy that will provide urgently needed funds for the orphaned, neglected children and to needy families.

The fact that this is a renewal will mean that there will be no increase in taxes.

The Child Welfare Board is currently caring for 1612 children that have been neglected or abused by their parents. This is a responsibility of the people of the county. Passage of the levy again is essential if these youngsters are to continue to receive this care.

Columbus School Bond Issue and Levy Important

Columbus has one of the finest school systems in the country today and this in the face of the ever expanding community needs for more schools.

The people of our city have responded to previous appeals for bond money for new schools and they have been able to maintain their confidence in the way the school administration has spent this money.

This paper today contains a map showing the needs of the schools in this area. Every segment of the city will benefit from the passage of the bond issue.

Your support of these school financial programs at the election next Tuesday, is a vote for the future of our young people. You can make no finer investment.

Dreams Begin To Come True

For nearly 10 years now many people of this community have dreamed of the day a fine new Hilltop YMCA facility would be available for both youngsters and adults. Many postponements have been encountered through the years.

But worthwhile things have a way of advancing from the dream stage to realization if effort and enthusiasm hold out among those who have such vision.

And so it is on Sunday, Nov. 1 at 2:15 p. m. cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Hilltop YMCA building on Valleyview-dr will be conducted.

Appreciation for this facility and acknowledgment of the responsibilities ahead should be evidenced by a good attendance at this ceremony. It will be short but should prove interesting. On account of the weather, it will be held in Westmoor Junior High auditorium with the cornerstone being placed in the building at the conclusion of the short program. Everyone [illegible]

We Reaffirm Our Stand For Sensenbrenner

Last week this newspaper editorially advocated the re-election of Mayor Sensenbrenner. As election day draws near we reaffirm this [illegible].

As pointed out last week, we like the mayor for the things he has been for. Columbus has been a progressive city under his administration. The city is forging ahead. Long neglected programs are getting attention.

We believe, with the mayor, that even better things are yet to come.

In the last week of the campaign a lot of claims will be bandied about. For example, the opposition claims the campaign has become one of big money being involved.

Newest Expressway Will Open Friday

By Bill Terry

Biggest road-building project in the history of the West Side — the $9,300,000 Sandusky Street Expressway designed to help relieve downtown traffic congestion—will be opened to traffic Friday.

The four-lane divided highway runs for two miles, from Greenlawn-av to the Scioto River, north of Broad-st, and is the west leg of the Columbus Innerbelt. It was built in three sections—Greenlawn to Sullivant, Sullivant to the Spring-Sandusky traffic interchange and the new Mound-st bridge to carry eastbound traffic over the Scioto River.

The Sandusky Street Expressway will tie in with the Goodale Expressway at one end and the Southwest Freeway at the other.

Ceremony Near Broad-st

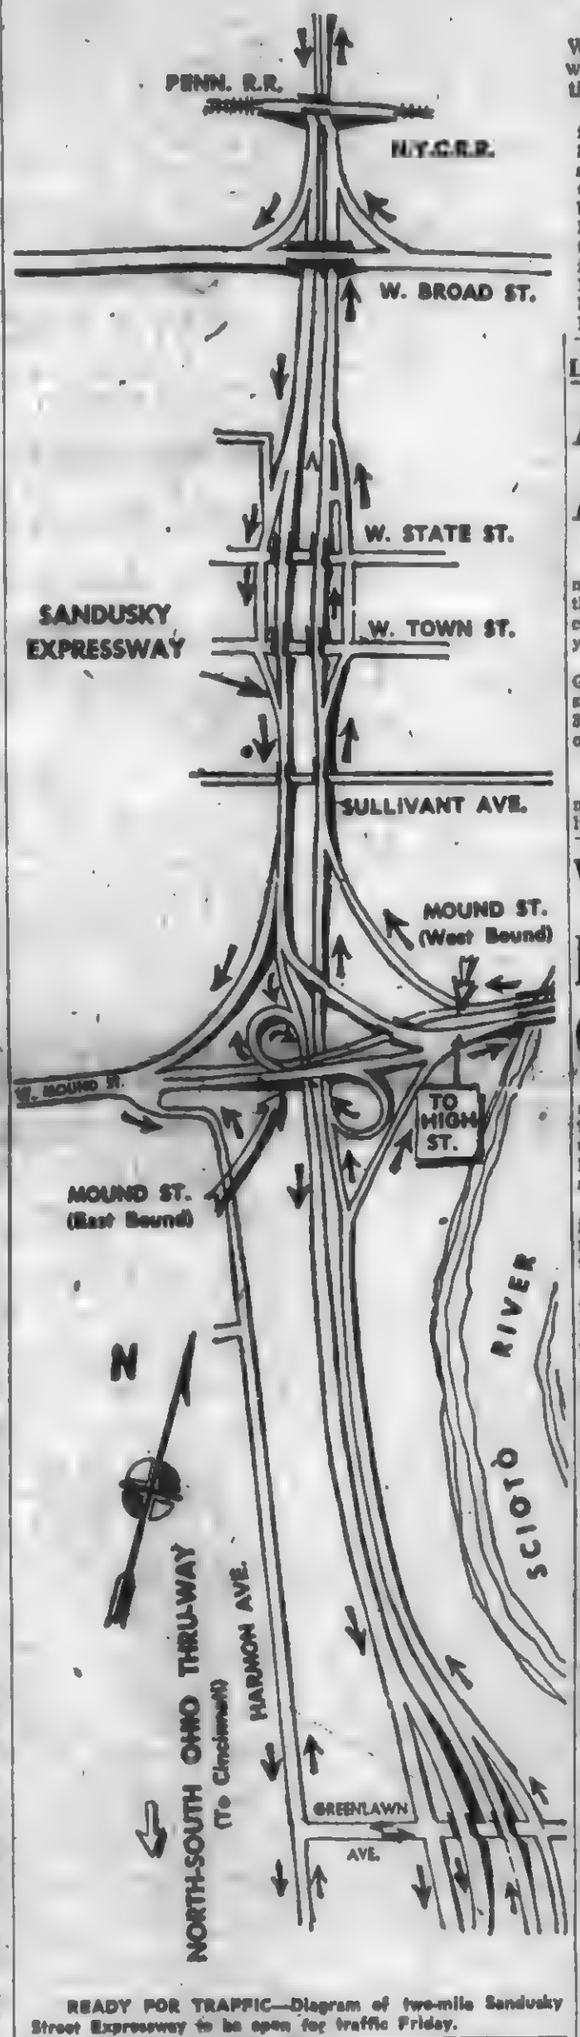
The dedication program will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday on the Sandusky Street Expressway, just south of Broad-st. In case of rain, the ceremony will be under the Broad-st bridge.

General chairman of the program is C. Carlton Hartley, publisher and civic worker. Floyd C. Redick, city service director, is co-chairman. Chet Long will be master of ceremonies. Michelle Ryan, "Miss Sunshine" queen of the West Side June Jubilee, will be presented.

The Right Rev. Msgr. George Gressel of Holy Family Church will give the invocation. Rev. Albert L. Rose of Chicago Avenue Church of Christ will give the benediction.

Honored guests will be Del Starkey, general manager of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce; Paul Gingher, chairman of the Metropolitan Committee and Harry Miller, chairman of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus.

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, State Highway Director Everett S. Preston and Robert Johnson of the Bureau of Public Roads are listed for brief speeches.



Invited to represent Columbus are Norman Folpe, land acquisition officer; Robert Mott, expressway coordinator; Robert Werner, city engineer; Redick, W. Ralston Westlake, president of city council and members of city council.

County Engineer Guy Elbin is listed as representing Franklin County, while E. L. Sheley will represent the State Highway Department's Division Six.

Representatives of contractors and building crafts unions have been invited.

LOCAL MAN SURE TO WIN

Hilltop Candidates In Election Spotlight

One thing about Tuesday's mayoralty election is certain: the man who will guide the city's destiny for the next four years will live on the Hilltop.

Whether he lives at 335 Guernsey-av or 3294 W. Broad-st is something the voters in 33 Columbus wards will decide on election day.

Mayor Almost Nine Years

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, mayor for nearly nine years, lives at the Guernsey address. Sensenbrenner, a Democrat, is running on his record.

His opponent, W. Ralston Westlake, is a Republican, lives at the W. Broad-st address and is president of city council.

A mayoralty poll conducted by the Hartley Newspapers gives Sensenbrenner a slight edge in the election, on the basis of undecided votes which are expected to swing to him. On the basis of views of persons who had decided for whom they will vote, Westlake led.

In his campaign talks, Sensenbrenner had pointed to progress the city has made while mayor in building expressways, sewers, streets, recreation centers, the air terminal railroad underpasses, slum elimination and general administration of the city's business.

The mayor tells his audiences that more is yet to come and that, on the basis of past experience, it is logical to assume that the program he and his aides have planned will be carried out.

Westlake Stresses Economy

Westlake has a 16-point campaign program "for a better Columbus." The platform includes, in his words:

"Increased efficiency and economy in city government, rigid adherence to competitive bidding in awarding contracts for city purchases, hiring of additional city engineers to do work now done by consultants, protection from excessive and unwarranted utility rate increases, adequate parks and recreational facilities.

Also, flood protection program with regular and periodic inspections, an endeavor to reduce crime and delinquency, creation of a car and truck pool for city workers, a non-partisan civil service commission and adequate sewer and water facilities.

The mayor claims he's already for these same things.

Langdon, DeVore On Ballot

Two other Hilltoppers will appear on the ballot. They are Ronald E. DeVore, 329 S. Terrace-av, Republican candidate for city council; and Paul E. Langdon, 75 Powhatan-av, unopposed for a four-year term on the Columbus Board of Education.

DeVore, experienced in several lines of business, is now a tax advisor and accountant and a methods engineer. If elected he said he will use his background of "saving money for other people" to influence those in authority to use tax money more efficiently. He also urges closer review of local traffic problems.

Langdon has served four years on the school board, one as its president. He is a member of the legislative committee of the Ohio School Boards Association. He is manager of finance and accounting at Battelle Memorial Institute, and has served seven years on the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board.

Westlake's Bus Plea Gets Action

City Council Monday night resolved to call for the immediate improvement of a 300-foot section of Eakin-rd which will allow an extension of the Mound-st bus line to Westgate Manor.

The unpaved stretch is found in Westgate Terrace development between Brixham-rd and the Manor.

After a typographical error in a city hall report on the estimated cost of the project was corrected from "$90,000" to "$9,000," Council President Ralston Westlake got unanimous backing on his proposal. Political opponent Mayor Sensenbrenner was also in accord, having favored the new bus loop for some time.

City May Undertake Work

Developer R. R. Lloyd said it would be at least spring before he could undertake the expense of the needed link. City attorneys, consulted, said that in order to get an immediate start, the city could ask Lloyd's company to put up bond, then shoulder the cost itself and assess the bordering properties later. The city approved the street lines in 1958.

Westlake said he will follow up on the financing procedure while a meeting of the engineers and Lloyd is urged later this week. Experts said asphalt should be poured no later than early November, in most cases, or concrete before Dec. 1.

Proposed Route Given

When finished, the new loop will extend bus service to thousands of people south of Sullivant-av, west of Brinker-av. As proposed, the Mound-st bus would travel west on Mound to Brinker, south to Eakin, thence west to Wedgewood-dr, north to Sullivant-av, east to Binns and South on Binns to Mound.

Appearing before council in support of the project were representatives of the Hilltop Business Association, Westgate Manor apartments, International Harvester Co., Westgate Friends Church, Ernest Fritsche Co., (developers of Holly Hill subdivision); Haubrich Armory and residents of Miriam and Rosary Additions.

Halloween Festivities Moved To Armory

Hopes for a happy Halloween on the Hilltop soared higher than a supersonic broomstick this week.

This is in contrast to a week ago when it appeared there wasn't a "ghost of a chance" that a big community celebration would be held. West High school was rejected because there were not enough volunteers to "guard" the building inside and out.

But another kind of guard, the National Guard, came to the rescue and at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, will throw open the doors of new Haubrich Armory, 4094 Sullivant-av, free to the public.

Arrangements for the spacious drill hall were made in a last-minute effort by this newspaper, the Columbus Recreation Department, Hilltop Community Council and the Armory Board.

Glenwood Party Canceled

The staff of Glenwood Recreation Center has canceled a smaller party of its own and will shift all attention to the program at the armory.

Chuck Moore, chief "spookman" for the planners, said a costume program for "children of all ages" will begin at 7 p.m.

Four Centers Feature Fun In West Side

West Side Community Service Council has coordinated plans for the following activities:

At Boys' Club

West Side Boys' Club will hold a pre-teen dance for youngsters under 12. A grand march will highlight the evening and prizes will be awarded for costumes and contests. Mothers' Auxiliary will supply milk and donuts.

Activities begin at 7 p.m. and end at 9.

At Sullivant Gardens

Sullivant Gardens will play host to children under 12, and will show movies. A movie will also be provided on Friday night for Girl Scouts and Brownies.

At Gladden

A Halloween party at Gladden Community House for 12-year-olds and under will be divided into three separate events with a specialized program for each [illegible].

A party for five through eight-year-olds will be from 6 to 7 p.m., and one for the nine-through-12 age group is planned for 7:30 to 9 p.m.

At Sunshine

A dance for all teenagers in the community will be held at Sunshine Recreation Center between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m.

A variety of games and contests with prizes for the winners is planned, as well as dancing. Cider and donuts will be provided by the West Side Board of Trade.

Teenagers will register at the center, and be allowed one half hour to reach their homes. Names will be called at that time, and those answering from their homes will be awarded silver dollars.

Sunday Ceremony Set At 'Y' Branch

Cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Hilltop YMCA building on Valleyview-dr, just west of Hague-av, are set for 2:15 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

A short program will start in the auditorium of the new Westmoor Junior High School building, just west of the 'Y' site. Dr. Harold H. Eibling, superintendent of the Columbus Public Schools, will be the speaker. C. Carlton Hartley, chairman of the Hilltop 'Y' Board of Management will preside.

Music by the West High Brass Sextet will precede the program. Ushers will be members of the West Hi-Y and Jr. Hi-Y clubs of Westmoor and Hilltonia junior high schools.

Many articles have been collected to be placed in the metal box inside the cornerstone. This will be done by Jerry Spears, Sr., assisted by three Y boys, Donald Richard Ehman, Jr., Stephen John Redman and Thomas Richard Curtis.

Jones Series Begins Nov. 1

Area residents may hear, during a six-day preaching mission starting Sunday at Westgate EUB Church, the evangelist "who has probably spoken to more non-Christians in more countries, than any man in the world."

Dr. E. Stanley Jones, 75, missionary for more than half a century, has travelled incessantly on evangelistic tours to the Far East, North, and South America, Europe, Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and Alaska.

Twenty-eight churches in the western Columbus area are cooperating in sponsoring the Spiritual Life Mission. Meetings will be held each evening at 7:45 at Westgate EUB Church, 52 S. Powell-av.

In the event the church, with closed-circuit television facilities to accommodate 1200 is too small, meeting will be moved to West High School.

In addition to the meeting each evening, Sunday through Friday, Dr. Jones has a crowded calendar of daytime speaking engagements.

He will speak Sunday during the 10 a.m. worship service at Westgate EUB, at the 11 a.m. service at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, and at the Methodist District Evangelism Rally at 4:30 p.m.

He will address the Columbus Ministerial Association at 10 a.m. Monday, Downtown Kiwanis Club at noon, and Boulevard Presbyterian Men's Dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Jones will speak on Tuesday at the EUB Conference at Circleville at 10 a.m., and at

Light-for-Sight Sale Launched By Lions

Bushels of bulbs will be sorted tonight into more than 2000 sacks for sale by individual Lions to friends and neighbors. The workers will meet at Jonas Lumber Co.

All profits are marked for sight conservation and other community welfare projects, said Sale Chairman John Garber. Eye examinations for children, eye surgery, purchase of glasses for those unable to pay and general assistance to the blind are among the major projects.

Garber declared that the

"Suaviter in Modo, Fortiter in Re"
—this desk motto of President Eisenhower, meaning, "Gentle in manner, strong in deed," sounds good to us here in the Hilltop YMCA.
Large assemblies of people require discipline and guidance. Our highly trained men, supervising hundreds of boys and young men daily are gentle but firm. They have won great respect and make surprisingly few problems.
This helpful service should mean much to many families and to the community as well. To maintain and expand our year 'round services, we need new sources of income and invite your thoughtful consideration, when making or revising your will.

Silver dollars and record gift certificates will be awarded to the "funniest," "prettiest," and "most original" in each of the following age groups: Two through five; five through eight; nine through 12 and 13 and over. Record album grand prizes will go to the best overall costumed boy and girl.

Following the parade will be apple contests, pie eating contest, and a penny scramble for children under six.

Pumpkin Entries Invited

A new feature this year will be a "pumpkin' face contest" for kids seven and under and eight through 12. Youngsters invited to bring carved pumpkins to the armory and enter them as they arrive. Five prizes will be awarded for the most original.

Concessions will include a popcorn stand by the St. Aloysius PTA; coffee, donuts and cider booth by the Blue Star Mothers and Camp Fire Girls; hot dogs, St. John's Lutheran Church; and balloon and paper hat sales by Glenwood Center's advisory council and American Legion Post 98 Auxiliary. Highland Garden Club and Kiwanikwe will sell tickets for the concessions. Boy Scout Troop 248 will handle first aid. Coat check room will be manned by Glenwood Teen Club.

Helping to provide overall supervision will be other groups, especially PTA's from West High, West Mound, West Broad, Burroughs, Binns, Highland, and Valleyview Schools.

Telephone Calls To Pay Off

Another attraction of the party, Moore said, will be the telephone contest at the conclusion. Each child will be invited to register before leaving. Forty-five minutes later (at 10:15 p.m.) calls will be made and if the youngsters are home they will be awarded silver dollars or records. Two age groups, seven through 10 and 11-13 will be called.

Noble Allen, Jr., president of community council, said parking for well over a hundred cars has been arranged at the armory and the nearby Franklin Township Firehouse. Two National Guard sergeants will supervise the parking. Maj. John Spain, staff assistant, said he is making every effort to welcome the expected crowd of several thousand. The armory is easily adaptable to handling any crowd and needs only a small staff of "guardians," he said.

Wise Money Policy Urged By Westlake

W. Ralston Westlake, Republican candidate for mayor, in a prepared statement said that, if elected Tuesday, he will use sound business principles in conducting the city's business.

Westlake said that he has spent a lifetime paying taxes and that "taxes under state and city Democrats have been going up, up, up."

One of the prime issues in the mayoralty campaign is money, he said. He asserted the present city administration "is spending more than $400,000 a year over its revenues while boasting about the soundness of its fiscal (money) policies."

The income tax reserve fund stood at $659,000 at the beginning of the year and will be down to $225,000 by the end of the year, he asserted.

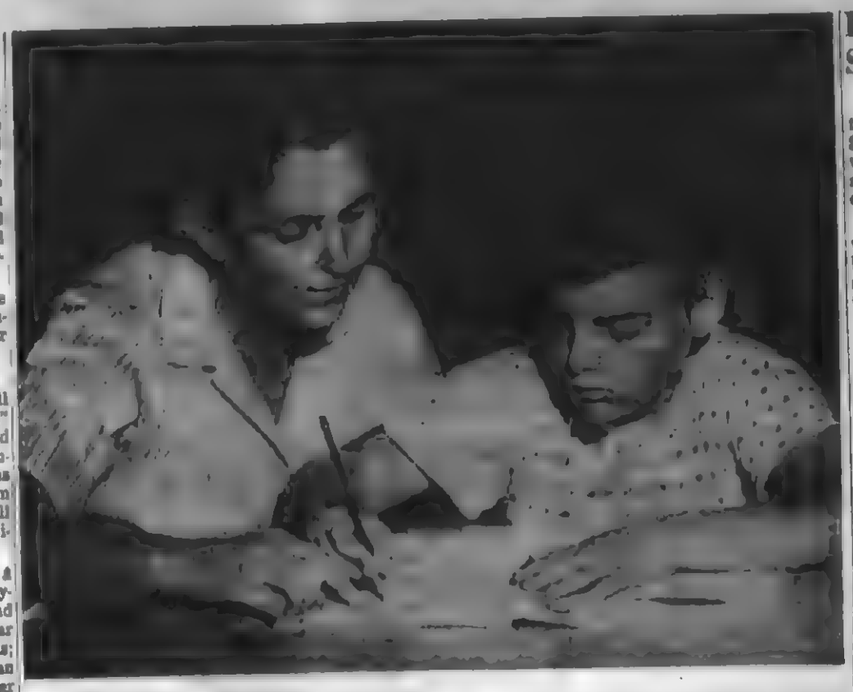
However, M. D. Portman, city finance director, said the balance at the end of the year should be between $500,000 and $600,000. It stood at $763,230 on Oct. 27.

Portman said his figures come from the office of the city auditor, who is of the same political faith as Westlake. He also pointed out that the city council authorizes all expenditures. Westlake is president of city council.

Couple Dies In Auto Fire

The rear of H. M. Giesey Bros. Lumber Co., off the end of Foos-st was the scene of an auto fire Monday night that claimed the lives of two.

Trainmen on the nearby Pennsylvania R.R. tracks, seeing the flames at 9:30 p.m., called the fire department.



Bodies of Melvin L. Kessler, 700 Deshler-av and Mrs. Maxine Lea, 44 of 1940 Genesee-av, were discovered when the fire was extinguished.

Dr. Robert A. Evans, coroner, said the two died of suffocation. Police believe the deaths accidental, but haven't determined how they started.

Two open, empty cans which once contained paint thinner were found on the floor in the rear seat.

Kessler was a painter in the body shop of Beasley-Grove Ford Co., two blocks from the [illegible].

Mrs. Lea was a buyer for Lucheff's Mutual Stores, where Kessler's wife Joann works. Mrs. Lea's husband, Howard, is a postman.

'Light A Life' Campaign Begins November 10

The Council for Retarded Children has set a minimum goal of $50,000 for the county-wide, door-to-door solicitation, to provide special education for school age, mentally retarded children excluded from public school.

"Woody" Hayes is honorary chairman of the campaign.

Denied the special training offered in the full-day classes, many of those enrolled would eventually require care in some already overcrowded institution.

Mental retardation, which affects one child of every 33 born, is caused from some injury or illness before, during, or after birth, or is the result of a congenital defect. There are more retardates than all other types of handicapped persons com[illegible]

An expected 8,000 volunteer men and women will participate in the one-day drive. Impressed with the urgency of a successful solicitation, area leaders have been busy for weeks preparing for the big day.

Chairman Hayes explained the CRC is not a member of the United Appeals because the Council is involved in the field of education. This is not the type of service the UA sustains, but both the UA and the Council agree, education of the mentally retarded is worthy of complete tax support, like public s[illegible]

The division chairman also said the Columbus Academy of Medicine not only approved the CRC program in its recent exhaustive study of individual fund drives, but complimented the Council for its splendid work under difficult circumstances.

New Director Begins Work At Sunshine

Robert C. McKenna

Appointment of a new director for Sunshine Recreation Center was announced this week by the Columbus Recreation Department.

Robert C. McKenna, 30, replaces Charles (Chic) Carl, who has been transferred to the new Thompson Recreation Center in the near North Side.

McKenna, a resident of 3025 Bellwood-ct, served a short time at Thompson and before that was director at East Columbus school recreation center. He has been with the department one year.

He entered the field in 1954 after leaving Xavier University, and serving a two-year hitch in the Army. From Apr. 1956 to Oct. '58 he was assistant recreation director and athletic director at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

The position at East Columbus is now held by Don McCann, who returns after brief employment in Florida.

Ed Dunlap, president of the Indiana University Alumni of the Columbus area announces that the I.U. clan will rally at Lincoln Lodge, 4060 W. Broad-st, on the evening of Friday, Nov. 6.

It's the evening before the Hoosiers do battle with the Buckeyes at OSU Stadium. I.U. grads, former students and friends are asked to gather from 6 to 7 p.m. to meet representatives of the university.

At 7 p.m. smorgasbord will be served to those with reservations. Register before Nov. 1 by calling one of the following officers: E. R. Dunlap, Joe Woltman, Kelly Mason, Mrs. Henry Ballein or Marion Reiff.

Metcalf Will Introduce Republican Candidates

The Hilltop will gain at least 15 necessary projects if the school bond issue passes on November 3. Vote YES on the school bond issue.

Picking Ohio State Is Costly To Football Contest Players

In this week's contest, only one of the top three winners tabbed the Buckeyes favorites over the Wisconsin's troublesome Badgers. And it almost cost him his coveted spot.

Ronnie Long, 311 N. Ogden-av; Julius H. Carter, 116 S. Clarendon-av; and Don Beatty, 25 S. Powell-av.

They will be awarded, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, two spaghetti dinners from Chip and Jack's Bar and a Manhattan dress shirt from Joe Worthen's Men's Wear.

There's a new contest each week in the Hartley Newspapers. Full details on this week's contest are contained on a full page advertisement inside this [illegible]

And now that it's getting late into the season, there's no reason why just about anyone can't guess most of the games correctly. By comparing scores of previous games, guessers should be able to pretty nearly judge the winners of upcoming tilts barring upsets.

Prizes which will be awarded to the top winners of the contest advertised inside this week's newspaper are $10 in cash, 10 barbecue sandwiches from Phillip's Coney Island or five dollars in merchandise from D. and J. Grocery.

Contestants are reminded that all entries must be sent on the official blank printed in the newspaper. Prizes are sent to the winners each week through the mail.

Realty Firm Awaits Court Consideration

Several Wilshire Addition residents mis-interpreted news accounts of City Council rezoning action in their neighborhood last week.

The city changed a 35-year-old rezoning map which originally had "commercial" designations on 24 corner lots. On Oct. 19, they were ordered changed to "residential."

However, lots held by two realtors were given city permission to remain in their "nonconforming" designation (commercial). Because the firms were established before the recent rezoning, they are protected to this extent under a state law.

However, the Larry Wade office must remain closed pending a jury hearing on the merits of a separate injunction suit filed by five residents. A temporary restraining order by Judge Henry Holden closed the office last July shortly after it opened.

Force behind the order lies in a restrictive clause in the deeds of Wilshire properties. The court has been asked to decide if such a realty firm "is detrimental or of an obnoxious nature" in the area.

A City Planning Commission official said that in some cases such restrictive clauses "carry more weight" than ordinances. The commission supported the recent rezoning.

Clubs To Help With UNICEF

Members of the Teen Club, Guys and Dolls and the Pre-Teen Club of Glenwood Recreation Center will be collecting donations for UNICEF in many sections of the Hilltop, Friday, Oct. 30, from 6 to 7 p.m. "They will be representing the youth of our community in this national drive," said Director Chuck Moore.

Pennies, nickels or dimes will be greatly appreciated," he said. The money will be used for sending care packages to children throughout the world.

Council Passes Local Legislation

Four routine matters involving West Columbus were passed by City Council, Monday night.

Appropriations of more real estate north of Sunshine Park for a new Senior Citizens center and of more easements for Early Ditch of Big Run sanitary sewer were made.

An assessment upon lots and lands benefitted by addition of sanitary sewers in Joan Heights was authorized. An area north of Briggs-rd, between Brownyn-av and St. Cecilia-dr was rezoned from "single residential" to "C-4 commercial" for a shopping area.

Fire At Convent Set By Students

Fire at Rosemont School in the Good Shepherd Convent, 31 S. Sandusky-st, on Oct. 6 and 7 was set by two girls at the school, Fire Prevention Bureau officials announced Monday.

Towels and other materials were wrapped around an iron by the girls and left burning in a sewing room, Assistant Fire Chief Joseph Cassell said.

Firefighters put out the fire on the table where the iron had been left on Oct. 6, but were unaware that wires were burning within the walls the chief said.

They returned the morning of Oct. 7 to fight a fire that spread throughout the sewing room and to the roof above.

The 16-year-old girl who planned the fire admitted setting fires in Columbus and Massachusetts before being sent to Rosemont School, firemen said. Juvenile Court officers said she has been sent to Girls' Industrial School in Delaware.

The second girl, 15, was in the Juvenile Detention Home Monday, waiting to be sent to a correctional institution.

'Prospective' Guard Enlistee Had Other Motive In Mind

A man who seemed interested in joining the National Guard, was actually "casing" the armory for a burglary. So think officials at Haubrich Armory, 4094 Sullivant-av, who have seen newspaper pictures of a man who has admitted burglarizing the armory Oct. 5.

Edward G. Kontos, an ex-Boston National Guardsman, was captured by detectives last week, following the burglary of an armory in Scranton, Pa. He also admitted thefts from a Wheeling, W. Va. armory.

Taken from the local center were five pairs of binoculars, $80 to $120 from vending machines, clothing, tools, two portable radios, two flashlights and cigaret lighters.

Local guardsmen recalled that the man was exceptionally interested in the local installation. They theorized he either hid out in the building or found some other means of entry. Closer security measures are now in force, said a staff assistant.

Deadline Near For Postal Job Applications

This year approximately 1300 men will be needed to handle the Christmas mail in Columbus, according to Ralph E. Gabele, manager of the Columbus Ohio State Employment Service. Recruits so far have been very slow in filing applications with the deadline of Friday, Nov. 6, close at hand.

Starting work about Monday, Dec. 14, the extra holiday help, consisting of carriers and clerks, will sort incoming and outgoing mail, drive trucks and deliver parcel post.

The post office will use part-time Christmas employes at the main office and branches, throughout the city and county. Carriers' jobs will last through Christmas Eve.

Part-time Christmas employes are urged to apply at the Ohio State Employment Service, 435 Cleveland-av, between 8 and 4:30, and until noon on Saturday.

Janitrol Honors Select Dealers

More than 1,000 select dealers and sales representatives of the Janitrol Heating and Air Conditioning Division of Surface Combustion Corp. gathered in Columbus Oct. 25, 26 and 27 for the company's second annual goodwill get-together.

The dealers, each of whom qualified for attendance through maintaining high technical and merchandising standards, were given a preview of 1960 sales and marketing programs by Janitrol executives.

Highlight of the three-day meeting was the introduction of a newly-engineered series of summer air conditioners and a dramatically-styled unit heater line featuring the exclusive Janitrol "Multi-Thermex" heat exchanger.

R. A. Bell, president of the Janitrol Division and executive vice-president of Surface Corp., the parent company, was host, along with his executive staff and sales representatives.

Troop 20 of West Park Methodist Church, and Scoutmaster Loren West, an Eagle Scout who resides at 386 Yale-av, have closely followed the theme of the month "Scouting the Air." It has led to some tough competition and trip by bus to Dayton.

Of the 20 boys in the troop, 19 made model airplanes. A winner was chosen in each of four patrols. They were: Flying Eagle Patrol—Bob Rasor, 1000 S. Eureka-av; Apaches—George Bowker, 95 N. Guilford-av; Cheyennes—Gary Barth, 258 Brehl-av; Beaver—Ned Martin, 215 Dana-av.

HOERMLE KNOWS VALUE OF DOLLAR

No one knows the value of a dollar more than a businessman who started from scratch and, through the years, conducted a successful business.

Such a man is William P. Hoermle, Sr., a Democrat who wants Columbus voters to return him to city council, when they go to the polls Tuesday.

That is one reason Hoermle, appointed to council early this year to fill a vacancy, should be kept as one of the Columbus city fathers. Hoermle started his own business in 1925 on Parsons-av. He knows how to meet a payroll. He knows how to purchase wisely so he can give good values and retain the friendship of many customers. And he knows how to give service.

Columbus now is in the midst of gigantic expenditures for expressways, water and sewer facilities and other facilities the rapidly-expanding community needs. Many millions of dollars will be spent over the years.

That money comes from one primary source — the taxpayers. It must be spent wisely so Columbus residents will get the maximum value for every dollar. Bill Hoermle knows this and, if returned to council, will watch expenditures closely.

In his own business, he conserved finances as his business grew. That is how a city government should operate, he says.

Many persons who visit his store come in as citizens with problems for a councilman. The store is open from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. And Bill Hoermle says citizens can see him there any time.

He knows the problems of the average man and woman, because he has been dealing with them as a businessman for many years.

Bill Hoermle is vitally interested in two major city problems — getting the maximum benefit out of the dollar and saving lives on city streets.

He would like more drivers to become safety conscious and would like to see city employes set a good example in a safety program.

City employes should set an example in good safety practices when they are driving city cars and trucks, he feels. Maybe that would become contageous and encourage others to give the other driver a break and be careful and considerate of the other driver.

Bill Hoermle has some good ideas of what constitutes good city government. They are sound and Bill Hoermle has the ability and determination to put them to use.

Bill Hoermle should remain on city council.

NEEDED PROJECTS—This map locates major school construction projects that would be carried out in this part of the city during the next five years if the school bond issue passes on Nov. 3. A total of 171 projects—including 32 new schools, 20 additions, and 119 minor improvement projects—must be completed throughout the city by 1964 if the Columbus Public Schools are to keep abreast of steadily growing enrollments, school officials say. KEY: Circle indicates new elementary school, solid square, addition to elementary and hollow square, addition to junior high school.

32 Buildings, 20 Additions Needed For Pupils By 1964

This community will benefit substantially through passage of the two school issues on Nov. 3, Superintendent Harold H. Eibling announced this week.

One issue is a 7.6-mill renewal levy; the other is a $29,850,000 bond issue. Dr. Eibling emphasized that both issues must pass if Columbus Public Schools are to continue to maintain sound educational standards and to provide full-day schooling for all children.

The superintendent explained that the renewal levy will not increase taxes. "The Board of Education is only asking the people to renew the present 7.6 mill operating levy for a five-year period," he said.

The 7.6-mill levy is not a new tax. Neither is it an additional tax. It has been in effect for five years.

At the present time, the levy provides about one-third of the income needed to operate the schools. Failure of the levy would seriously affect the program of education in every classroom in this community and throughout the city, Dr. Eibling declared.

West Area Projects

The superintendent said that passage of the bond issue would make it possible for the Board of Education to carry out at least 20 necessary projects in the community during the next five years. He listed the projects as follows:

New elementary schools, to be located near Sullivant at Demorest-rd and near Sullivant-av at Georgesville-rd.

Site expansion of Highland, Avondale, Chicago Avenue.

Purchase of sites for possible future schools in the area north of Sullivant-av and east of Mix Addition, and on Sullivant-av, near Demorest-rd.

171 Projects Needed

A total of 171 projects—including 32 new schools, 20 additions, and 119 minor improvement projects—must be completed throughout the city by 1964 if Columbus Public Schools are to keep abreast of steadily growing enrollments, school officials say. KEY: Circle indicates new elementary school, solid square, addition to elementary school, hollow square, addition to junior high school.

Spectator—

It might be pointed out that reports filed in previous years tell this story: In 1962 the Republicans spent $25,492 while the Sensenbrenner organization spent $9,848. In 1957 Republicans spent $30,296 in behalf of Joseph Jones while $13,527 was spent for Sensenbrenner.

It is an interesting fact that Mayor Sensenbrenner, unlike practically every other public office holder, has had no "flower funds." City employes have been told they may contribute to the mayor's campaign fund by delivering their contribution in person but there has been none of the common forced check-off system so often employed.

Again we say, we believe the city will profit by another four years of government under the Sensenbrenner banner.

West Bench Sitter's Parents Vow To Boost Booster Club

"In response to the article which appeared in last week's issue of the Record, and also to the letter which was sent out on Oct. 1 inviting parents to get together and try to reorganize a "Booster Club for the West High School football team:"

"As parents of a boy who is a member of the West High team, and who for two years has been sitting on a bench on the sideline waiting for the supreme moment when he could go out and participate in the actual game, while one of his fellow players from a lower grade who obviously is one of the chosen few, I'm afraid we lack the enthusiasm to help promote or reorganize this Booster Club.

"What some of us parents want to know is, what kind of thinking our West High coach is doing. Yes, indeed, he is bolstering the morale of these boys—that is, those who are his rosebuds. But what is he doing for those who sit on the bench each week and just look on?

We don't have to call attention to the fact that if a boy comes from an influential family he plays football at each game, and gets a big pat on the back from the coaches regardless of his playing ability. This is an established fact.

Scholastic records or behavior in general on the part of the boy doesn't help to qualify either. Some of the top students are among those who help hold the bench down on Friday nights."

A floorwalker, tired of his job, gave it up and joined the police force. Several months later a friend asked him how he liked being a policeman. "Well," he replied, "the pay and the hours are good, but what I like most is that the customer is always wrong."

way was opened recently and the rest is due to be finished by the end of the year. After that happens, traffic will be able to start at Greenlawn-av, on a limited access highway and travel to the Third-st Viaduct, which also will be completed, without hitting a single traffic light.

The Southwest Freeway, from Harrisburg to Greenlawn, now is under construction and is due to be finished by the middle of next year.

Motorists will be able to get on or off the Sandusky Expressway at Greenlawn-av, Mound-st, Rich-st, Town-st or Broad-st.

After the North Freeway and Fort Hayes Interchange are finished, years in the future, traffic from the Harrisburg area will be able to go over the Southwest Freeway, Sandusky Freeway, Goodale Freeway and North Freeway, which will connect with Ohio 1 (Interstate 71), due to be finished from near Columbus to Medina late this year. Plans are nearly completed for the Fort Hayes Interchange and part of the North Freeway is under construction.

Wander and Mason, Inc., of Worthington, worked on the section from Stimmel to Sullivant. The short section from Stimmel to Greenlawn is not finished but will be by the time the adjoining Southwest Freeway is done. Construction work amounted to about $3,400,000 but engineering, land costs, and other expenses raised the total cost of the section to $6,800,000.

Routed 330 Families

Visintine and Co. of Columbus constructed the Sullivant-Spring-Sandusky Interchange section, under a $2,000,000 construction contract. Total cost of the section is about $4,800,000. The new ribbon of concrete meant the relocation of 330 West Side families and the displacement of about 30 businesses. Many were given FHA Section 221 loans to finance new homes.

The Mound-st bridge section cost $1,100,000, and the work was performed by Ruckman and Hansen, Inc., of Fort Wayne, Ind. First traffic (eastbound is using the new section) went over the span Monday afternoon. Fred R. Asay, druggist, of 2176 Whitehead-rd, was the first to drive it.

Persons who are not contacted may place orders for delivery by calling Bill Myers, CA. 8-3511 or BR. 8-7142. Efforts will be made to sell every bulb by a Nov. 18 deadline.

Last year's proceeds amounted to $1600, Garber said, "and every cent is turned back into community work.55

The club also sponsors a newspaper sale every spring.

BIBLE COMMENT

Jesus Made No Attempt For Power

There is a fascination in setting together parallel passages in the Old and New Testaments.

One of the most striking is between the 23rd Psalm, the Shepherd Psalm, and the declaration of Jesus in John 10:10, "I am the good shepherd."

As devout Jews, familiar with the Scriptures, both Jesus and those who listened to Him must have associated the words with the psalm.

As a simple declaration it might have seemed the word of an imposter, making an extravagant claim for himself. But the words of Jesus, making plain the nature and mission of the good shepherd, make any suggestion absurd.

The Good Shepherd fulfills in every measure what Jesus was seeking to instill in the minds of His disciples—that greatness is in service, not in self-seeking.

Indeed, no quest for self, of place or power ever marked His earthly life or ministry.

He was, truly, the Good Shepherd, giving His life for His flock.

Funds from that project are directed to other community benefits such as scholarships, Little League football, school supplies, the July 4 celebration and the Easter egg hunt.

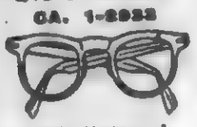
He will address a West High School chapel service Thursday, 9:15 a.m., Hilltop Kiwanis Club at noon, and Worthington Methodist Ladies' luncheon at 1:45 p.m.

Engagements on Friday are for a chapel service at Otterbein College at 9:40 a.m., and Broad Street Methodist Church dinner at 6 p.m.

Immediately after the opening, the Mound-st bridge portion was changed to one-way west.

Bids for the first two sections were opened late in 1957 while bids were opened for the bridge in July, 1958.



The federal government paid 90 percent of the cost of the overall project, the state five percent and the city five percent.

YOUR HELP NEEDED

. . . where the future begins

☛ VOTE YES on the 7.6-mill renewal levy

☛ This is not a new tax.
It has been in effect for five years.

☛ This is not an additional tax.
The Board of Education is only asking that you renew the existing 7.6-mill levy for another five years.

☛ This levy provides ⅓ of the revenue needed to operate our schools.
Without this income, educational standards in every classroom in Columbus would be imperiled.

☛ Remember! Passage of this levy will not increase taxes.

☛ VOTE YES on the school bond issue

☛ Enrollment is going up.
At least 20,000 more boys and girls will be in our schools by 1964. This estimate is based on children already born and living in our city.

☛ Our schools are filled to capacity now.
In fact 14 classes are meeting in emergency quarters.

☛ We must continue our building program.
We must build 32 new schools, erect additions to 20 schools, and complete 119 minor improvement projects during the next five years.

☛ This building program can be financed economically.
A $29,850,000 bond issue, which would provide all of these new and improved school facilities, would result in an increase of approximately three-tenths of a mill in the tax rate each year during the next five years.

☛ At most, the entire building program would cost the typical homeowner 16c a week.
This figure is for a home assessed at $5,000. Because Columbus undoubtedly will continue to grow in the future, there is a good chance that the actual cost will be less.

Included in this building program for the Eastmoor and Berwick areas are five new elementary schools, a new junior - Senior high school, a new junior high school, additions to two elementary schools, and six minor improvement projects.

Columbus can afford to support both of these issues!

During the 1957-58 school year, the latest year for which figures are available, the cost of educating each child in Columbus was $265. This compares to $359 in Youngstown, $351 in Dayton, $338 in Cleveland, $333 in Cincinnati, $312 in Canton, $306 in Akron, and $298 in Toledo.

Vote YES on BOTH school issues Nov. 3!

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

A pair of local hunters, Robert Strohm, 1580 Haft-dr, Reynoldsburg, and Al Staffan, Darbycrest West Jefferson, recently returned from a week of grouse, woodcock and deer hunting in Michigan. While quite a bit of game was encountered, the hunting was not up to expectations. Completing the group were Merrill Gilfillan, Mt. Gilead, and Don Tennant, Dayton.

Strohm was the deer hunter in the crowd and was using bow and arrow. He saw several deer but did not get close enough to any of them for a good shot. The deer population is definitely down this year in the lower peninsula of Michigan according to residents in the area. The hunters found this to be true. They saw plenty of deer sign, and they probably sighted more deer than they would have seen in a week's hunting in Ohio. But the hunting just didn't live up to Michigan's standards. The hard winter up there last year evidently took its toll.

The area hunted was largely in the Pigeon River State Forest about 450 miles from here. First they went to Fletcher Pond, a lake well known to Ohioans for its pike and bass fishing. Next they tried the vicinity around Vanderbilt, and ended the hunt near East Jordon. The hunters camped out for the week, and were using an Apache camping trailer which made it easy for them to break camp and move on searching for better hunting territory.

Hunting Below Par

The grouse and woodcock picture is better than the deer, but hunting is not as good this year as in former years. Staffan, Gilfillan and Tennant were the shotgun enthusiasts, and enjoyed good woodcock shooting during the early part of the trip. Then, the woodcock migrated on south. Grouse hunting was spotty, and not much better than you could find in prime areas in Ohio. The gunners shot a snowshoe hare to vary the grouse and woodcock diet.

Best hunting was in stands of alder along streams. The mixed hardwoods on level ground provided some sport, but the cedar swamps that are often very good held no birds. After a summer of drought, the rains finally came and the swamps held too much water for hunting.

All in all the camper-hunters had a good trip. The middle of October is a wonderful time to be in Michigan where hardwoods are interspersed with evergreens. The fact that the group didn't do any fishing is an indication that the hunting kept them pretty busy.

Legionnaires Will Bolster Police Efforts This Weekend

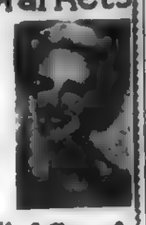
Ralph R. Hedrick, chairman serving under District Commander Walton R. Barnhart, said 100 men are needed to serve on the nights of Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30 and 31.

After a briefing at police headquarters in Columbus and the various cooperating towns the men will be assigned to familiar neighborhoods. They will keep a sharp lookout for gangs or suspicious activity from 8 p. m. until relieved by a police sergeant.

A coffee session and discussion will follow at the patrol's headquarters, 274 S. Monroe-av. Police report that the Legion's service project has helped recent Halloween nights to be the most orderly in years.



Tryouts Carded By Players Club

Players Club has announced that tryouts will be held for its first threatre-in-the-round production, "Bell, Book and Candle," on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 27, and 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the arena at the theatre.

The John Van Druten witchcraft-comedy will be presented Dec. 9, 10, 11 and 12 in the basement arena of the newly renovated and expanded Player's Club building at 547 Franklin-av.

The director is Richard Warye, Worthington, teacher of speech and theatre at West High School. He is studying for his PhD degree at Ohio State University and is the club's chairman of set design.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR

SQUASH AND PUMPKIN

Squash and pumpkin are about as American as autumn. There was always some of both when early settlers of this country tallied up the season's harvest. Today, with a nip already in the air and bright splashes of color dotting our country side, we are reminded that it's squash and pumpkin time in Ohio. If you attended the Pumpkin Show at Circleville last week, you agree that we grow them big in Ohio.

From the Same Family—Because these two vegetables come from the same family it is sometimes hard to tell what's pumpkin and what's squash. If you are ever in doubt, the stems can help steer you straight. Pumpkin stems are hard, furrowed and ribbed; squash stems are soft and flat.

Both squash and pumpkin are famous for vitamin A. Nutritionists say that one-half cup of yellow winter squash gives more than the day's quota of "A," while one-half cup of pumpkin provides a little less.

Butternut—with creamy brown skin. In shape it resembles a gourd with a round end and slender neck. It may range from six to 12 inches long. Delicious as a vegetable or in a pie.

Acorn—is dark green and deeply ribbed with pointed acorn tip, yellow flesh. Has a large cavity, making it suited for stuffing.

Hubbard and Delicious—large squash grown mostly for commercial use. However, you'll find them a little later in the season, whole or cut into family-sized portions.

How to Pick a Pumpkin—A pumpkin heavy for its size will have more meat, less waste, and more likely a sweeter taste for pies or as a vegetable.

If you want a pumpkin for making a Jack O' Lantern for Halloween, choose one that is light in weight. It will cost less and be easier to carve. There's also more room for the candle to glow in these thin fleshed pumpkins.

FALL PORK SPECIALS

Lots of pork continues to come to market—this fall's supply is 12 percent above last year's. "Specials" will be the better buys on fresh cuts. Processed pork also continues at low cost. Hams, bacon, smoked Boston butt and picnic shoulders are relative good values.

Bright Red Cranberries are in evidence and delicious served with pork. Those you see are a part of a record crop of more than one million barrels (100 pounds each.) This year's crop is 29 percent above average. Watch for low prices in late November.

Apples—for apple bobbing, eating, cooking, are still tops in quality. Remember to take home an extra bag of red apples for "witch" food this weekend.

Mayor Outlines Plan For Future

Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner says Columbus must continue to grow in all sections — north, east, south and west — to realize its dynamic future.

"Columbus has more potential than any other city in the United States," he says. One reason is the city's geographical location, within 500 miles of 75 per cent of the nation's population.

The mayor and his aides have drafted a capital improvements program which he calls a "blueprint for the future" that is flexible enough to be changed if needed.

Safety department — More policemen and firemen as soon as possible. New fire stations at Northmoor and High, Broad and McNaughton, Fourth and Fulton, Refugee and Lockbourne (with police sub-station), Third and Olentangy River-rd, Maryland Park, on the North Side to replace one at Euclid and Pearl, Fourth and Thurman, Main and 22nd replacement, Chapel and Third replacement and W. Broad and Mill replacement.

Airport — Additional expansion for jet plane accommodations.

Expressways — Completion of North Freeway, Fort Hayes traffic interchange, south and east legs of the innerbelt, East Freeway and West Freeway. (Construction of North Freeway has begun, other projects are in pre-construction phases.) Morse-rd grade crossing elimination, for which plans are nearly finished. A total of $8,900,000 for residential streets and secondary thoroughfares. Widening of Stelzer-rd. Extension of Joyce-av. Widening of Livingston-av to Hamilton-rd, with bus service to that intersection. West North Broadway grade crossing elimination and improvement. Extension of Fairwood-av to Frebis. Extension of Indianola from Morse-rd to Chase.

Sewers — New southeast sewage treatment plant. Williams-rd-Scioto River to east sewer lines; Big Walnut main trunk sewer; Alum Creek Main Trunk Section A; enlargement of South Scioto Pumping Station; Marion No. 3 sub trunk extended north from Watkins-rd to Refugee-rd; Olentangy Main Trunk Sewer Part 2.

Recreation — New park areas throughout the city. New recreation centers southeast and at Westgate and Krumm parks. A golf course east or south and at least three new swimming pools.

Water — New water mains on Stelzer-rd, Karl-rd with booster station, Harrison and McKinley, Noe-Bixby-rd, Olentangy River-rd and the E. Broad-st line.

Health—New wing for health building.

In seeking re-election, the mayor argues that it is logical to believe that his program for the future will be accomplished—based on the results of his nearly six years in office.

"As long as I am mayor, I'll give the job the best I have," the mayor says.

Clean Air Week Being Observed Nationwide

Cleaner Air Week is being observed throughout the nation, Oct. 26 to 31.

Co-operating with other agencies promoting the observance of this event is the Division of Smoke Regulation and Inspection of the Department of Public Safety.

Smoke and odors from the exhausts of autos, trucks and buses are among the major some of these causes, the division offers these following tips:

1—If the exhaust from your vehicle is black and foul-smelling, or blue or white—watch out. You are wasting money and polluting the air.

2—Black exhaust may mean a dirty filter or a faulty carbure-lumbus. In order to help check sources of air pollution in Cotter. An excessively rich fuel mixture causes great wear on piston rings and grooves because the surplus gasoline washes away the film of oil protecting these surfaces.

Schwarzwalder Seeks Reelection

Judge Alan E. Scharzwalder, who has served as a Columbus municipal judge for more than three years, is a candidate for re-election on the non-partisan judicial ballot next Tuesday.

Former Gov. Frank J. Lausche appointed him to the municipal bench in 1956 and Schwarzwalder was elected to the unexpired term in 1957.

A native of Columbus, the judge received his law degree from Ohio State University in 1948. He has served as an assistant attorney general and as assistant director of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control.

Judge Schwarzwalder was awarded the Navy Cross and Air Medal during his four and one-half years as a Navy flier during World War II.

The judge is on the advisory council for the Senior Citizens Recreation Center, is a member of the Judges Committee on Alcoholism and vice president of the Crippled Children's Entertainment Assn., Inc.

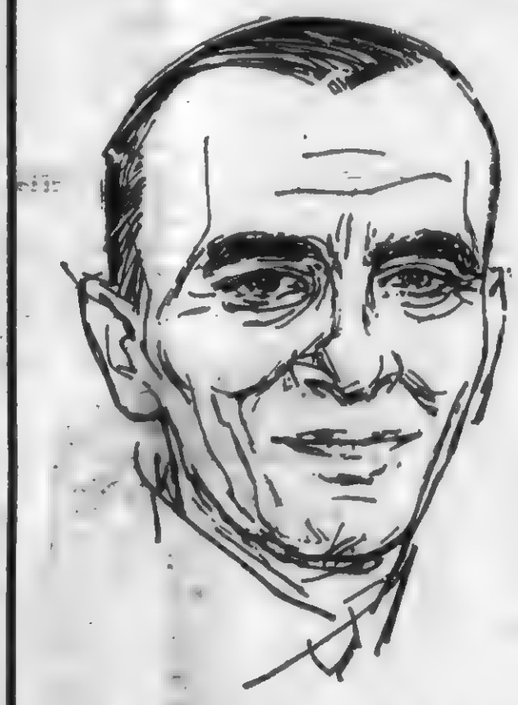
Gordon Pledges Work For Youth

The problems and challenges facing the youth of Columbus need additional consideration, John T. Gordon, Democratic candidate for city council, said in a recent speech.



Zoning and other legislation should reflect the needs of junior citizens of Columbus as well as those of the adult population, he added.

Gordon is for a constant study of improved administrative methods to assure efficiency and quality in government. He has had 10 years' experience in business, management and sales.

For the last five years he has had administrative experience in planning, organizing, directing, coordinating and controlling.

All municipal problems must be evaluated in terms of the human effect on the individual as well as the material effect on the community, Gordon believes.

THE PEOPLE'S MAYOR

This is the final of five citizen messages from the Committee for Sensenbrenner.

In the last four weeks the record, the man, the issues and his pledge have been discussed in this space. In the final analysis the issue to be decided next Tuesday is whether a city administration free from vested influence and dedicated to the progress, growth and well being of Columbus should continue.

We believe the Sensenbrenner administration record and the man's proven ability as an administrator, salesman and ambassador for our All-American City deserves your support.

Hunters Use Bow, Guns In Michigan

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

A pair of local hunters, Robert Strohm, 1530 Haft-dr, Reynoldsburg, and Al Staffan, Darbycrest West Jefferson, recently returned from a week of grouse, woodcock and deer hunting in Michigan. While quite a bit of game was encountered, the hunting was not up to expectations. Completing the group were Merrill Gilfillan, Mt. Gilead, and Don Tennant, Dayton.

Strohm was the deer hunter in the crowd and was using bow and arrow. He saw several deer but did not get close enough to any of them for a good shot. The deer population is definitely down this year in the lower peninsula of Michigan according to residents in the area. The hunters found this to be true. They saw plenty of deer sign, and they probably sighted more deer than they would have seen in a week's hunting in Ohio. But the hunting just didn't live up to Michigan's standards. The hard winter up there last year evidently took its toll.

The area hunted was largely in the Pigeon River State Forest about 450 miles from here. First they went to Fletcher Pond, a lake well known to Ohioans for its pike and bass fishing. Next they tried the vicinity around Vanderbilt, and ended the hunt near East Jordon. The hunters camped out for the week, and were using an Apache camping trailer which made it easy for them to break camp and move on searching for better hunting territory.

Hunting Below Par

The grouse and woodcock picture is better than the deer, but hunting is not as good this year as in former years. Staffan, Gilfillan and Tennant were the shotgun enthusiasts, and enjoyed good woodcock shooting during the early part of the trip. Then, the woodcock migrated on south. Grouse hunting was spotty, and not much better than you could find in prime areas in Ohio. The gunners shot a snowshoe hare to vary the grouse and woodcock diet.

Best hunting was in stands of alder along streams. The mixed hardwoods on level ground provided some sport, but the cedar swamps that are often very good held no birds. After a summer of drought, the rains finally came and the swamps held too much water for hunting.

All in all the camper-hunters had a good trip. The middle of October is a wonderful time to be in Michigan where hardwoods are interspersed with evergreens. The fact that the group didn't do any fishing is an indication that the hunting kept them pretty busy.

Legionnaires Will Bolster Police Efforts This Weekend

Ralph R. Hedrick, chairman serving under District Commander Walton R. Barnhart, said 100 men are needed to serve on the nights of Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30 and 31.

After a briefing at police headquarters in Columbus and the various cooperating towns the men will be assigned to familiar neighborhoods. They will keep a sharp lookout for gangs or suspicious activity from 8 p. m. until relieved by a police sergeant.

A coffee session and discussion will follow at the patrol's headquarters, 274 S. Monroe-av. Police report that the Legion's service project has helped recent Halloween nights to be the most orderly in years.

Tryouts Carded By Players Club

Players Club has announced that tryouts will be held for its first threatre-in-the-round production, "Bell, Book and Candle," on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 27, and 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the arena at the theatre.

The John Van Druten witchcraft-comedy will be presented Dec. 9, 10, 11 and 12 in the basement arena of the newly renovated and expanded Player's Club building at 547 Franklin-av.

The director is Richard Warye, Worthington, teacher of speech and theatre at West High School. He is studying for his PhD degree at Ohio State University and is the club's chairman of set design.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR

SQUASH AND PUMPKIN

Squash and pumpkin are about as American as autumn. There was always some of both when early settlers of this country tallied up the season's harvest. Today, with a nip already in the air and bright splashes of color dotting our country side, we are reminded that it's squash and pumpkin time in Ohio. If you attended the Pumpkin Show at Circleville last week, you agree that we grow them big in Ohio.

From the Same Family—Because these two vegetables come from the same family it is sometimes hard to tell what's pumpkin and what's squash. If you are ever in doubt, the stems can help steer you straight. Pumpkin stems are hard, furrowed and ribbed; squash stems are soft and flat.

Both squash and pumpkin are famous for vitamin A. Nutritionists say that one-half cup of yellow winter squash gives more than the day's quota of "A," while one-half cup of pumpkin provides a little less.

Butternut—with creamy brown skin. In shape it resembles a gourd with a round end and slender neck. It may range from six to 12 inches long. Delicious as a vegetable or in a pie.

Acorn—is dark green and deeply ribbed with pointed acorn tip, yellow flesh. Has a large cavity, making it suited for stuffing.

Hubbard and Delicious—large squash grown mostly for commercial use. However, you'll find them a little later in the season, whole or cut into family-sized portions.

How to Pick a Pumpkin—A pumpkin heavy for its size will have more meat, less waste, and more likely a sweeter taste for pies or as a vegetable.

If you want a pumpkin for making a Jack O' Lantern for Halloween, choose one that is light in weight. It will cost less and be easier to carve. There's also more room for the candle to glow in these thin fleshed pumpkins.

FALL PORK SPECIALS

Lots of pork continues to come to market—this fall's supply is 12 percent above last year's. "Specials" will be the better buys on fresh cuts. Processed pork also continues at low cost. Hams, bacon, smoked Boston butt and picnic shoulders are relative good values.

Bright Red Cranberries are in evidence and delicious served with pork. Those you see are a part of a record crop of more than one million barrels (100 pounds each.) This year's crop is 29 percent above average. Watch for low prices in late November.

Apples—for apple bobbing, eating, cooking, are still tops in quality. Remember to take home an extra bag of red apples for "witch" food this week-end.

A/3c William Eckle

Sets Record At Ellsworth

A/3c William F. Eckle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Eckle of 308 S. Hague-av, set a record at Ellsworth AFB recently when he made a perfect score on the qualifications test.

It was the first time this had been done, according to testing officials. The test scores his qualifications for his field, and for promotions.

He was graduated from West High School in 1956, and has been in the Air Force 10 months.

Terriers Look West In Eye This Friday

By Bob Wilcox

West returns to City League warfare this Friday night at Magly Field against Aquinas, currently fourth in the loop with a 2-1 league mark and a 3-2 overall record. West is sixth.

West scored a 20-14 win over them last fall. The Aquinas contest is usually one of high interest to local residents since in recent years many boys on the Aquinas squads have been Westsiders and Hilltopper.

The Terriers use the wing and straight "T" and love the dive and quick hitters off tackle which comprise almost 50 percent of their attack. Then to vary the system they use the pitchout for end sweeps. They don't pass a lot, but when they do they use it as a very effective weapon. Bob Irwin, although not a sensational thrower, does a very adequate job as witnessed by their conquest of Central last week via his arm. He has no favorite receivers.

They use a six, and sometimes a five-man line, but are very quick and cat-like on defense. As a team, they are quite young and inexperienced . . . loaded with juniors. They are light, (heaviest man is only 200 lbs.), with fair speed. But they are another one of these hustling ball clubs that capitalize on breaks to their advantage.

SPORTS of SORTS

Compiled By Bob Wilcox

As in 1958 the West Cowboys earned themselves a Homecoming victory over Watterson last Friday night at Magly Field. Unlike 1958, however, this was not their first victory of the season, but their third to put them at the .500 mark to date this fall.

It was a fairly easy conquest, but one which should have found a score greater than the final 22-6.

West completely dominated play, but could never quite completely break the 'back' of a hustling Watterson crew.

West rolled to all 22 points in the first half. Although their offense didn't stop functioning in the second half, it just couldn't click long enough to produce further scoring.

West's defenses were good, but at their best, Watterson, although not able to score or penetrate deep into West territory except for the third period, did move the ball, especially in the second half. However on occasions West's defense did take on a brilliant hue for individual's play.

The ground of course was slick, but ballhandling and passing didn't seem to be affected at all.

West's first score came in the first quarter as Bill Paske managed to partially block a Watterson punt. The deflected ball went straight up and was finally taken by Jim Horn (who got the majority of punt and kickoffs from Watterson all evening because they were usually so short) on their 28. In five plays, with 3:20 on the clock, Jerry Hummel went over right tackle to score. The try for extra points was no good. The big gainer was Bob Saint's 15-yarder around left end.

With 7:20 showing in the second period, Bill Biggers went off right tackle for 18 yards to score. It climaxed a 49 yard-10 play drive. Saint and Hummel both had 15-yarders on end sweeps for the big plays; however Saint's was nullified as West was penalized 15 yards for clipping. The try for extra points brought back memories of the old single-wing buck lateral series — something definitely not in the Cowboys' repertoire. Horn, trying to plunge over left guard and finding no hole, turned and lateraled back to Saint, who went around left end for the points.

West's final tally of the evening came late in the first half on another unusual play. Biggers, back to pass, was about to be caught for a loss, so he flipped the ball, behind the line, to his unexpected "safety-valve," Hummel, who hesitated for a second in semi-surprise and then took off through the entire Watterson team, 18 yards, to score. He plowed through and took the final two defenders with him over the goal line. It wound up a 45-yard, 10-play drive with Saint's 16-yard end sweep the big play.

A pass for the extra points was no good, but the Eagles were offside. So Horn went around left end for the markers. And that finished West's scoring for the evening.

On Biggers' TD, he was caught twice (once low around the ankles) but got away from both to go over standing up. He carried only twice during the game, good for a total of 30 yards, as his ankle acted up. He was used sparingly after that.

Horn handled the chores almost exclusively the second half. He had a nice 3.1 average.

Horn looks like a good answer to the Biggers-Hummel injury dilemma. He certainly can plunge for that needed short yardage, and Hummel seems able to take care of the long gainers.

Offensively the movies bore out what every fan knew—that Hummel had another extra fine night and carried the offensive show mostly on his shoulders with two TDs, 93 yards in 17 carries for a fine 5.5 average. He did some nice punting even with his cast.

Halfback Saint probably had one of the best nights of his career. The "little scooter" was a pleasant surprise as he reeled off several long gains in running. Small, as football players go, he "bulled" his way along and it took several opposing defenders to tackle him on several occasions. He reeled off 70 yards in 11 tries for a very fine 6.4 average.

Movies showed that defensive halfback Jim Thornton had himself a very fine night. He pilfered his third enemy pass of the season, after having one slip through his hands in the first half.

Injurywise the Cowboys came out pretty well. Biggers' ankle is still a question. Paske sustained a knee injury that has stiffened up on him. Dave Morris, from the flu, and Terry Linson, from a leg injury, will be back in action. Gary Alwood sustained a hard blow on the head and a mild concussion just before the game was over, but had no ill effects.

Other Broncos with fine defensive play Friday were Paske, Alwood, Stew Randall and Bob Montgomery. That switch of Biggers to linebacker and Alwood to "double-duty" as both center and defensive end has certainly proven its value.

THE CENTRAL PIRATES took it on the chin last Friday eve for the sixth consecutive time this fall. They bowed to Aquinas 14-6. Though Tweedy scored the Pirates' only TD (as they took an early lead, only to lose it), Parks and Gray both did some nice running in defeat. Aquinas' lightness and speed were just too much for the Pirates' "bulk."

Aquinas, West's foe this week, scored through the efforts of their aerial game for the most part with quarterback Bob Irwin doing the throwing.

WEST RESERVE FOOTBALL squad, after an initial loss to Upper Arlington (44-0), bounced back last week to take Marion Franklin, 12-6. However, last Tuesday they came home from Eastmoor on the short end of a 12-6 score.

Fumbles played a big part as the Little Cowboys couldn't get their offense to roll at all. Defensively they played a fine game.

Their only score was on a recovered fumble in midair at the line of scrimmage and a subsequent 70 yard TD jaunt by guard Jim Morris. Linebacker Dave Duerler also starred on defense for the "juniors."

Last week was a poor week for the COWBOY CROSS-COUNTRY lads as they lost a triangular to East (East 16, West 60, North 63), and a dual meet to Marion, 39-21. Dave Smith got a fifth in the former while he collected a second, and captain Joe Massey a fifth against Marion.

West Harriers will see action at the district meet Friday, Oct. 30, and Tuesday, Nov. 3, against North. Both contests will be at Raymond Memorial Golf Course, Trabue-rd.

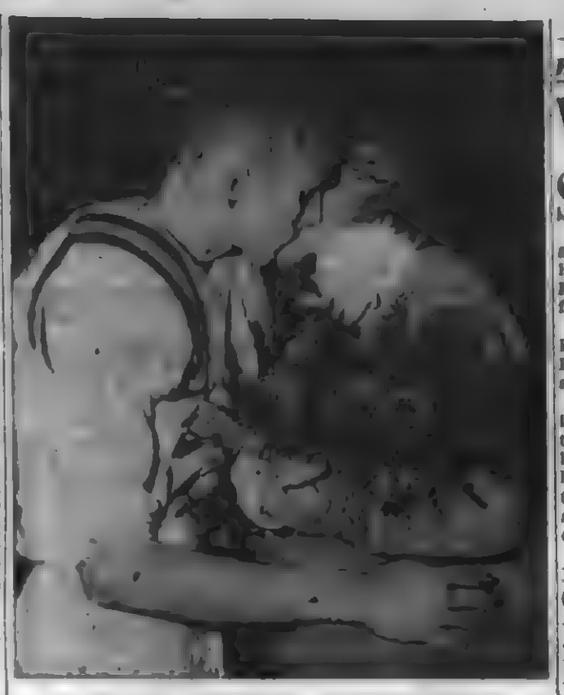
THE WEST MOUND RAMS wound up their regular season last Sunday with a 20-6 win over the Beatty Lions, to finish third in the loop. They go into the playoffs this Sunday at 2 p.m. at home field on McKinley av. Opponents are the Milo Rec squad, fourth in the regular season.

Hilltop Van Will Back Two Cage Teams This Year

Hilltop Van and Storage will sponsor two basketball teams this season which will compete in "A" and "AA" leagues.

The "A" team, which is under the guidance of Coach Perry Estep copped the city championship last year, will play in the Hilltonia "A" League on Thursdays and the Sunday Jewish Pre-Season League.

Members of the championship team are Jerry Trabue, Ron Bowman, Bill Courtney, Warren Pemberton, Dennis McDonald, John Shook, Bill Voss, Jack Funk and Bill Chappelear.



The "AA" team, which will compete in the Jewish Pre-Season and Sunshine Park "AA" Leagues lists former West High School and Kentucky College cager Dick Culbertson. Other college players are also on the squad's roster.

West's Boosters To Meet Team, Elect Officers

West High School's newly re-organized Booster Club will elect officers at its meeting planned Monday, Nov. 2, 8 p.m., in Room 158 at West.

Members of West High's team will also be present.

Anyone interested in joining the Booster Club, designed to assist the school's athletic program, is invited to attend the meeting, and meet the team.

QUEEN MISSES CEREMONY

REPEAT PERFORMANCE—Sherry Alben, chosen homecoming queen of West High School, was unable to attend the half-time ceremony planned in her honor Friday night because of illness. Bennie McIntire, 1957 homecoming queen, accepted the bouquet of red roses in Sherry's behalf and kisses from the team's co-captains, Jim Horn and Bill Kern. Kern is shown planting an enthusiastic kiss. Court included Polly Fisher, Judy Newkirk, Susie Routh and Karin Reives.

West Side League Records Three Shutouts, One Tie

Significant was the game in which the West Side Blazers held the undefeated Comets to a 12-12 tie. Top scorer for the Blazers was Bob Nash. Named outstanding were Charles and George Wickham, Dick Kattel, Art Gainer, Don Roberts and Ralph and Ed Williams.

Coach Bill Latimer and his West Side Bucks reluctantly handed a win to West Side Boys' Club as the latter "swam" ahead 18 to 0. Referees were Sam Bey and John Schrader.

In a tough game West Mound toppled the West Side Warhawks 13 to 0. Outstanding were players Frank Thompson and John Schrader.

West Side Giants blanked the Jokers 20 to 0 when John Potts set the pace with the first TD. Bill Weaver was singled out for spectacular play, both offensively and defensively.

More games are scheduled at 2 and 5 p.m. next Sunday. Sale of Booster tickets for the West Side League has brought in over $80, said secretary Brad Engert. The boys were given an added boost in print by columnist Lou Berliner last Sunday.

Browns Hold Lead Spot In Glenwood Center League

Spirited play enabled the top-ranked Browns to down the Rams in a well played game in the Glenwood Recreation Center Football League.

Thus coach Jim Snyder's crew in their first year of competition haven't fared too badly to date — and may even do better. Halfback Jeff Koehler was practically the entire scoring show for the Rams Sunday with three TDs on runs of 35 and 17 (both on the tail-end of quarterback option plays) and on a 55 yard punt return.

The Rams' first TD was countered by quarterback Dick Skinner on a 13-yard pass interception return. He was playing defensive half at the time.

The extra points, all runs, were scored by John Goodin, fullback Dick Groezinger and two by Koehler (this pushed into fourth place in loop scoring). On the punt return TD, Koehler was sprung by a sensational roll block thrown by end Bilden Sheridan, who got three men with one block.

WEST MOUND RAMS BOOSTER CLUB, under president Jack Porter, will meet at 7 p.m., Nov. 2, at St. Agnes School. All members are urged to attend.

In the OHIO VALLEY LOOP last Sunday the Sunshine Hawks dumped the West Side Jokers, 20-0, and the Oklahomans nipped the Valleyview Bears 8-0. Next Sunday finds the Hawks playing the Bears at Sunshine and the Oklahomans vs. the Jokers at Marion-Franklin.

Halfbacks Munnen with one touchdown and Potts with two scores and two PATs spaced the Hawks' attack. Munnen had to be removed from the field, injured, later, but recovered OK. Bo Syke, a guard, and Jim Icydakne, a back, paced the Jokers. The difference in the other game was an intercepted fumble in midair in the Bears' backfield by Oklahoma half Pat Beary, who went all the way.

For the Bears the only long gainer of the day was a 68-yard run by fullback Bill Quinn over center from a fake punt formation.

Otherwise both squads, in the mud, spent their time between the two 30-yard lines. Bears' defensive star was lineman Nick Ruffing. Late in the fourth period, the Oklahomans started a drive on their own 25 and moved to the Bears' 19. Here on three successive plays Ruffing smashed through to throw their runners for losses totaling 9 minus 22 yards in the three tries to stall the drive.

Second place Rams took an early 8-0 lead in the first quarter on a three-yard plunge by Virgil Starks. Jim Alexander went over for the extra point. The second half saw the Browns score three touchdowns on Richard Moore's 50-yard run, two-yard run and a pretty pass play from Moore to John Postle.

Jim Alexander scored the Rams' other touchdown on a seven-yard run. With seconds left in the game the Rams were pressing the Browns hard in their 10-yard line. Virgil Starks scooted left end and was met hard by Tom Jester and James Bennett at the end of the game.

Behind the hard running of Terry Whitlock the Colts smashed the Browns 40-8. Whitlock scored three times on runs of 60, 15 and two yards. Other scoring was as follows: Jim Bell, one; Melvin Thompson, one, and Jim Garrison, one.

Westgate Hawks Win Second Bearcat Title

At Westgate Park the Westgate Hawks won the Ohio Bearcat Football League championship for the second straight year.

In cold, 40-degree air the Hawks romped past Maryland Park, 23-0, for their seventh straight win of the season.

Fullback Jim Bradley swept left end for the first score. In the third quarter Steve Takos bulled over from the four-yard line and Bradley added the extra point. Paul Ratliff scored on a four-yard run to put the game on ice in the final quarter.

For the Hawks it was the 16th victory, a record unbroken by defeat in two years in the Ohio Bearcat League.

Westmoor Open House Crowd Voices Approval

CAPACITY AND THEN SOME—The immense auditorium at Westmoor Junior High was filled 20 minutes before the school's dedication program started last Thursday night. Hundreds more moved through the rooms or sat in the lobby, listening quietly as the entire program was piped through the building. The school band and choir provided music. Speakers were Dr. Harold H. Eibling, superintendent of schools and Mrs. Ralph H. Davidson, president of the board of education. School board officials and principals of Hilltop elementary schools were platform guests.

By Betty Deft

If wishful thinking could make it so, hundreds of Hilltoppers would be kids again . . . and students at Westmoor Junior High.

Last Thursday's open house would have resulted in a mighty full house for the school if all those guests' wishes had come true.

"The good old days" in education lost much of their charm as people strolled through the spacious building, noting its color and beauty of design; contrasting its gleaming equipment with facilities of their own schooldays.

Planned as a presentation of the school to the community; the affair was all that and much more.

"Something In Common"

Brought together by their shared interest in the children, parents, educators, school board officials and civic leaders met and mingled.

Many old friendships were renewed as families stopped to chat with a child's former elementary teacher or principal.

Just as many important introductions were made between people with an important "something in common." Children proudly introduced parents to their teachers, and their school friends.

Happy Hosts

Beaming happily during the evening were the proud hosts, A. L. McAllister, Westmoor principal; faculty members, and school board officials.

Perhaps proudest of all were Westmoor's students. All decked out in their very best and wearing manners to match, they showed off their school, thoroughly enjoying the impression it made on the grownups:

• "Wow, you sure could skate in these halls," from a little boy.

• And, one of Westmoor's girl students, "I went through the boy's gym and locker room, because I'll never, never have another chance.

• "Can you imagine, learning to cook and sew on these? Mine aren't half as nice as at home."

• And, over and over in the metal and woodshops, wistfully from grandfathers, fathers and friends, "I sure would like to have some of this in my basement!"

West's Students Hear Dr. Dooley Speak Monday

By Lois Bryant

Dr. Thomas A. Dooley, famous doctor, medical missionary and author visited West High Monday, Oct. 26, and spoke to students during assembly.

Dr. Dooley told of his experiences on his latest medical frontier, Laos.

He came as a favor to his close personal friend, Curt Koons, father of West student, Dave Koons. Koons and Dr. Dooley met at Boys State in 1956, and became close friends because they had "kindred philosophies."

Dr. Dooley, as a member of the U.S. Navy Medical Corp, volunteered to establish a medical unit in South Viet Nam. Through money obtained from his best seller, "Deliver Us From Evil," he, with several friends, established another medical mission in Laos.

He wrote another best seller, "The Edge Of Tomorrow." Proceeds from this book has helped to continued his unit in Laos.

Dr. Dooley is in the United States on a lecture tour to raise funds for his work in Laos, and to receive needed medical treatment for himself.

He was in Columbus Monday for a scheduled speaking engagement at Ohio State University's Mershon auditorium.

Sgt. Robert Wales Active In Field Training Drills

Army Sgt. Robert H. Wales, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Wales, 346 S. Wheatland-av, is participating in a field training exercise being conducted by the 3rd Armored Division in Grafenwohr, Germany.

The seven-week exercise, which is designed to test the division's combat readiness and effectiveness, is scheduled to be completed Oct. 17. Sergeant Wales, assigned to Battery A of the division's 3rd Artillery, entered the Army in 1942 and arrived overseas last May.

Wales is a graduate of West High School and attended Wilberforce University. Before entering the Army he was employed by William P. Haython Co., Patterson, N.J.

The central part of Columbus and the West Side will gain 23 necessary projects through passage of the school bond issue on November 3. Vote YES on the school bond issue.

Starling Council To Hold Dance, Skating Party

Dancing on Friday will be to the music of records, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. in the school gym.

Mothers will serve as chaperones, and refreshments will be sold. Tickets at 50 cents each may be purchased at the door.

Tickets for the council-sponsored skating party are available from any student council member and will be sold at half the price of tickets bought at the rink.

CENTRAL HIGH NEWS

Ex-Teacher, Kent Pfeiffer Confined To Grant Hospital

By Leslie Shelhart

All Centralites, students, alumni, and faculty, will remember the deep devotion with which retired teacher Kent Pfeiffer taught. Mr. Pfeiffer was a teacher of Math at Central until just two years ago.

To all of us who love Mr. Pfeiffer, it was a shock to learn of a recent virus contracted by him this summer. The virus, called Echo 9, has left Mr. Pfeiffer bedridden and in great pain. There is no known medicinal cure for this disease.

Mr. Pfeiffer has been taking treatments at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, somewhat like that of a post-polio patient. He is in his second month of confinement and has three to six months of treatment to go.

Recently he was transferred to Grant Hospital here in Columbus.

Your cards and letters could mean that difference in a dreary and hopeless day for an old friend. They may be sent to Kent Pfeiffer at Grant Hospital, Room 418, Columbus.

New Report Cards

Central High's students, along with other high schools in the city, received new report cards Monday. The new cards are larger and have a new grading key.

They are now using an F instead of an E for failing. The teachers also put numbers beside the grade for each subject. A number 1 means strong effort, a number 2 normal effort, and number 3, little effort.

Y-Teen Hop

Central High Y-Teen Club is really large this year.

Y-Teens is the most active club for girls at Central and throughout the city. Girls work on many projects during the school year. They sponsor sales, usher at plays and concerts, sponsor dances, and work on a plan by which the girls give a few hours of their time for service work in hospitals, nurseries, offices, etc.

Tonight the Y-Teen Club at Central is sponsoring its first project of the year, a Halloween Sock Hop for Y-Teens and the Hi-Y.

It will be held from 8 to 9:30 in Central's gym. Admission is only 25 cents.

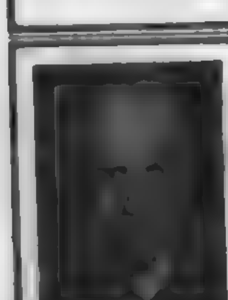
"Happy Halloween"

Sandy Skinner and Richard Lakin are Central High's representatives for the "Fun Without Destruction" campaign this year. They have been visiting West Side elementary schools this week, encouraging youngsters to make the best of Halloween, 1959, and have "fun without destruction." They wish all of you to have the best Halloween ever.

Junior Bowlers Busy

Junior Bowling League at Glenwood is progressing. On Oct. 20, Wilson Keglers came in first with a total of 764 pins. Max Hackley was high bowler of the day with a 182 and 118 to total 300. Dottie Stephenson was second with a 118 and a 96, for 214.



League play will start Tuesday, Oct. 27, at the Hilltop Bowling Alley.

Donald R. Johnson, 2643 Elliott-av, is one of the three employees of the Army Engineer Maintenance Center, 52 Sterling-st, starting an assignment that will take them a distance equal to half-way round the world and will cover six armies.

The mission—conduct a series of twelve, week-long, 40-hour instruction courses for military and key civilians of the army over the nation, October-to-April. The program will answer the questions of the man in the field on how to get the engineer repair parts needed to maintain thousands of pieces of equipment in the U.S. and overseas. Latest regulations, policies and technical manuals will also be reviewed.

The Valleyview man, along with John J. Hally of Linden and Charles T. Rooney of Whitehall, are members of the Engineer Center's Field Liaison branch, which serves as the eyes and ears in the field for center commander, Brigadier General Philip F. Kromer, Jr.

Specialists in Wide Range

These veteran engineer specialists are experts on current supply programs, requisitioning, and the intracacies of regulations and the newest types of equipment.

Charles Rooney lives at 4397 Broadhurst-dr, with his wife, Mary Jane and son, Michael, 11. He is an army veteran and has 20 years federal service. Charles is a captain in the army reserve. He has recently completed liaison trips to Korea and Alaska.

In carrying on this special field school training program from October to April, the three liaison men will travel separate ways. While their field carries the aura of adventure in travel, in reality it imposes many hard, demanding tasks and requires a trouble shooter's eye and the ability to keep pace with the ever changing demands of military supply.

In conducting this comprehensive schooling to a nucleus of more than 500 students, the West Side center is forwarding its dual mission. It is the national inventory control point for Corps of Engineer repair parts and the national maintenance point for engineer equipment.

While the center does not stock equipment, it purchases, determines stockage points and issues orders for shipments to and from depots over the U.S. Each month the EMC processes orders for more than 500,000 repair parts.

The center's engineers, parts specialists, technical writers and other specialists combine many talents. They perform research, select parts stocks, prepare technical manuals and send out the liaison men.

With Corps 18 Years

Johnson, who lives with his wife, Elizabeth, daughter Donna (15) and son Karl (12), has been with the Corps of Engineers for 10 years. He is an Artillery Corps veteran, has spent 18 years with the federal government and holds an Army Reserve commission of major with the 36th Artillery. His work area is "anywhere in the U.S."

John Hally, his wife, Adeline, and two sons, Joe (13) and Michael (12) live at 996 Duxberry-av. John is an air force veteran, has worked for EMC since its inception, and has 18 years federal service. His job has taken him over most of Europe and the Middle East.

COVERS THE COUNTRY—Don Johnson, 2643 Elliott-av, literally lives with a brief case and transportation timetable. He is one of three liaison men of the Engineer Maintenance Center, 52 Sterling-st, assisting the users of army engineer equipment.

Company Keeps Up Insurance For GM Layoffs

General Motors Corp. announced today it will make advance payments for life insurance and other group coverages, as well as Blue Cross and Blue Shield hospital and medical expense benefits on behalf of its employs laid off because of the current steel shortage. At present 2800 Ternstedt plant workers are idle.

General Motors and its employes contribute to the cost of these coverages. Such payments as are required to keep these programs in force will be made by General Motors. Repayment will be made by payroll deduction after laid off employes return to work, company spokesmen said.

Smith Promoted By Galbreath

Frank J. Smith has been appointed sales manager of the John W. Galbreath and Co., Realtors, 48 E. Gay-st. The move, announced by the head of the organization, John W. Galbreath, is being made in order to expand the company's sales efforts.

Smith assumes the position formerly held by Mark Hendrickson who is retiring after eleven years of service. Hendrickson will continue to be associated with the firm as a consultant.

Smith, a recognized authority in the field of marketing, has held important, executive posts in industry. He has written for leading trade publications and talked before a number of business groups throughout the country.

More Helpers Are Needed In Light-A-Life Campaign

More volunteers are greatly needed to insure the success of the Light-A-Life campaign in the near West Side, said Gene Stinson, 1035 Hart-rd, area chairman.

Although on crutches, Stinson has served as chairman here for the last three years. He reports that last January's flood has affected his work this year.

"Many of my best neighborhood workers moved after the flood, and some were routed by the expressway," he said. "So I need some more volunteers to take their places." In addition, Stinson said he lost all his records in five feet of water.

The house-to-house canvass is set for the night of Tuesday, Nov. 10. Persons wishing to assist Stinson may call him at BR. 6-2752.

Additions will be built at five Hilltop schools if the school bond issue passes on November 3. Vote YES on the school bond issue.

Mrs. Edmonston Cites Experience

Golda May Edmonston, former Republican state representative, is a candidate for city council in Tuesday's election.

She says her past service as presiding officer of a number of fraternal, political, social and civic groups gives her a good knowledge of needs of Columbus and its residents.

In a recent statement she advocated a study of flood causes and immediate work to prevent future floods, "proper services" to newly-annexed areas, more recreational facilities for persons of all ages and more policemen.

"With our expanding city, the needs are greater, and the services required can be solved only by careful study and planning," she said.

During her 10 years as a state representative she was a member of the commerce and transportation and public welfare committees.

Gladden Board Endorses Levies

Board of trustees of Gladden Community House has endorsed both the county-wide tax levy for child welfare and poor relief, and the city-wide school tax levy, which will appear on the Nov. 3 ballot.

A. M. Wilder, executive director of Gladden, stressed the fact that child welfare and poor relief law is a renewal, not a new levy, and there will be no increase in taxes.

Wilder pointed out that the United Community Council says the renewal of the levy is essential to carry on vital services for children and families.

Baby Strangles In High Chair

Services for Michael R. Ellis, eight-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ellis of 521 Westmoor-av, were to be held Wednesday, 1:30 p.m. at Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

He strangled in his high chair Saturday afternoon at his home.

The baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hibbs of Hilliard, and Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis of 37 S. Hague-av.

Saturday's tragedy occurred when, left alone for a few minutes, the baby slid down in the chair and his chin caught on the tray, according to Patrolman Harold Baier.

Fire emergency squadmen tried to revive him enroute to Mt. Carmel, but he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Dr. Robert Evans, coroner, ruled the death accidental.

Also surviving is a brother, Jeffrey, three and a half, who came home from the hospital Saturday morning following an eye muscle operation.

Mrs. Ellis is expecting another child in February.

Burial was to be at St. Joseph Cemetery.

West Division Shows Well In UA Drive

West Side section stands at the top of the list in small business solicitation after two weeks of United Appeal campaigning.

Led by Division Vice-Chairman William J. Alder, assistant district manager of International Harvester, the West group rang up a $3,177 report for 24.4 per cent of quota.

Top area in the section so far is Grove City, headed by Curtis Kunz, with 61.9 per cent in. Following are West (Al Wilder) 11.8; Hilltop, (Al Roesner) 3.8; New Rome (Robert Edwards) 3.4.

With the overall drive standing at 51.3 per cent, General Chairman George W Kauffman stated; "If unreported accounts can come in with the same rate of increased giving as shown to date, the goal can be made."

Article States Railroads Will Ask Showdown

A stormy showdown between management and labor over the $500 million annual featherbedding waste on the nation's railroads is imminent, Reader's Digest reports in an article in the November issue.

U.S. railroads are determined to modernize the work rules dating from 40 and more years ago, according to the article by Alfred Steinberg. These rules require surplus men on trains, erect jurisdictional barriers between various work groups and otherwise promote waste and inefficiency among 200,000 operating employees, the article points out. Contract negotiations on this explosive issue begin after Nov. 15.

The toll, he adds, is measured in higher passenger fares and freight rates and dwindling business for the long-troubled railroad industry.

The fireman who "has no fires to stoke or boilers to tend" on the modern diesel locomotive is cited by the Digest article as a primary example of featherbedding in practice.

Another obsolete rule gives each engine-crew member a basis day's wage for every 100 miles he travels. This rule dates from 1919, Mr. Steinberg reports, and results in such "high pay for short hours" as an engineer's collecting 1.43 days' wages for clipping off 143 miles in two hours on the Denver Zephyr.

Organ Recital Dated

Wilbur Held, professor of music at Ohio State University, will present an organ recital at 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 8, at Westerville Methodist Church, 51 N. State-st.

There will be no admission charge. A free-will offering will be taken.

THE BURNING SPRING THAT STOPPED CAESAR

On Grenoble, France, there was at the time of the Roman Empire a burning spring of natural gas. It was such a strange spectacle that even the mighty Julius Caesar stopped to marvel at it.

Today, natural gas is one of man's most convenient tools—especially for those who live and work here in America's Original Natural Gasland. It means plenty of low-cost heat on cold winter nights... cools homes in summer ...low-cost use of modern appliances... dependability unapproached by any other automatic fuel. No wonder natural gas is now, more than ever, the PREFERRED fuel throughout the seven states served by your Columbia Gas System.

$2.25 Million S-W Bond Issue To Alleviate Immediate Needs

The sprawling South-Western City School District has a problem on its hands—what to do with congested schools, expanding housing developments and a hole in its pocketbook?

All of the problems may well be solved with the aid of a proposed $2.25 million school bond—if passed in next Tuesday's elections.

Immediate needs concern the building of elementary schools, the board feels.

Since last May, the student population has increased by nearly 10 percent, according to figures compiled by clerk R. A. Jennings.

"An increase of 804 students is being felt in today's classes," he stated. "And," he added, "the student influx continues."

Needs for the construction of elementary buildings are being felt in three areas, the board clerk pointed out: Lincoln Village, South Franklin and Grove City.

The boom in housing at Lincoln Village South, contractors have told the board, is expected to reach 100 completed and occupied dwellings by Jan. 1, 1960. By Christmas of 1960, the board has been told to anticipate "in excess of 600 homes" completed and occupied.

The South Franklin Elementary building represents the most severe overcrowding conditions in the entire district, Jennings declared.

Holiday Homes are constructing in the vicinity of 100 to 125 homes in the area, he said.

The area of Grove City is another congested spot, Jennings said.

The County Planning Commission, Jennings pointed out, has said to expect 1200 to 1800 more homes in the Grove City area.

The immediate potential is also great in the high school situation, Jennings said. He predicted that a fourth high school will soon be needed in the South-West.

He added that the present bond issue will not have any effect upon an additional high school.

"The monies will be used for elementary buildings in the three areas defined plus building an addition to Pleasant View."

All it will cost the average $10,000 home owner in taxes is an additional $14 a year. That amounts to 3.8 cents a day, Jennings said.

Last Minute Drive Gives McClain Win Over Birds

An angry and almost frustrated McClain Tiger football team asserted its ground power to drive 67 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown to beat Franklin Heights, 22-14, and polish its perfect record to a 6-0 sheen on rain-soaked McClain Field, Friday night.

"T-man" Dick Craft — who certainly must be ranked among the top schoolboy quarterbacks in Ohio—piloted the game-winning onslaught and banged over for the TD that firmed up McClain's lead in games won (4-0) in the South Central League.

The "do-or-die" offensive was launched with 9:30 left in the game. Craft bull-dozed 3½ yards through his left guard for the touchdown, and Dick Harvey, another offensive standout in the battle, smashed over left tackle for the extra points.

Coach Paul Orr revealed later that he sent in a play for the touchdown try but that Craft, after talking it over with his teammates, decided on different tactics.

"I complimented Dick on using his own judgment. He did a fine job," said the Tiger mentor.

The Men of Orr posted a 14-0 lead in the first half and thereafter they might have been looking a bit too far ahead to next Friday's crucial league meeting with Washington C. H. and glossing over their immediate problem, a Franklin Heights club that came uncomfortably close to spoiling McClain's 44th annual homecoming festivities.

The Falcons converted two recovered fumbles into touchdowns on drives of 17 and 40 yards and added both extra points in the third and fourth chukkers, to pull abreast at 14-all.

McClain received the opening kickoff and Harvey climaxed a 65-yard drive on a 2-yard scoring smash with 5:52 left in the period. He added the 2-point bonus over left tackle.

Harvey also counted the second-quarter TD to cap an 88-yard march with 8:12 remaining in the half. Bill Harewood's attempted dropkick for the conversion was low.

The Falcons who gave away little if any weight advantage to the ponderous middle of the Tiger forward wall, applied the pressure after intermission.

Early in the third the visitors punted dead on the Tiger 9, and recovered Pete Coleman's bobble on the 17 as he skirted his left wing.

Mike Holman scored from 2 yards out, and Ron Bellisari added the PAT from placement.

On the first play after kickoff, Heights pounced on Craft's bobble on the M-40 and, early in the fourth canto, Bob Bapst took a fast pitchout around his left end for three yards and the six-pointer. Bellisari again split the uprights from placement to tie at 14-14.

Craft returned the kick-off 15 yards to the M-33 and the Tigers moved for five first downs to the visitors' 5½. Craft scored from 2½ yards out on third down, and Harvey got the extra points, with 2:45 left.

McClain held for downs and took over on the FH-41 and ran out the clock.

McClain played without No. 1 fullback Gene George, speedster Don Hyer made only a brief appearance and Coleman was withheld from the lineup until the second half, because of injuries.

The McClain line worked efficiently on the two first-half scoring marches and paved the way on the decisive winning drive. Halfback Jim Green and Dan Looney, filling in at fullback, contributed valuable yardage.

Publicity, Camp Honors Received By Troop 79

Highlight of a court of honor for Boy Scout Troop 79, Oct. 26, was the presentation of a plaque designating the troop as winner in the 1959 Southwest District troop publicity contest.

The court had more inches of newspaper stories and pictures on activities than any other troop.

New Tenderfoot Scouts are David Van Meter and David Clinger.

Merit badges were awarded to the following: Tommy Hammon, (one); Randy Sheets, (two); Paul Morgan, (three); Richard Wilkinson, (three); Milton Naher (three); Melvin Allard, (three); Terry Elliott, (five); and Craig Weaver, (six).

AUCTION ACTION!

"DOUBLE REVERSE"—Harley Groom of West Columbus Civitan Club, presents five-pound fruit cake to Auctioneer Clarence Latham at West Franklin Kiwanis Fourth Annual Auction Sale, held Saturday night at the Prairie Township School. The Civitan Club sells fruit cakes to raise funds used in the organization's activities and, as a good-will gesture to the Kiwanians, gave them one for the auction. This was avowedly "Reverse strategy," as they expect to sell many cakes to individuals belonging to the latter group. Another reverse was performed by Groom, who has been on the other end of thousands of photos appearing in Hartley Newspapers, for which he is head photographer.

School Building Representatives To Aid Teachers

In order to keep county school teachers better informed on activities of their group and the Ohio Education Association, the Franklin County Education Association has appointed building representatives in each of the county schools.

Their job, it was pointed out, will be to provide information about various activities that affect teachers.

Officers of the group include Ray O'Dell, Hamilton Township High School, president; Larry Wolf, Hilliard, vice-president; Audrey Wilson, Hamilton South, secretary; and Lucinda Bailey, Canal-Winchester, treasurer.

Introducing Dr. E. Stanley Jones

E. Stanley Jones is frequently spoken of as the World's greatest living Christian, who has probably spoken face to face with more people, in more lands, than any other living man. Almost daily he looks into the faces of groups reaching into the thousands, and this goes on around the clock, around the year, and around the world.

In addition to this schedule he assumes the task of writing a book every other year, some of which have gone into a million circulation in more than thirty languages. Through his devotional books alone, he has been a spiritual counsellor to millions. NOW, TO US OF THIS AREA, COMES THE RICH OPPORTUNITY OF HEARING HIM IN PERSON, DURING SIX DAYS OF RARE RELIGIOUS PRIVILEGE.

Westlake Beats Sensenbrenner In Heated Battle For Mayor's Post

By Bill Rush

One Hilltopper will succeed another as Columbus' mayor in January.

W. Ralston Westlake, Republican City Council president, defied predictions indicating another victory by Democratic Mayor M. E Sensenbrenner to score a 52,746 to 47,631 win over the incumbent Tuesday.

A record number of Columbus voters—102,281—turned out to the polls to elect Westlake by 5,115.

Accompanying the new mayor into office will be three Republican councilmen — incumbent William Hicks, Golda May Edmonston and Ronald DeVore. The other council seat will be filled by Democratic incumbent William P. Hoermle.

School Issues Approved

In other city issues, voters approved the 7.8 mill levy and $29,850,000 bond issue approved by the Columbus School District.

The Westlake victory, swung by five per cent of the voters, ended six years of Democratic control of City Hall.

Although this can never be known with certainty, many felt the police department mix-up caused a large percentage of undecided voters to favor Westlake at the last minute.

A poll completed last month by Hartley Newspapers indicated that 30 per cent of the voters were undecided on their choice for mayor as late as two weeks before election.

Republican County Chairman William Schneider termed the flood, the East Side water shortage, Service Director Floyd Redick, Safety Director Leo Phillips and "general squabbling" as what beat Sensenbrenner.

Westlake Carried Hilltop

In capturing the mayoralty, Westlake carried the Hilltop, made inroads on the Democratic lower West Side, cut his majority on the South Side, made gains on the East Side and held the usually-strong Republican North Side

On the Hilltop, early returns indicated that Westlake carried 15 of 23 precincts.

They felt he had overcome every obstacle placed in his path to re-election and might have won in a very tight race except for the sudden outbreak of investigations within the police department.

Although many issues had a factor in the outcome, it was felt that no singular sectional controversy defeated the Mayor

On the county-wide scene, citizens elected Judge Alan Schwarzwalder to a full term and F. J. Shoemaker and Charles Petree to unexpired terms on the Municipal Court.

Stanley Jones Mission In Progress At Westgate

An audience estimated at 1100 attended opening night service of the E. Stanley Jones Spiritual Life Mission Sunday at Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, and hundreds more were present on Monday and Tuesday nights.

More than 300 have responded to his ministry by signing commitments promising to become Christians, to devote time to regular Bible study and prayer, to give systematically to work of the church, or to volunteer for Christian service.

Central theme of his talks, in each of the four major speaking engagements he fills daily, is for "conversion, a change in the character and life of the individual."

Dr. Jones will remain in Columbus through Friday, speaking each evening at 7:45 at Westgate EUB Church, 53 S Powell-av, as well as addressing three other groups daily.

His speaking itinerary for the rest of the week, in addition to mission services, includes, on Wednesday, chapel service at Capital University at 11 a.m., ladies' luncheon at Boulevard Christian Presbyterian Church, and Hilltop Christian Church dinner at 6 p.m.

He will address a West High School chapel service Thursday, 9:15 a.m., Hilltop Kiwanis Club at noon, and Worthington Methodist Ladies' luncheon at 1:45 p.m.

Engagements on Friday are for a chapel service at Otterbein College at 9:40 a.m. and Broad Street Methodist Church dinner at 6 p.m.

Music is provided at each evening service by two participating choirs.

Choirs of Hillcrest Baptist and Wheatland Avenue Methodist will sing Wednesday night, Glenwood Methodist and Westminster United Presbyterian on Thursday, and Burgess Avenue EUB and Oakley Avenue Baptist, Friday.

Those appearing the first part of the week were, on Sunday, Westgate Methodist and Westgate EUB; Monday, Hilltop Church of God and Westgate Friends, and Tuesday, Hoge Memorial Presbyterian and Bethlehem Lutheran.

Song leaders for congregational singing during the week are Dr. Eldred B. Heisel of Westgate EUB Church, and James Cook, First Church of The Nazarene.

Congratulations, Mayor "Ross"

We wish for him every success in the four years ahead while he works for "Good Old Columbus Town".

Political campaigns frequently become quite heated as did the one just completed. But the day after election is the time to settle down to facing the tasks ahead. "Ross" deserves the hearty cooperation of all the citizenry of Columbus.

City Should Extend Valleyview Park

All who were present at the cornerstone laying for the new Hilltop YMCA building Sunday afternoon were favorably impressed with the developing beauty of this fine Hilltop Community Center.

Extending from Hague-av west to the new residential area on the south side of Valleyview-dr is a total of over 55 acres. All but about three and one-half acres of this total is now owned by the various civic groups, including the schools and the city parks.

It would seem highly desirable that the city take steps to acquire the remaining small acreage that faces on Valleyview-dr, and add it to the city park lands.

As it now stands the city actually has no entrance to the park property. This frontage is most desirable for the completion of the park project.

The city should investigate this matter immediately, especially in view of the fact that the property is zoned for general commercial. A commercial project on this spot is not in keeping with the better development of the civic center

The Gay Philosopher Says

W. Broad Zone Change Studied

At 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16 the zoning committee of City Council will consider rezoning of property between W. Broad st, Vlotis-dr, the Ternstedt plant and the New York Central Railroad from "residential" to "commercial" use.

A 400-foot deep frontage on Broad-st already is now zoned industrial. Owner Clarence W. Seely, 2615 Wellsford-rd said the land is in the hands of a realtor and may be used for a warehousing type of facility.

The convention is designed to help each church build its Sunday School and train teachers and leaders to do more effective work. National Sunday School leaders will conduct institutes and workshops.

Hilltop Business Association will elect new officers at its dinner meeting planned Wednesday, Nov. 11, 7 p.m. at the Dragon Restaurant.

ON COUNCIL — Hilltopper Ronald E. DeVore, 329 S. Terrace-av, was elected to the Columbus City Council Tuesday. He placed fourth in the race for as many positions finishing 1,300 votes ahead of fifth-place Rev. Russell Jones. The Republican winner is a tax accountant and licensed real estate agent.

Sewer, Tunnel Legislation Is Approved

City Council put it down in writing Monday that it plans to secure right-of-way for Part One of the Scioto Main Trunk Sewer.

The line eventually will connect with West Side sewer lines near Jets Stadium and run to the sewage treatment works.

Council also authorized "sale" of an easement to the Board of Education for $15,000 for the use of Valleyview pedestrian underpass. It was a legal process enabling the board to pay its half of the project.

PRECINCTS WERE MIXED

Headings over the list of Hilltop and West Side voting precincts were erroneous in a story in this newspaper last week. Lines over the 31st and 32nd Wards were switched.

Southview Park Annex Funds Are Appropriated

Two pieces of legislation were passed unanimously Monday night at City Council to set the ball rolling for the addition of 37-acres to Southview Park.

The tract lies north of Frank rd, east of the Southwest Freeway, south of Stimmel-rd and west of the Scioto River. This land will make up for the land used for the Southwest Freeway that utilized part of the park area.

The ordinance appropriated $200,000 to cover the purchase of 10 of the 11 parcels involved, as well as authorized employment of a negotiating agent and an attorney to handle the legal end of the transaction.

The companion resolution authorizes condemnation proceedings to obtain the land if negotiations aren't successful

Additional ball diamonds are to be built on this site along with a proposed nursery and additional recreational facilities, according to a local South Side civic leader.

It is also proposed that a stadium will be erected in the future for league games, hockey, etc. It may be built in the area where the Greenlawn housing project stands. Authorities say that the housing area should be disposed of sometime in 1960. This area of the park is now owned by the City of Columbus.

The Council of South Side Organizations, concerned with the up and coming growth in this community feels that the housing project should be torn down to make way for the additional park area

The project was erected in 1946 as an emergency veterans housing. It was meant to supply housing for lower wage earners. Since then, according to a federal spokesman, higher wage standards have been met and this housing is no longer required for the purpose intended. The only delay now is the relocating of present occupants. The housing area is not being re-rented, according to authorities.

Council of South Side Organizations members feel this area will be a real asset to southern Columbus

High School Games Confuse Contestants

While most college teams followed true-to-form last weekend, high school gridders put the whammy on Hartley Newspaper Football Contest guesserts who played the favorites.

Most unpredictable of these was Columbus Eastmoor which moved a step closer to the City League crown by blasting East, 8-6, Franklin Heights, in the middle of a mediocre season after copping South Central Ohio crown last year, provided the other upset at the expense of Circleville, 35-■.

Winners will receive, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, five dollars worth of merchandise from Harrup's Pharmacy and a beautiful lighted Helmscene picture from Lowe Brothers Paints.

This is the last week that high school games will appear as part of the guessing contest. Most scholastic pigskin squads will close their seasons next week and begin preparations for basketball.

That means this is the last

Hilltop YMCA Branch Cornerstone In Place — Rest Is Up To The Bricklayers

The Pulse Of The City

By Bill Terry

W. Ralston Westlake, when he assumes office as mayor of Columbus next January, will find himself in much the same position as did former State Highway Director Charles M. Noble.

After his appointment by former Gov. C. William O'Neill, Noble commented to newsmen that he felt like he was getting aboard a fast-moving express train.

That was because the former highway director, Samuel O. Linzell, had laid well the groundwork for Ohio's massive state highway improvement program.

Westlake, also a Republican, will find that Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner has a huge city improvements program well under way and that he, likewise, will be stepping aboard a fast-moving express train of progress.

What happens next in the city improvements program? That question is being voiced by those who have seen plans advance from the drawing boards to construction phases, and who know of still more improvements planned for the future.

During his campaign Westlake spoke mostly in generalities, without voicing concrete prospects for progress. It's up to Westlake to come up with definite plans or he'll find that he has missed the express train of progress.

Some political observers believe that Sensenbrenner would be mayor for another four years were it not for the police scandal which broke a few days before the election. That investigation still is under way and the end is not yet in sight.

This newspaper supported Sensenbrenner editorially in the belief that, as a man of action, he was best fitted to lead Columbus, and because of the results he has produced so far.

The election is over and the city gets a new mayor next January. This newspaper will back Westlake who has said he is "for a better Columbus"—if he comes up with definite plans to fulfill that general campaign promise.

New District Scout Executive Serving 63 Southwest Units

Bill Lindsay

Cites Value Of Football In West Side

To The Editor:

"The West Side Football League was organized in September with only two teams. Today, six weeks later, the league consists of eight teams, ranging in weight from 65 pounds to 185; ranging in age from 10 years to 19; ranging in attendance from 30 to 120.

"Our success was due to the enthusiasm of the boys in this community for active programs (1) in the open and (2) under an organized league.

"Our program continues to be directed to the "boys on the street." Those who did not participate in programs at Sunshine, West Side Boys' Club, Friendship House or Gladden House. Our teams have fellows who don't like four walls, gangs and individuals—but they do want to learn.

We are trying to reach all West Side boys who want and need our program. We take a step beyond just coaching—we teach the boys more about life and the rules pertaining to it through football. Good sportsmanship, the value of fair play, the importance of friendship. Many of the coaches have the boys over in the evenings (but most of the time the boys invite themselves) to watch TV or just talk.

"If these boys in our league weren't playing football and making friends where do you think they would be? Our coaches have done their part for the community and intend to do a great deal more.

"What are others going to do to improve the near West Side?"

Sincerely,
Brad Engert,
League Secretary,
AM. 7-1620

Here's A Switch In Attitudes!

Dear Kids,

"I have a 1957 station wagon that I leave parked in an empty lot on W. Broad-st. As usual I left it unlocked.

"Evidently, some of you little pranksters got into it and emptied the glove compartment contents onto the front seat.

"My reaction and my sentiments are these: Bless their little hearts, they had a barrel of fun and did not damage or take a thing; neither did they flatten my tires or do anything harmful.

"That is good clean fun, kids, and I am glad that you enjoyed yourself and we old folks love you when you have 'respect' to our property.

"I was nice when I was a little girl too; the worst thing I ever did was to help in the upsetting of backhouses and I couldn't help it that one man had an 'emergency call'.

"If anyone talks unkindly of this generation, send him to me, I'll set him straight on a few things."

YOUTHS TO GET THREE SALUTES

The Optimist Clubs of North America will be paying tribute next week to a group of long suffering citizens—our teenagers.

Although it was not intentionally planned, Youth Appreciation Week falls during American Education Week. In addition, Veterans Day is celebrated within the confines of this week. What three events are better to salute the youth of our nation.

If we consider our educational system, we know that the youth of today are facing a great challenge in the fields of science and industry. They are responding to this challenge with a steadfast determination to delve into the vast unknown of research and progress to greater heights.

Veterans Day has been set aside in part to honor the youths who have served in defense of our country. Youths, when challenged by the responsibility and duty of the armed services, have proven themselves as conscientious and as serious as mature men. Look back at the servicemen of the Second World War. Most of them were young, so very young that shaving was an assertion more than a necessity. But they proved their worth at Guadalcanal, Bastogne and Okinawa.

After the guns ceased to roar, the contributions of your youths and their uniforms were hung away to gather dust. Youth was again labeled "teenager" and "delinquent."

Yet many youths have a sincere desire for self improvement in all the experiences and activities for a complete and responsible life. Certainly a few fail and find their way into the custody of the police, but we do not condemn an entire profession because a few practitioners fail to live up to the accepted standards of our society.

Likewise we should not condemn the general population of youth because of a few delinquents . . . we say few because only five percent of our total youth population comes into contact with the law. Conversely, 95 percent of our youth are deserving of our admiration and praise.

For this reason, Optimist International has sponsored Youth Appreciation Week, in an effort to bring this 95 percent their deserving place in our society.

"In the City of Columbus, 10 local clubs of Optimist International will recognize the youth of our city, and give them that rightly deserved "Pat on the Back."

Sale Of Janitrol To Midland Ross Expected Soon

An official statement announcing sale of Surface Combustion Corporation including its three Columbus plants is expected sometime next week.

Negotiations are now in progress for the acquisition on a cash basis by Midland-Ross Corporation of Cleveland. Surface Combustion also has operations in Toledo, Tulsa, Okla., and Toronto, Canada.

The company recently opened a new Janitrol Aircrafts Division plant on Surface-rd, just west of Phillippi-rd.

Midland-Ross is a leading producer of automobile frames and power brakes and of engineered atmosphere control equipment for the textile, plastic, paper, rubber and metal working industaries.

Columbus employees have been assured that no changes in operating policy or personnel are contemplated if agreement with Midland-Ross is ultimately reached.

Arthritic Survey Starts Monday Throughout Area

The Franklin County Chapter Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation will conduct a census to determine the approximate number of arthritics in Columbus and Franklin County. The Chapter is supported through the United Appeal.

William C. McKinley, 1066 Urlin-av, has been named Chairman of the Census Committee. Co-chairman is Mrs. Walter J. Bailey, 1498 Guilford-rd.

Registration cards will be distributed to drug stores throughout Columbus and Franklin County by Monday, Nov. 8.

Purpose of the census is to determine the approximate number of housebound arthritics in the area and those suffering from arthritis who are not now receiving medical care. Information received will be kept confidential.

The survey has been approved by the Columbus Academy of Medicine.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

FALL PORK SPECIALS

Lots of hogs are now being sent to market. While this is bad news for the hogs themselves, it's good news for us as food shoppers. It means it's time to watch for "specials" in pork and to take advantage of its plentiful supply. It means crusty brown fresh pork boasts on your table at low cost.

More Hogs Marketed in Fall — There are two pig crops each year—one in the spring and the other in the fall. The spring crop is normally much larger than the fall crop. Since pigs are normally marketed at about six months of age, it means that pork supplies are normally largest during late fall and early winter. It also means that prices are seasonally low during this same period.

Pork prices have been below the 1954-56 average for most of the year. This fall's run of hogs going to market is about 12 per cent larger than a year ago and will bring additional declines in price. However, the price declines are expected to be smaller and more gradual than usual.

Look for Quality—When you select fresh pork, look for a light grayish-pink color. The meat should be fine in texture, smooth and velvety, and should contain intermingled flecks of fat. The bones should have red porous centers. The outside fat should be white and relatively firm. A high proportion of lean meat to fat is desirable.

Tenderness is usually not a problem in buying pork, since most of our pork products are from relatively young animals.

Proper Storage is Important—Compared with other meats, fresh pork has a relatively short storage life—a few days in the refrigerator and three to six months in the freezer. When refrigerated, it should be loosely wrapped and placed in the coldest part of the refrigerator.

Before freezing, pork should be packaged in moisture-vapor resistant wrappings. Rapid freezing and storage at zero degrees F. or lower is recommended. Cooked pork can be frozen satisfactorily, but it is not as desirable as pork frozen uncooked.

Fresh pork sausage, like most ground meats, is highly perishable and loses quality when kept in the refrigerator for longer than a day or two.

Uncooked cured pork cannot be frozen as successfully as fresh pork, but can be kept somewhat longer in a refrigerator. Half hams have best eating quality if used within five days and whole hams are best when eaten within two weeks.

Recent findings show pork has one-third fewer calories than originally credited. According to a study conducted at Oklahoma State University in cooperation with the National Livestock and Meat Board, lean pork has no more calories than does leaf beef. Pork, like other meats, is a good source of protein, iron and B vitamins. Pork is considered to be one of the best sources of thiamine. The food value of fresh and cured pork is similar.

BIBLE COMMENT

God Is Able To Save All ThroughFaith

One of those eternal riddles without an answer concerns the mother who sees two of her children drowning. Both are disappearing beneath the surface. Both are an equal distance apart from her. There is only time to save one. Which?

If the horror of this problem disturbs us, we need not fear when we contemplate the power of God to save us.

Hundreds of thousands of people leave this earthly existence each day. Yet is is within the power of God to save each one.

He need not weigh the possibility of saving one soul over that of another. He need not be torn by fear and doubts that his decision is the wrong one.

He can save all—or none—as He sees fit.

His desire to save any depends only upon our worthiness for being saved from the whirlpool of earthbound calamity. Also our salvation depends upon our faith that He will, in fact, come to our assistance.

So, after we have struggled against what must come to all men, perhaps there will be an instant before we pass beneath the waters when we will be comforted that His hand is near—not to pull us back to the rocky shore, but to life us upward into the kingdom of heaven.

YOUR BIRTHDAYS

Every year, with monotonous regularity, each of us 'celebrates' a birthday. With each birthday, we grow a little older. If we also grow a little wiser, we realize what life insurance can do for our future and for our families. And on each birthday, we would be wise to ask ourselves a few questions:

"Have my circumstances changed since last year? Do I now need greater life insurance coverage? Had I better not do something about it immediately before my age changes again, and any new policy which I take out proves more expensive?"

I'm sure I can be of service.
Why not give me a call?
You will be under no obligation.

TROOP 79 WINS PLAQUE

"WELL DONE"—Robert Dings, (left) Southwest District neighborhood Scout commissioner, presents the district's top 1959 publicity plaque to Evan Morgan, Scoutmaster of Troop 79. Horace Elliott, assistant Scoutmaster, looks on. Elliott, with the help of his son, Terry (troop scribe), prepared the winning news scrapbook. Mrs. Merl V. Weaver provided the stories and pictures of the troop's activities. All the publicity appeared in Hartley Newspapers.

Dads' Night Too!

Now It's North And Final Home Game At Magly Field

By Bob Wilcox

West's 1959 football season (unique with all games at home except for the first and last) is slowly drawing nigh.

Next Friday's game against the North Polar Bears, does draw the curtain on the '59 home schedule. Then remains only Linden-McKinley. Both games will be as tough as they come for the Cowboys, but quite within [redacted] to be Bronco victories if played right.

North holds down third spot in the City Loop with a 3-1-1 mark, while West is in sixth. North's overall season record is 3-3-1. They suffered two humiliating defeats in their first two games, against Lima and powerful Springfield — both by 50-plus points while the Bears were shutout. However, they roared back in City League warring for a fair record to date, and a pretty good one here in [redacted].

They have a well experienced squad by now, including nine returning lettermen. Outstanding for the Bears offensively are quarterback Fred Nye, halfback and co-captain Jim Baldini and fullback Carl Betts. Defensively and on the forward wall, standouts are both tackles Bruce King and Jerry Williams.

As a team, both on the line and in the backfield, they are extremely light. The line probably averages around 175 with the backs probably running around 172. (Only two men are listed on their program as being over 200—at 215 and 207; then a jump to 194 and then down to 180.) Nevertheless, they usually will grind out their scores in long drives much more often than on long spectacular plays.

Then too, they run most of their plays through the middle, from the tackles in. Although they certainly have the speed for end sweeps they use them very rarely. Quarterback Nye can throw long ones so West's pass defense will have to sharpen up to avoid their Aquinas mistakes. Off-tackle plays are probably their best. They love to throw Betts up the middle.

Here you have the ingredients of a dilly of a game for the home finale . . . one which West could win. And the Cowboys certainly have the revenge motive here after "winning" their game at North last year, but having it whisked away from them in the fourth period for "just another loss." See you Friday night at Magly Field.

SPORTS of SORTS

Compiled By

Bob Wilcox

Aquinas's victory over West last Friday evening was a slight reversal of the old form . . . West not having enough rather than Aquinas having too much.

For the most part it was an old fashioned defensive duel with the Cowboy platoon doing a very fine job . . . except on just two plays and those two led to scores. West's offensive platoon was another story, for the most part.

We certainly called the shot in last week's pergame in quoting West scout who said that "they don't pass much, but when they do they make 'em count . . . all the way."

Aquinas scored early in the second quarter on a nine-play drive started late in the first. Al Bellisari, their very outstanding halfback and the offensive thorn in West's side all evening, climaxed it by going around left end for the final nine yards and the score. John Cherubini kicked the extra point. Thus the score remained 7-0 until late in the game. The drive carried 34 yards.

Aquinas took the opening kickoff and promptly drove all the way to the West 27. From there Jim Thornton picked off Bob Irwin's pass on the West 17 for his first interception. Able to get nowhere, West had to punt and the Terriers promptly took it the rest of the way.

West early showed that they were going to gamble and display a new type offense . . . for them, at least. They drove to the Aquinas 46 and lost on a fourth and five situation, missing by a single yard. The entire game found the Broncos going to the airways, new for them. Here is where the game was actually lost.

At least twice West receivers had long passes in their hands and clear paths to paydirt . . . only to drop the throw! West tried 12 passes (exceptional for them), but only completed five for 36 yards. Quarterback Bob Ross completed his first one to Hummell for 11 in the first period, then threw seven straight incompletes into the final stanza.

Bill Kern then took over the throwing chores and promptly hit for 3-3. Then to capitalize on Kern's speed and receiving abilities, he was shifted out to a slot-halfback spot. Ross overthrew him the first try. The last play of the game found Kern open, but Ross completed a short toss to Gary Clark as the gun went off. But that Kern as a slot back (shades of Ray Renfro) might pay good dividends . . . someone's got to catch the ball in a passing attack.

Outside of West's one long "fruitless" drive, their deepest penetration all evening was the Terrier 48 in the first quarter. But starting on their own late in the third frame after an exchange of punts, the West lads started to roll. They even [redacted] led on fourth down once (on their own 38) and made it with a yard to spare. The score was still 7-0 so a TD could have produced a tie or possible victory.

However after driving to the Aquinas 20, West fumbled and a Terrier recovered on his 17. Two running plays netted them only four yards, so Irwin stepped back and let go with a long heave to Larry Tigyer. When the latter stopped running he had gone 81 yards to score and completely 'salt' the contest [redacted]

Irwin then threw eight times (another big 26 yarder in the first period got them deep in West territory so they might eventually score), completing four . . . for 26, 14, 81 and 10 yards to fit their discription to a 'T."

West standout in my opinion has to be defensive half back Thornton. He had two interceptions (his second in the final period on almost his own goal line) for the evening to bring his season's total to five . . . quite likely high for the city. Despite a sore foot, he managed well. He also led the "Cowby Football Debating Society" in a victory in the closing minutes of the first half. Aquinas drove to the West one and Terrier quarterback Jeff Jones actually went over to score. Thornton started to wildy gesture and yell, quickly aided by several others, and they "talked" the ref out of it (on a knee technicality). But he was over, pure and simple! So Thornton proved his versatility.

Bill Biggers ran the best he has since being injured in the second game of the year. Aquinas keyed on Jerry Hummel and almost completely bottled him up . . . something almost no one else has done, and it certainly hurt the West attack. Hummel only picked up 60 yards rushing instead of his usual 85-90. On West's fourth frame drive, Hummell got 42, Biggers 30 and Saint the other five on the 77-yard drive.

The entire defensive platoon played well for West. Jim Horn, Bob Montgomery, Gary Alwood, Chuck Kittrell and Don Birle had fine performances. There were no injuries to speak of. Bill Paske got in some good licks as did Saint and Biggers on defense, along with Gene Branson and Morris having one of his best defensive nights.

Aquinas used the quick kick twice . . . once in the first period to get them deep enough to finally tally.

Meanwhile the CENTRAL PIRATES took their seventh straight on the chin, being dropped by north, 31-16. Pirate quarterback Eddie Parks was just about the whole show for the losers with some fine running and throwing. Included was a 75-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Earlier he had pitched a pass to Fred Pentelle good for 64 yards and their first score.

The CENTRAL CROSS-COUNTRY squad had themselves a pretty fair year all the way around, but look promising for the future as almost the entire squad was composed of sophomores and juniors. In dual and triangular meets during the regular season they managed to win three and lose four with one tie.

The Pirates did not qualify any boys for the State Meet in last week's District Meet, 'tho as a team they only finished a half dozen or so down the list, and likewise their finish in the City Meet last week.

Their record and scores to date this year are: C 30—West 30 (T), C 40—Linden McKinley 15, C 30—North 42, C 50—Upper Arlington 15, C 20—West 39—Linden Mckinley 21, C 60—[redacted] 20—Eastmoor 61. The squad is coached by Chuck Koterba. Tweny-four boys came out for X-country.

WEST'S CROSS-COUNTRY lads had themselves a good week finishing third in the City and fifth in the District. They scored 101 points in the City to trail Linden-McKinley 41, and East 43. Dave Smith was fifth, captain Joe Massey 11 and Bill Castle 13.

In the District they trailed East, Linden-McKinley, Upper Arlington and Worthington. Smith took a seventh and Massey a ninth as both qualified for the State Meet this Saturday at the Ohio State University course.

The WEST MOUND RAMS dumped Milo Roc, 6-0, last Sunday to advance into the championship of the upper bracket this coming Sunday. They will meet Duckworth Plumbing, who beat Upper Arlington 6-0 also last Sunday, at 2 p.m. at the Rams' home field, at McKinley and Central-ave.

The Rams' lone tally came on a 25-yard pass from fullback Dick Groezinger to end Tildon Sheridan, who then raced the remaining 10 to paydirt in the first quarter. It was aggressive play all the way as the Rams avenged an earlier 25-6 loss to Milo Roc. The quarterbacking of John Goodin and the kicking off of Jim Rogers (booting 'em 35-40 yards) helped bring victory. It was so "aggressive" that the Rams platooned the center of their line to prevent fatigue.

The MOUND ST. RAM'S BOOSTER CLUB held a pot-luck dinner at St. Agnes Church last Monday evening and about 150 attended. Guest speaker was Harry Jacobs who founded the Bearcat football league movement 30 years ago in the Mansfield area. Color movies of the Rams' season were also shown. Royal Blue with red and white trim Bearcat jackets were presented to all 34 members and the three coaches.

Most Valuable Player award went to quarterback Goodin; Outstanding Lineman to end David New; and the Outstanding Back to halfback Jeff Koehler.

WESTGATE HAWKS had little trouble downing the Linden Midgets, 42-0, at Linden Park last Sunday. The winners rolled to nine first downs while holding the losers to none. This Sunday the Hawks are playing their season final at Westgate Park against the Beck Bearcats. It's Dad's Day, too. A large spectator crowd is desired.

The Hawks had themselves a real team victory as the scoring was well scattered. Touchdowns were by Larry Graves on runs of 22 and three yards; Bill Wells on a 20-yard pass from Bob Eberhard; Paul Ratliff with two—a 12-yarder and a 50-yard punt return TD; and Jim Bradley a 30-yard run to score.

Extra points were racked up by Larry Cline on a regulation two-yard run and another on a nine-yarder after the ball was fumbled on a PAT kick attempt; Bradley had the other points. The Hawks completed one of two passes for 20 yards.

In the Ohio Valley Football League play last Sunday, the Oklahomans dumped the West Side Jokers, 34-0, and the Sunshine Hawks bested the Valleyview Golden Bears, 19-6.

This Sunday the Bears meet the Jokers at Sunshine and the Oklahomans take on the Merchants at Marion-Franklin.

Louis Markins was the MVP for the victorious Oklahomans last week as he scored two TDs (runs of 37 and 16 yards) and one PAT and threw a 30-yard pass to halfback Evans for a third TD. Markins runs were from the fullback slot.

Other scores for the victors were a TD (12 yard run) by half Tom Ray and a spectacular 84-yard kickoff return TD (plus a PAT) by half Pauwl Powers, Jr. The losers were paced by Joe Bower on the line and Chuck Durmen in the backfield. Joker righthalf.

John Potts helped pace the Hawks' scoring attack as he scored one TD and threw a 25-yard aerial to half Chuck Rickman who raced an additional 35 yards for another marker. The Pentelle brothers were the mainstays of the Hawks' attack, with R. Pentelle scoring a TD and his brother the PAT, via a kick.

For the losers, half Bob Brown climaxed a drive, started on the Bear's 21, as he took the last handoff on a double reverse and went over from the Hawk's 15. Bill Quinn at fullback also had a good day.

West Side League Football Still Going At Active Pace

In Sunday's West Side Football League games at Sunshine Park: West Mound Rams and West Side Bucks were scoreless; West Side Merchants laced the Golden Bears 21 to 6.

The first TD was scored for [redacted] Merchants by John Potts, [redacted] scorers for the heavyweight team. Chuck Rickman also scored. First league player to score the extra point was Barney [redacted].

West Side Warhawks beat the Little Abners 12 to 8. Yardage was made by Frank Thompson and Bill Bairett. TD runs were John Schroder, Bill Bairett.

Sunshine Park has been reserved by the W. S. F. L. every Sunday for the next four weeks. Games run from 1 p.m. until dark. This Sunday, starting off the afternoon the Merchants will play the Oklahomans.

Rams Rate High Among Lion Teams

League standings and coaches are: Rams, Jim Chiero, 4-0; Colts, Bob Lindamood, 3-1; Little Giants, Bob Ackerman, [redacted]; Tigers, Bill Cooke, 1-3; and Bobcats, Harry Hopwood, 0-4.

Central 12A's Elect Officers For Last Mid-Term Grads

By Leslie Shelhart

The 1960 January graduating class has elected officers for the last January class to be graduated from Central.

In a small class of only 60, close friendships occur, and it is hard to choose officers, but ed were the popular choice.

President Gary Jewell, 182 Dana-av, will preside at all senior functions. Gary came from Starling Junior High School, played varsity basketball in his junior year and will play again this season.

Joyce Anne Walker, 1027 Hanard-st, will carry out the president's duties in case of his absence, as vice-president. Joyce's alma mater is Everett. She works part-time at Lazarus, and is vice president of Distributive Education at Central.

The secretary is Judy Heaton, 1820 Broadview, and is a graduate of Everett. She keeps up-to-date accounts of all senior events. Judy works part-time as a legal secretary.

Cathie Lakin, treasurer, collects all funds for senior activities, and is an alumnus of Mohawk. She is a cheerleader, president of the Dramatics Club, and vice-president of the FTA at Central. Cathie lives at 114 E. Livingston-av.

Officers are busy on the first project of the year now, the senior picnic on Nov. 10.

AD CHAIRMAN

CHIEF SALESMAN—James E. Foote, 228 N. Terrace-av, and representative of the Ohio Oil Co., is chairman of the current sale of advertising for the Hilltop Kiwanis Christmas Newspaper. The club's annual fund-raising edition will be sold the evening of Dec. 2.

Adventist Schools Close This Week

Pupils attending the Seventh-day Adventist schools will have a vacation this week while their teachers attend a meeting at the Ohio Conference headquarters in Mt. Vernon, from Sunday to Wednesday.

Educational leaders of the Ohio Conference and Columbia Union Conference, Washington, D.C., will be main speakers.

Central Y-Teens To Aid Bazaar

YWCA will be the scene of the city-wide Y-Teen Bazaar on Nov. 10. Sandy McCall, Central High School chairman for the World Fellowship Fund, says the Bazaar will be a bake-sale, open to the public from 1 to 9 p.m., and proceeds will go into the treasury of the World Fellowship Fund.

This fund benefits Y-Teen groups all over the world, financing dances and special events for the girls many times throughout the year.

Giants Hold Pace At Glenwood

Good ball playing has put the Giants in first place in the Glenwood Recreation Center football league.

Behind the hard running of Jerry Francis and Henry Butcher the Giants downed the Browns 26-14 and the Rams 38-14. Giants scoring follows: Francis 5, Butcher 5, and Glen Foster1.

Terry Whitlock and Melvin Thompson combined to lead the Colts to their second victory in a row by beating the Browns 22-6. A Richard Moore to John Postle pass was good for six points for the losers.

Husband-Wife Archery Teams Score On Deer

Rose McKnight, 1015 Chestershire-rd, holder of the state women's archery championship, recently returned from Michigan with a deer taken with bow and arrow.

It was her first deer hunting trip, it was her first deer, and to make the jaunt even more successful, her husband, Earl, brought home a deer, too. The McKnights' hunting companions, Bill and Colleen Coverdale, 140 Woodrow-av, also shot two deer with bow and arrow.

Clyde and Elaine Thomas, 1049 Jackson-pk, were hunting with the McKnights and Coverdales but did not shoot any deer.

All members of the Golden Eagle Archery Club, the hunters centered their activities around Alpena, Mich. The Coverdales were there a week, and the others close to two weeks. Clyde and Elaine Thomas are going back soon for another try at big game hunting with primitive weapons.

Mrs. McKnight won the field archery championship, a title she has held for two years now, at the Loss Creek Archers' Club near Bucyrus last summer. There is little doubt that this sharpshooter can hit the target whether it be live or cardboard.

Takes Unusual Skill

Hunting deer with bow and arrow presents a real outdoor challenge, for one must get much closer to the quarry than when hunting with a gun. Stalking, the life and death science of Indians, must be employed to get an archer in range of a deer. Only rarely will a sloppy hunter get off an arrow that will hit a deer.

There has been some talk lately about the humaneness of hunting with bow and arrow, and a national magazine now on the newsstands has an article saying that it is cruel to hunt with bow and arrow. It is my opinion that some wounded game is lost by both archers and gunners — a thing that all sportsmen should strive to correct. This is why dogs are important in small game hunting; they cut down the cripple-loss.

For my money archery is as good an outdoor sport as can be found, and I believe that archers shoot less game, in proportion, than gunners. Certainly, the sport has great appeal, for more archers are joining the ranks all the time. Deer hunting in Ohio provides a lot of sporting opportunity for both archers and gun hunters.

Since the bow and arrow people shoot few deer they are provided long seasons. Here in Ohio the bow season is from Oct. 15 to Dec. 31. The gun deer season is Dec. 10 to Dec. 12.

Pittsburgh Man Gets Westinghouse Post Here

HE'S REAL OUTDOORSMAN

Sandusky Street Expressway Joins Progressing West Side

PANORAMA OF PROGRESS—Pupils and teachers of Holy Family elementary and high schools had a balcony view of the Oct. 30 dedication of the $9,200,000 Sandusky Street Expressway. Publisher C. Carlton Hartley opened the 11 a.m. ceremony and Chet Long was master of ceremonies. Present were government officials, Naval Color Guard, the clergy, Boy Scouts, Holy Family choir and school patrol, representatives of contractors, unions, engineers and the chamber of commerce.

Band Will Plug Christmas Seals

West High School band will salute the Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County's forthcoming Christmas Seal sale Friday at the West-North football game.

The band will form the double-barred cross, international symbol of the fight against TB. During the maneuver, a public address announcement will remind spectators to buy and use Christmas Seals during the Nov. 16 to Dec. 25 campaign.

Nine Patrolmen Are Arrested In Police Probe

They were feeling the effects of critical public opinion, aroused by arrests of fellow officers being held for investigation of burglary and larceny.

Nine policemen — less than two per cent of the 534-man force — had been linked with the investigation Tuesday night.

They are William E. Clifford, 34, 192 W. Como-av; William B. Russell, 29, 1242 E. 17th-av; Edward M. Muholland, 28, 5392 Sinclair-rd; Robert E. Horch, 29, 5766 Sinclair-rd; James S. Faris, 47, 138 Chatman-rd; Lawrence J. McNulty, 29, 480 S. Roys-av; Charles R. Haapia, 29, 4256 Walford-av; Richard O. Headlee, 23, 660 French-dr; and Raymond E. McKnight, 34, 2028 Doren-av.

All but Sgt. Faris are patrolmen.

The investigation was touched off Thursday night when Russell, along with two civilians, entered Cooper's Pharmacy, 1506 S. Hamilton-rd, after being ordered to check an unlocked door.

Giving the child some choices in clothing color helps promote feelings of independence and self confidence important in developing the child's personality, say extension specialists at Ohio State University.

Police Officers Prevent Fatality At Power Line

John Loring, 27 of 744 W. Broad-st, was saved from possible electrocution Sunday afternoon by three motorcycle police officers.

Loring was trapped in the cab of his truck when a 25-foot cargo boom on the vehicle became entangled with high tension overhead trolley wires as he was leaving the State Hospital grounds on the north side of W. Broad-st.

Motorcycle officers Wilbur Ehlers, Harold Baier and Eddie Baker, who came by a few minutes after the accident, cautioned Loring to sit still inside the truck, which was charged with about 550 volts of direct current.

They called for help and stood by until a Columbus Transit Co. crew placed a ladder at the side of the truck from which Loring descended safely.

The round oak dining table of grandma's day can easily become a double duty piece by cutting it down to coffee table size. It becomes both a decorative and serving table. Add pie-shaped cushions and you have a hassock for extra seating space.

FIRST TRIP—The mayor, councilmen, Service Director Floyd Reddick and the queen were the first to ride the two-mile length of the new expressway, which is to be the west leg of the Columbus - Innerbelt system and links part of the North-South freeway through the city.

Hospital To Break Sod For Annex

Mt. Carmel's Ceremonies Set Nov. 18

Mt. Carmel Hospital will start the second of its three big expansion steps Wednesday, Nov. 18 when ground is broken for the planned $1.2 million psychiatric addition.

The new, three-story Mt. Carmel School of Nursing was dedicated last May. The building houses 100 nurses, with living quarters, classrooms, recreation facilities and an auditorium.

A Child Guidance Center will also be built early next year at the northwest corner of W. State-st and Souder-av. The center will be affiliated with the psychiatric annex, for help with emotionally disturbed children.

Program Is Planned

Msgr. William Kappes, director of Catholic hospitals in the diocese, will speak at the ground-breaking services Nov. 18, 4 p.m.

Mother Constantine, former hospital administrator and now provincial of the Eastern District of Holy Cross, Washington, D. C., will return for the ceremonies.

Construction of the four-story building is expected to get under way by mid-January.

A 46-bed psychiatric hospital will be located on the two top floors, and the lower floors will be devoted to an out-patient clinic.

The new annex will be built southwest of the present Souder-av emergency entrance. An overhead connection by enclosed bridge to the main hospital building is planned.

$400,000 in Federal Funds

A Hill-Burton federal grant of $400,000 will pay for part of the construction. Balance of the $1.2 million is hospital funds.

The psychiatric addition will make Mt. Carmel the second private hospital in Columbus with such facilities. White Cross has some beds for the purpose.

Only other hospitals in the city receiving psychiatric patients are the University's Receiving Hospital and Columbus State Hospital.

CONSTRUCTION SLATED FOR 1960—Groundbreaking ceremonies are planned Nov. 18 for the $1.2 million psychiatric addition to Mt. Carmel, second project in the hospital's gigantic expansion program. An "X" marks the proposed psychiatric addition, and the new nurses' wing, dedicated last May, is indicated by an asterisk. The arrow, lower right, points toward the site of the planned Child Guidance Center at the northwest corner of W. State-st and Souder-av, also slated for early 1960 construction. The Guidance Center is now located on Bryden-rd.

Like A Family Reunion

This year was no exception . . . good food and plenty of it (the one thing that hasn't gone up in price in years) and fine fellowship with many people you don't see from one year till the next.

Count me in on this party every year!

The Gay Philosopher Says: "If you live it up you may have to live it down."

New York Journal-American columnist, Doug Welch, reported on the "finest business letter" story related to him by a prominent business consultant.

The letter, obviously written by a hard-working new [illegible]

"Dear Boss: I seen this outfit which they ain't never bought a dime's worth of nothing from us and I sole them a couple hundred thousand dollars worth of guds. I am now going to Chicago."

Two days later a second letter arrived at the home office:

"I cum hear and I sole them a half a milyon," it said.

Both letters were posted on the bulletin board with a note appended by the company president:

"We been spending too much time hear trying to spel, instead of trying to sel. Let's watch those sails. I want everybody should read these letters from Gooch who is on the rode doin a grate job for us, and you should go out and do like he done."

Funeral Planned Friday For Area Aviation Ace

Services for Melville E. Swanson, 59, former area resident and aviation pioneer, will be held Friday, 1 p.m. at Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

He died Saturday following a heart attack in his home in Minneapolis, where he had lived for more than 20 years.

Mr. Swanson's survivors include a son, Melville E., Jr., of Dublin, and a sister, Mrs. Walter Castoe, 857 S. Hague-av.

A 1918 graduate of Central High School, Mr. Swanson pitched for the school baseball team, and played varsity football.

He grew up in the home his father had built at 51 N. Ogden-av, and got his start in his lifelong career of flying at Sullivant Airport.

At the time of his death he was associated with Anderson Cadillacs and North West Airlines, and was vice-president of North West Pilots' Association.

First to Span U.S.

Mr. Swanson's air feats include flying the first Tri-Motor Ford plane across the United States, stunt flying and participation in the early races at Indianapolis.

He was a test pilot for North West Airlines for a number of years and, in the late 1930s tested for the Mayo Clinic the high altitude mask still in use during World War II.

Captain During War

He was a captain in the Air Transport Command during World War II.

Mr. Swanson flew until two years ago when he was stricken with rheumatic fever. At the time of his illness he was a commercial pilot.

Survivors, in addition to his son and sister are his wife, Louise; another son, Robert C. of Minneapolis; three grandchildren; mother, Mrs. W. W. Gill, of Miami, and brother, Leslie, of [illegible]

He was a Pioneer Airman and a member of Ox 5 Club of America, Quiet Birdmen, Lake Harriett Lodge 277, Minneapolis Scottish Rite, Zurah Temple Shrine Patrol, Jesters, Flyers and Minnehaha Methodist Church.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. Thursday. Rev. Sidney Everson will officiate at the service. Burial will be at Sunset Cemetery.

Three Teams Are Toughies In Contest

Ohio State, Illinois and Heidelberg, three of the winningest teams in football, were the downfall of most guessperts taking part in this week's Hartley Newspaper Football Guessing Contest.

All three, which were given heavy support by contestants, either were defeated or tied throwing many prediction sheets out of kelter.

On the other hand, predictors seemed to have the high school situation well in hand with possibly the exception of Aquinas' victory over Lakewood St. Edwards.

Here are this week's win-[illegible]

C. G. Wilcox, 2474 Brixton-rd; Bill Miller, 3033 Sullivant-av; and Marlen Brandenberger, 2025 Whitehead-rd.

They will receive, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, 10 barbecue sandwiches from Phillips Coney Island and five dollars in merchandise from D. and J. Grocery.

Financing Is Poser In Dry Run Control

Mention Dry Run Creek and some think of a picturesque little stream that winds through Valleyview.

To others it's the monster that panicked the West Side last January and is chewing away at several Hilltop backyards with every sudden storm.

Such a case is that of Carl Martin, 193 N. Roys-av, and it came up before council again Monday night. The Martins moved in last September. Since then they've learned that an 80-foot strip of their property, 15 feet deep, has long-gone downstream to the Scioto.

The Martins are asking the city for help—any help—to put the creek back where it was and keep it there. Their hopes were echoed in City Hall Monday by a neighbor Tom Sklena.

"Where's the money coming from?" That was a poser presented by Carl Schoene, chief of sewerage and drainage. He said it would cost $150,000 to send the run into an underground 96-inch tile and route it north of the railroad, around the pedestrian underpass. The service committee urged that no "temporary type of project be undertaken." It was suggested that the county be asked to share some of the costs, since part of the stream is out of the city.

The matter is now in the hands of the City Planning Department and Finance Director M. D. Portman is being consulted to see if it can be included in the next Capital Improvements Budget. The proposal could reach ordinance form soon after the first of next year if pushed now.

Council Will Elect

Officers for the coming year will be elected by the Hilltop Community Council, Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m., at the Hilltop YMCA.

Treasurer, Mrs. Don McVay, will give a financial report on the Halloween party.

"We're With You" Pledge Sent By HBA To Westlake

"Community Cooperation," slogan of the Hilltop Business Association, was given special emphasis in a Nov. 4 letter to one of its own members.

H. James Holroyd, HBA president, penned the following words to Ralston Westlake:

The members of the Hilltop Business Association congratulate you on your election to the office of Mayor of the City of Columbus, and wish you the best during your tenure in office.

"We are proud to have a member of the association hold the highest office in our city and offer you our full cooperation in any program designed for the betterment of Columbus."

ASKS HOMEOWNERS' COOPERATION

Leaf Pickups Begin Here Next Week

City leaf pickup crews will be busy in this part of town next week.

Jarrett C. Chavous, supervisor, announced the following schedule: Monday, Nov. 16 — Sandusky-st to Central-av, between Broad and Sullivant.

Tuesday, Nov. 17 — Central to Clarendon-av, between Broad and Sullivant.

Wednesday, Nov. 18 — Clarendon to Burgess-av, between Broad and Sullivant.

Thursday, Nov. 19—Livingston-av to Whittier-st, between High and Mohawk. Burgess to Roys-av. [illegible] Broad and Sullivant.

Friday, Nov. 20 — Livingston to Whittier, [illegible] Parsons-av and Lockbourne-rd. Roys to Derrer-rd, between Broad and Sullivant.

Chavous has three suggestions to homeowners who cooperate in the leaf cleanup:

- Place leaves in the gutter the day before scheduled pickups and wet them down so they will stay put. Leaves in yards will be bypassed.
- Remove vehicles from the curb when a cleaning is scheduled. One sedan will block almost 30 feet of gutter that the sweeper cannot reach. The leaf crew will not make a return trip.
- Authority to place leaves in the gutter for a scheduled pickup does not mean that the homeowner can use the gutter as a regular place for disposal of leaves. Putting them into the gutter except on notice of collection is illegal. An accumulation can block catchbasins and cause cars to skid. Citizens have the right to report infractions of this rule to the police or City Attorney's office.

PURCHASE INCLUDES NEW AREA FACILITY

Midland Ross Purchases Local Janitrol Plants

Acquisition of the Surface Combustion Corporation with headquarters in Toledo and Columbus has been announced by the Midland-Ross Corporation of Cleveland.

The announcement followed a report made three weeks ago by Wade N. Harris, president of Midland-Ross, and Henry M. Heyn, president of Surface Combustion, that preliminary negotiations for the purchase were in progress.

Surface Combustion operates three plants in the Columbus Area including the Aircraft Division just off Phillippi-rd on Surface-rd.

Surface is a leading designer and producer of industrial furnaces and other heating equipment for all major industries as well as the Kathabar dehumidification systems.

The nationally known Janitrol heating and air conditioning products for residential, commercial and industrial use, and Janitrol aircraft and missile equipment represent other major areas of the Surface operations.

Sales of Surface, including Janitrol, have averaged approximately 45 million a year in the last five years. Net profits have averaged in excess of two million in the same period. Harris estimated that the sales of the combined organization in 1960 should approximate $120 million.

Robin Bell, president of the Janitrol Division, stated that the Janitrol operations here in Columbus would not be affected in any way as a result of this [illegible].

"Everyone connected with Janitrol . . . employees, distributors and dealers, and suppliers . . . will benefit because we are now a vital part of an even bigger, stronger more versatile company. We shall be able to use the combined engineering, development, and production talents of Midland-Ross, Surface and Janitrol to greatest advantage," he added.

He pointed out that the joining of Surface-Janitrol and Midland-Ross means a generally broader base of consolidation operations—and a larger organization, new engineering talent and an increased corporate stability. The company will now have nearly 6,000 employees, of whom approximately 500 are engineering and technical personnel. It will comprise 14 plants with more than 2,000,000 square feet of manufacturing space.

Surface operates three major divisions. The Janitrol Aircraft Division occupies a new 140,000 square foot plant in Columbus. Its principal products are heaters, heat exchangers, pneumatic controls, couplings, and ground support equipment for both aircraft and missiles.

The Janitrol Heating and Air Conditioning Division occupies a 470,000 square foot plant in Columbus for the manufacture of residential, commercial and industrial heating and air conditioning equipment.

A GOOD SHEPHERD DOES HIS DUTY

"BUSTIE" GETS A BOTTLE—No lambs, but many breeds of dogs will be exhibited at the Central Ohio Kennel Club all-breed show, Sunday, Nov. 15, at the Junior Fair Building at the State Fair Grounds from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. The Kennel Club members donate a portion of proceeds to local charity. The week-old orphan Shropshire lamb, "Bustie" by name, did belong to two sisters, Ellen and Martha Marks of 4675 Riverside-dr. They fed him regularly every three hours. When they had to accompany their parents to a distant city, the lamb became a serious problem. So a fine black German Shepherd, Arliss of Ketenheim, C.D., came to the rescue. Usually, Champion Mars of Maur-Ray, C.D., a kennel mate of Arliss, stood guard. The dogs are owned by Louise Ackerman, of Ack-Acres, Dublin.

With the first phase of the Society's Cancer Prevention Study successfully launched, I'd like to take this opportunity to express the gratitude of all of us in the Franklin County Unit for the cooperation you've given in this project.

Your help was especially appreciated in the area of publicity, where it has been so important to alert the public to the aims and objectives of this survey.

Again, may I say a sincere thank you for the part you've played in this new research project, which might well help us find the answer to cancer.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE STARTS

Before the month is out, seven-year-old Linda Strack, of Columbus, will probably be the best known young lady in Franklin County.

Linda appears on the 1959 Christmas seal letter sent to 240,000 homes in the county. She's pictured as she received the Tuberculosis Society's free tuberculin test last spring.

This fall the Society is testing thousands of additional first-graders in every area of the city and county — to discover TB germs which may be hidden in their little bodies.

Christmas seal contributions alone finance the 53-year-old society's free tuberculin testing program . . . plus free chest x-rays, services for ex-patients, educational programs and local TB research projects.

Your Christmas seal dollars mean hope for nearly 300 persons with active, contagious TB in Franklin County, as well as a sound TB prevention program to protect the community.

The sum of $200,000 is needed to carry out local services to Franklin Countians in all areas.

The Tuberculosis Society is not a member of United Appeals . . . Christmas seals, mailed once a year to invite your annual gift, are its sole income. Please answer your Christmas seal letter promptly.

Group Works For Happier Christmas At State Hospital

A collection of Christmas gifts for the patients of the Columbus State Hospital is being planned by Franklin County Mental Health Association's vounteer service committee.

There are more than 3000 patients at the hospital—2200 are from Columbus and Franklin County. For many of them this program will offer the only Christmas gifts they will receive, said Norman R. Gutry, executive director.

Because of the generous response of Franklin county residents in the past, the committee is planning the collection of the gifts at an earlier date, Nov. 10 to Dec. 10.

Gifts may be deposited in special Christmas boxes provided by Swan Cleaners at all of their branch stores. Many churches also will have boxes to receive the gifts, which should not be wrapped. Wrapping will be done at the hospital. Wrapping paper will also be appreciated.

Groups and individuals interested may secure further information by calling Mrs. Charles Wheeler, HU. 8-2020.

Suitable gifts include small food items such as cookies, candy bars, and sugar coated cereal; cosmetics, scented soap, perfume, powder, hand lotion; tobacco, pipes and cigarettes; handkies, ties, scarves, bandanas, aprons, socks, hose; writing materials and paper back books.

The committee requests that all gifts be marked with the donors' names and addresses.

"Bringing the gifts early will help to give time for the patients to enjoy wrapping the gifts for the ward Christmas parties and, we hope, will result in the best Christmas yet for all at the hospital," Gutry said.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables—Leaf lettuce, kale, potatoes, sweet potatoes, dry onions, turnips.

GREENHOUSE VEGETABLES FOR COLD WEATHER MEALS

Arrival of freezing weather stops production of field-grown vegetables. From that time on each year we have to depend on other sources for fresh vegetables. We may get them from greenhouse operators in our area, or we may get them shipped in from California, Florida, and other warm climate states. Ohio is lucky in that it leads the nation in greenhouse vegetable production.

Ohio producers grow about 150 acres of lettuce under glass each year. This crop comes to market from September to April. The quality this year will generally be good, since recent temperatures have been cooler and more favorable to production.

Leaf lettuce varieties are especially adaptable to growing under glass. It adds a colorful frill to your sandwiches or fruit salads.

Bibb lettuce is growing in popularity. It now comprises about 10 per cent of the Ohio lettuce crop. The leaves are tender and sweet — good without dressing, wonderful with.

Endive and Escarole, while mostly shipped in during winter months, are also available from our greenhouses. Both have a tangy flavor and give interesting texture and appearance to your salads. Both are economical.

Watercress, with a pleasant spicy flavor, can be used either as a garnish or as a salad ingredient.

Buying Guides—When selecting any of these salad greens, freshness is the keynote. The leaves should be green, crisp and fresh looking. Salad greens should be kept cool. Wilted leaves may be made crisp again but they never regain their original flavor and nutritive value.

Pre-packaged greens may cost a few cents more than bulk form, but the added convenience of a trimmed, washed and easy-to-store product should be considered in deciding which is the better choice for you.

GREENHOUSE TOMATOES

There are two crops of greenhouse tomatoes grown in Ohio each year. Tomatoes from the fall crop are in markets now and will continue until January. The second crop comes to market just ahead of the growing season for outdoor vegetables in the spring.

When buying greenhouse tomatoes look for the green calyx or stem, the label if pre-packaged, and the display sign. All these will help you to distinguish greenhouse tomatoes from the shipped-in ones now on the market.

BIBLE COMMENT

Thanksgiving Is Also Day To Give Help

With the advent of Thanksgiving season, our thoughts turn naturally to the abundance of our nation and our personal welfare.

The very name suggests that we give thanks—to God—for His generosity in bringing us good fortune.

But the day has come to have another significance—that of exercising generosity toward those less fortunate. This out-giving is demonstrated in the Bible many times.

Those who expect everything, yet give nothing in return, are turning the idea of Thanksgiving into a selfish and vain mockery of purpose.

Although we may be well off, indeed, there are countless millions throughout the world who literally live from day to day. In India, the Middle East, Africa, South America—yes, in our own country, there exists those who have little cause for thanksgiving, even if they have heard of such a thing as a national holiday of that name.

Until these people are rescued from their grinding poverty and taught to lift their bodies upward, how can we expect them to lift their eyes toward God in thanks?

Thus, thanksgiving has a double meaning for us all: as an occasion when we can thank God for His bounty, and as a time when we can resolve to spread His good work by our prayers and generosity to our fellow man.

Cowboys Ride To Linden In Football Season Finale

by Bob Wilcox

West's Cowboys take to the road for only the second time this season as they go to Linden McKinley this Friday evening in the 1959 finale.

Linden, last year's City Loop title holder, is batting a couple of games over the .500 mark. Though running about third in the City Loop race this year, they were never quite in contention as were Eastmoor and East. They are experienced—with 18 seniors, 16 juniors and only one sophomore on the squad. The starting eleven numbers seven or eight seniors.

Offensively they use a straight "T" with an occasional flanking halfback. While capable of end runs and sweeps with their speed, they prefer off-tackle slants and running "inside" or up the middle, using fullback Dana Amos. They stick mostly to the ground.

Starting quarterback Ron Burkey, who scored two TD's against Central last week, can throw. However they have a "specialist—quarterback Lee Paolini—and when he enters the ball game he does nothing but throw. Their favorite aerial target is left end Bill Spahr.

Their real speed merchant is halfback Jeff Dierker, a track dash star. He is highly dangerous, but also a constant threat is Amos who is both big and speedy. Even less publicized than last fall, he still can produce. Gone however is their man who broke West's try for an upset last year—Steve Bennett. West led going into the final quarter when Bennett broke loose for two long "dashes" to win for the Panthers. Thus the Broncos have a revenge motive.

Linden defensive alignment is usually the 6-2-3 or Oklahoma style with a rare 5-4-2 setup. They have two very fine men on the line in guards Frank Tripp and John Moore and the co-captains. Their heaviest man is junior tackle Bill Lowry at 200 pounds. Their line averages 164, the backs, 153.

Glenwood Center Colts In Front

Kenny Dennis and Jim Bell combined to hand the Giants a 34-12 defeat in the Glenwood Center Football League. Dennis scored two touchdowns on runs of 80 and 50 yards. Bell scored on a 60-yard run and on a pass from Jim Garrison.

Jerry Francis provided the scoring punch for the Giants with three touchdowns on runs of 60, 50 and 40 yards. Glenn Foster and Henry Butcher scored two points each.

Two safeties and a screen pass to Danny Echols gave the Giants a 10-6 win over the Browns. The Browns' only score came on a three-yard plunge by Richard Moore.

The Rams and the Colts battled to a 14-14 tie in a well-played game, Jim Alexander of the Rams, made two touchdowns and two extra points.

FRIDAY, NOV. 13, 8 P.M.

War Hawks, Comets Win

West Side Bucks were edged 14 to 12 in the Comet-Buck game of the West Side Football league game at South Franklin School last Sunday.

The Bucks' Bob Nash scored two TD's during the first and fourth quarters. John Reinier scored both times for the Comets. He ran the first on the first kick-off of the game.

In middle weight warring at Sunshine Park the W.S. War Hawks trounched Rainbow 46 to 0. Bill Barrit made the first goal. Other scoring was by Frank Thompson (12); John Schrader (12); Bill Carrington (6); and Roger McCabe (6). Thompson also recorded three interceptions. Line work by Fred Valentine and Dan Hysell was exceptional, as was the faking of Jim Karding.

Rainbow showed some good blocking and running.

Compiled By
Bob Wilcox

West got their revenge and showed their mettle both last Friday night at Magly Field as they sneaked by North, 22-20.

For the second time in three weeks, West rolled to an apparently easy 22-0 halftime lead and more expected in the second half. If the fans were disappointed in that part, scorewise, they certainly weren't lacking in thrills. In the Watterson fray it was merely a matter of West not going anywhere the second half; against North it was a different matter—that of stemming a North attack that suddenly came alive and stopping it just short of a West defeat!

West's defense which had been so exceptionally stingy the first half, started to give ground in the second—and as completely as West had dominated play in the first half, North did in the second.

Touchdown-wise both squads were even with three, but North only made one point-after-touchdown attempt (an example of West 'defense when necessary') —and that was the difference. Both squads missed their first point-after-touchdown attempt, but the Cowboys also stacked up the Bears' third try at the line of scrimmage, and that proved to be "it." In the dying minutes when West seemed to be moving again or at least keeping possession, North recovered a Bronco fumble and started what first appeared to be a drive that might clinch it for the visitors.

But the Cowboys proved that they had what it takes, holding them on downs (fourth and 10) on the West 24-yard line when the gun sounded.

West possesses one of the best pass defenders in halfback Jim Thornton, but in recent weeks this defense as a whole has become quite "leaky" and costly. Jerry Hummel played his first defense in a long time in the last few seconds as he went in to plug the "aerial hole" and managed to help stem the tide. (It's hard for him to intercept or catch a pass in his cast.)

West opened the scoring at 2:39 of the first quarter as Bob Saint went over right guard for the final two yards. The drive covered 37 yards and 11 plays with Bill Biggers eight-yard jaunt being the big gainer. A pass, Saint to end John Peterson, was incomplete for the point-after-touchdown.

At 11:54 of the second period Hummel shot over center like a jet on a quick opener and scampered 18 yards to pay dirt. Biggers collected the extra points over guard. This was a short drive in its entirety, starting on the North 18 (gained three then lost five on a penalty) and taking only two plays.

West's last tally came at 1:00 of the second frame as Biggers went around left end from the five to score. Several Polar Bears hung on him but couldn't contain him—likewise with his conversion tries. He also scored the decisive extra points over guard. This drive took 14 plays, covered 64 yards and included a successful fourth and one gamble. The score came on a fourth down also.

North's scores came thusly: 2:15 of the third period they scored from the three to climax an 11-play, 55 yard drive. Conversion pass try no good. At 9:57 of the final frame they scored from the three and the conversion over tackle was good. This drive took 11 plays and 36 yards. Their final tally came at 6:51 (in an effort to conserve time for that win try) as they threw a beautiful 33-yard aerial into the end zone. The try for extra points over tackle was jammed up. This TD took only two plays and 37 yards.

All three West running backs had pretty good nights—Saint with 13-47-3.6, Hummel with 11-62-5.6 and Biggers with 15-46-3.6. Biggers was the workhorse, but Saint had the longest run of the evening, a 31-yard sprint off tackle. Quarterback Bill Kern went all the way and had a fine night; he completed most of his passes in the first half for sizable gains.

West almost blocked North's first punt. On the second one as the ball was snapped, Coach Charlie Meyers said, "We're goin' to block this one." And so they did—a mighty three-man blitz swarmed through (Bob Montgomery, Gary Alwood and Bill Paske). Montgomery got the ball full force and Alwood fell on it on their 15. As Montgomery stated later in the dressing room, "I thought the ball was by me until I felt it hit my arm and I knew I had it. But believe me, it sure felt good!"

The entire defensive line (Paske, Stew Randall, Jim Horn, Alwood, Montgomery, etc.) was outstanding. Rather than a collapse the second half, the movies revealed merely a change of Bear tactics that wasn't compensated for soon enough. Alwood and Paske at defensive end were quite good as was Biggers on defense.

Paske sustained a bad gash over his eye but should be ready. Peterson injured his knee and at press time it is not known if he'll be ready to go or not. Since his switch to end he seems to have found his niche.

RICK BANKER, 80 N. Brinker-av, an end and defensive halfback for West earlier this fall, underwent delicate knee surgery Monday, according to friends. He is in Room 733 at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

CENTRAL'S PIRATES kept their "record" intact Friday as they bowed to Linden McKinley, McKinley, 30-12. (Central won last year, 20-0, and at first Friday night it appeared that they were going to duplicate the feat, but . . . alas!)

The first two times that the Pirates got their hands on he ball they scored; and Linden scored the first time they handled the pigskin as the fans got some real fast scoring action. Central took the opening kickoff and went 66 yards to score. Pirate ace Ed Parks scored as he broke over left tackle, was touched by several Linden defenders who couldn't contain him as he "danced" 33 yards to paydirt. A pass for the extra points failed.

McKinley came right back, taking Central's kickoff and marched 80 yards for the equalizer as Ron Burkey made the final five on a quarterback sneak. The conversion by Jim Walberry was good for two points and Linden led. But that only lasted until Central got their hands on the ball again after the ensuing kickoff.

Minutes later Parks again went over, this time from the one on a left-end run. A fumble cost them any extra points. Thus at halftime the scoreboard read 12-8, Central.

But Linden came out in the third period all charged up and, coupled with Central's fumbles, started to roll for good. Taking the kickoff, in eight plays, Burkey scored his second TD of the night, this time from the four. From there on, Amos and Sebring with TDs and Amos and Donaldson with PATs, wrapped up the scoring for Linden. And down the drain went the Bucs' dreams of a second consecutive upset of the Panthers. Last year Linden was league champ with a pretty tough squad.

Central plays Marion Franklin in their last encounter of the 1959 season this Friday night . . . and I'll go out on the limb to state that I think the jinx (that of not having won a game all year) will be broken in this season finale and Central will take Marion-Franklin to the "cleaners."

The Pulse Of The City

By Bill Terry

While some Democratic observers feel the county organization did not go out strongly enough for Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner — and that that contributed greatly to his defeat at the polls — top Democrats say that just is not so.

For many years the first and second wards on the South Side have been regarded as strongly Democratic. Last Nov. 3 — on the basis of unofficial returns — they still went Democratic, but not as strongly.

Years ago there was a saying, "as the first ward goes, so goes the city." That wasn't true on Nov. 3.

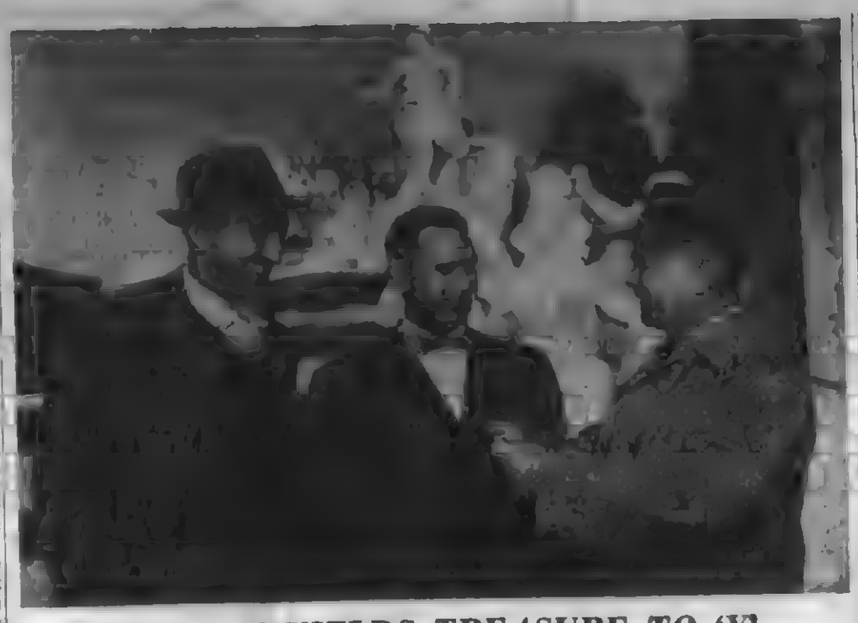
One candidate said he felt the precinct committeemen did not work hard enough, anywhere in the city. He recalled previous years when the precinct workers drummed up big crowds to hear candidates talk.

Some of the meetings he addressed attracted only eight or 10 people. The one non-partisan meeting he attended—at which both Democratic and Republican candidates spoke, was well attended.

To the accusation that the Democratic organization was too confident of victory and did not put its entire heart into the campaign, top Democrats say no stone was left unturned in the campaign.

They say the Republicans duplicated Democratic efforts and discount the door-to-door Republican campaign as being ineffective.

Democratic organization men believe the probe of the pilfering policemen put the lid on the barrel of Sensenbrenner's campaign. The continuing arrest of the policemen did nothing to bolster confidence in City Hall. Democratic county headquarters began getting calls from its workers saying that people who had promised to vote for Sensenbrenner had changed their minds—just a a few days before the election. Before that an organization poll indicated a 52 per cent vote for Sensenbrenner and 48 per cent for W. Ralston Westlake.



An important part of the Democratic campaign was distribution of 200,000 copies of a brochure telling of the city's progress under Sensenbrenner and of good things yet to come.

The brochure was printed by the Heer Printing Co., headed by F. J. Heer, Sr., Democratic county chairman. It contained information about Heer as chairman, and Heer said that was the way the "copy people" prepared the brochure.

He said he does not know how much the brochure cost and that up to Monday it had not been paid for.

Meanwhile, Sensenbrenner says that at this time he does not know what he will be doing when the new year rolls around. "I'm too busy fixing up the city," was his comment.

Most people think they are pretty smart, so why not agree with them?

FOUNTAIN YIELDS TREASURE TO 'Y'

PENNY PHILANTHROPY—"Pennies make dollars" was never truer than in the case of those thrown into the "Fountain of Trevi" replica at Great Western Shopping Center this year. Getting ready for winter, workmen retrieved $100 worth from the model of the famous "Three Coins" fountain. Here, Joe Skilken and Frank Benson, vice-presidents of the Great Western Shoppers Mart, Inc., turn the money over to C. C. Hartley, Hilltop YMCA board chairman, for use in the current building fund.

Letters To The Editor

Hospital Enjoys Weekly Donation

Dear Mr. Hartley:

"We at the Columbus State Hospital have appreciated the sympathetic understanding which you have evidenced in relation to the needs of the patients here.

We know that your organization has been of direct assistance in providing a large quantity of Hilltop Records each week, and that both you and Mr. Mansfield and, no doubt, others are active in service organizations which also have been good friends of the hospital. We would like to express specific appreciation for the copies we receive each week, sufficient to send in duplicate to each ward and cottage, and to have additional copies available in activity areas.

"We extend to your associates, as we do to service clubs, churches and other groups, an invitation to visit our hospital just to get acquainted."

Learning To Shoot Is Easy

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

A person with a reasonably healthy body, steady nerves, fairly good eyesight, who will try, can become an excellent marksman with shotgun, rifle or pistol. The fundamentals of shooting are simple. The most important factor is proper coordination of mind, nerve and muscle.

Many beginning shooters try too hard. In doing so, they aggravate nervous tension, which disturbs coordination. Also, some novices are nervous when they first handle firearms and this has the same effect on their nervous systems. Actually, shooting teaches nerve control—as you shoot more and more, the tendency to try too hard will disappear.

In rifle and pistol shooting the "sight picture" is important. In shooting at stationary targets the sight picture is the position or correct alignment of the front and rear sights in relation to the target. You should get your sights aligned and then concentrate your vision on the target. You will see the sights without really looking at them.

Shooting a shotgun at moving targets means that the sight picture will show a "lead". You will aim in front of the target, and the distance of a lead will come with practice.

Triggers should be squeesed and not yanked or jerked. A smooth trigger pull will not disturb the sight picture, but yanking and flinching will cause you to miss a lot of targets. When using a shotgun, a smooth swing, trigger squeese and follow-through are important to good marksmanship.

Single Action Six Helps Shooters

The variety of gas-operated guns now available has made it easy to learn how to shoot. They do not kick and there is no loud report, so that timid beginners learn to handle them quickly. A good example of this is the new .22 caliber Crosman single action six rpvolver. This gun has a precision rifled barrel and will group pellet shots within an inch at 25 feet.

All of the principles of good shooting and safe gun handling must be used when firing these guns. The Crosman single action six was inspired by the sport of fast draw. A growing number of fans are enjoying this safe, indoor fun. But the revolver is really a family gun. It can be used to teach shooting, for plinking at cardboard targets, or for fast draw.

This latest addition to the selection of gas-operated guns has features that increase power and velocity.

The Mound Rams, in their last outing for the '59 season, took it on the chin, 32-6 from Duckworth Plumbing. The latter racked up the upper bracket play-off championship to go with their regular season title of the National Division, Ohio Bearcat Football Association. The winners proved to be a fine smooth running aggregation as they spaced their scoring out over the entire game.

The victors were paced by halfback Hamler with two touchdowns on runs of 30 and 10 yards, and end Johnson who snagged three TD passes—one for about 15 and the other two averaging 25-30 yards in the air and then about 30 more yards worth of run. Half Anderson, principal passer, scored their only successful extra points, via a run. Duckworth led 20-0 at halftime.

The Rams' only score came on a 35-yard jaunt around right end by halfback Tom Ohde in the third period. Ram blocking proved a bugaboo in their offense all afternoon.

The Rams in their first season thus finished third in the national Division in regular season play and runner-up in the play-offs.

IN OHIO VALLEY FOOTBALL warring last Sunday, the Valley-view Bears dumped the Jokers, 24-0, while the league-leading Oklahomans nipped the West Side Merchants, 6-0. That play completed the first round of loop warfare with Oklahoma on top with a perfect 3-0 record, followed in order by the Merchants 2-1, the Bears 1-2 and the Jokers 0-3. Next Sunday finds the Jokers facing the Merchants at Sunshine Park and the Bears vs. the Oklahomans at South Franklin's field.

In last Sunday's action, Bill Quinn with twp TDs and Stin Barrley with one were outstanding for the Bears. Fullback Quinn swept right end twice for 40 and 20 yards for his markers, while end Barrley caught a 15-yard aerial and then sprinted the final 22 to paydirt. Quarterback Mike Hixson, who called a fine game, was on the throwing end. Quinn and half Bob Brown each added two points via the PAT.

Oklahoma's lone tally in their squeaker over the Merchants came on a 30-yard spurt over right guard by Bill Powers. Powers, back John Bacus and guard Tom Ray all stood out for the winners. John Potts and Bill Munyan, the Merchants' fullback, and halfback respectively, and John Lind rated most valuable.

West's two entries in the State Cross-Country Meet last Saturday still don't know where they finished, or their exact times, due to one heck of a mix-up at the finish line. Scores of boys finished all at once, with little help (especially since no "paychecks" were issued as they finished) available to keep track of their positions.

Captain Joe Massey did wind up his high school X-country career in a blaze of personal glory, with by far his best time. Official timing was not possible but he did it in slightly over nine minutes. West's Dave Smith finished behind Massey for a change, in the 10:40's.

Eight men will receive X-country letters or other awards, for this season. Massey and Bill Castle got their second awards. The others are Smith, Svens Caune, George Francis, Bill Doughty, Phil Fleming and Manager Bill Johannes.

In their final dual meet last Tuesday they downed North 29-30. Springfield didn't appear. West's men took all three first places, which automatically cinches a dual meet. North then took a 4-5 and West the 6-7 spots. Winning in order for the Cowboys were Smith, Massey and Castle.

WESTGATE HAWKS wound up their 1959 season on a victorious note last Sunday with a perfect 8-0 record. They dumped the Beck Bearcats 22-0 in the finale.

Statistics bore out the Hawks' supremacy—they had 334 yards on the ground and 24 passing for a total offense of 358 and 13 first downs to only one for their opponents. Co-captain Steve Takos had 136 yards in 14 carries. On the line Jerry Claytor shone well on defense and offensive blocking.

Larry Graves opened the scoring with a 10-yard jaunt in the first period and Jim Bradley added the two extra. One TD in each of the last two frames, both by Takos on 7 and 26-yard spurts, and another PAT by Bradley finished the scoring.

It was also Dad's Day for the Hawks and Mrs. George Blackmore, president of the Hawks' Booster Club, acted as mistress of ceremonies. The Boosters really went all out all season and are to be commended, especially for their concession stand that lent atmosphere.

Undefeated and with the American Division Bearcat championship under their helmets the jubilant squad threw "pleading" coach Dennis McDonald into the Westgate Lake. Coach Gary Link escaped by hiding, while coach Karl Fulton "fast-talked" his way out by virtue of his sprained ankle.

The coaches have asked me to pass their expression of thanks on to all those connected with the team in any capacity . . . or just well wishers, for their wonderful support this season.

West-South Muscle Match Set Tuesday At Schiller

West Side youths will pit their muscles against South Siders in an informal weight lifting match at Schiller Recreation Center next Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The teenagers represent Schiller and Sullivant Gardens recreation centers. The two best boys in seven weight categories will be matched. Others interested are also invited.

"Both clubs are relatively new," said Phillip Pertee, Sullivant recreation leader. "We hope these matches will be interest getters. Our boys are pleased with the weekly workouts that Judge Robert Draper holds here on Tuesdays. He's been a great friend."

Gra-Y Grid Loop Finale Up Saturday

The stage has been set for the championship game in the Hilltop YMCA Gra-Y Flag-tag Football League. John Burroughs edged Binns, 26-22, in the showdown game for top honors in the South section and will now meet Highland, champs in the North section. This final game of the season will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday on the "Y" football field, Valleyview-dr.

John Burroughs jumped to a 20-8 lead at halftime and fought off Binns' attempts to forge ahead in the contest. Bill Warrens led the winners with two touchdowns and added an extra point. Other TD's were added by Tony West and Jay Kaiser with West getting the other PAT. Fred Berkemer paced the losers as he scored twice and added an extra point. Dave Bush acounted for the other Binns' points as he tallied one touchdown and an extra point.

In the other South section contest West Mound edged Lindbergh, 28-26, in a real thriller. The game featured the two most outstanding performances in some time as two men accounted for all the scoring. Darnel Thomas, who ended up as the league's scoring leader, tallied all the winner's points while Steve Thompson scored all the points for the losers. The win by West Mound enabled them to end up in a second place tie with Binns.

All three Jr. Hi-Y clubs on the Hilltop participated in the city-wide Jr. Hi-Y Rally last week at the Central YMCA. Featured speaker was Dick Larkins of OSU. Officers leading the Westmoor club are Jim Hughes, president; Roger Essig, vice-president; Mike Uhdricks, secretary; Bob Kight, treasurer; Bill Bassman, chaplain and Skip Sanford, sergeant-at-arms. Advisors for the group are Mr. Dumaree and Mr. Bennington.

Officers heading the Hilltonia club for the coming year are Tim Weisert, president; Larry Cline, vice-president; Bob Eberhard, treasurer; Bob Nash, secretary and Lee Lawrence, chaplain. Advisors are Mr. Ricketts, Mr. Lytle and Mr. Everett.

This is the last year that West will have a Jr. Hi-Y club. After nine consecutive years since the original charter was presented the former West group will be absorbed by the clubs at Hilltonia and Westmoor. Leading the club in its final year are Steve Takos, president; Mike Hobbs, vice-president; Dave Crawford, secretary; Bruce Findlay, treasurer and Larry Graves, chaplain. Carl Stephan is advisor.

Franklin Twp. Incorporation Fuss Ended By High Court

The squall of controversy settled last Wednesday when the Ohio Supreme Court refused to consider a case blocking incorporation of Franklin Township into the village of Franklin Heights.

This ended a five-year-old attempt to incorporate the U-shaped 22.6 square mile tract which would have stymied annexation efforts by Columbus and withheld the tax-rich Westinghouse and General Motors plants.

Approval of the incorporation was made by a 1,138 to 625 vote in a special election in April, 1954. But the Appellate Court held that the trustees abused their discretion when they provided only one voting location for the election at Briggsdale.

The Appellate Court also ruled that the map filed with the petition asking incorporation was inaccurate and the shape of the proposed village would, if necessity, make the providing of the usual public services both difficult and expensive.

Attorney Thomas Applegate had carried the case to the Supreme Court in 1957 which reversed an earlier finding by a lower court and sent the case back for a new hearing.

This time the high court refused to review a decision of lower courts in Franklin County which enjoined the incorporation.

FINAL HALF-TIME SHOW — Marching Band and Majorettes presented their final show of the football season during half-time ceremonies Friday. Photo by Stegmiller

Central High's Marching Band, Majorettes Honored At Last Performance Of Season

By Leslie Shelhart

Friday's performance was the last of the football season for Central High School Marching Band and Majorettes. Following the second quarter of the Linden vs. Central game, the group did a special routine for its final half-time show this year.

Majorettes did a take-off on the television show, Zoro, dressed in black capes and the band formed the Central "C" formation.

As the graduating band members were introduced, they formed a small "C" inside the larger one.

Graduating members are Gaille Brewer, Kay Brown, Karen Campbell, Donna Farmer, Nell Fulton, Joe Gahn, Dave Hildreth, Carl Hott, Marilyn Howells, Larry Landenberger, Pat Lemon, Emmett McCartney, Sue Miller, Mary Peck, Mary Persinger, Roberta Pierson, John Stark, Jim Wilson, Virginia Hill, Phil Henry, Brad Wilson, Clinton Hearns and Wayne Starner.

They also make their costumes for the spring and winter concerts.

Band members in red and black uniforms, and majorettes in gold and red, will perform in the coming Fall Concert.

This year, something new has been added: white, tan or navy poplin jackets are being sold for $5.95.

Advisors, Mrs. Marilyn Shie and Mrs. Joan Belle, and publicity chairmen, Betty Baker and Pat Gilliland, will be making signs and extra publicity advertisements.

Installation ceremonies at local Masonic lodges and elsewhere affecting local men made news this week.

Ralph Exman, 2433 Westwood-dr, was elected master of Luther B. Turner Lodge and on Nov. 12 Theodore C. (Ted) Levering, 2744 Zollinger-rd, was installed as master of West Gate Lodge 623. Both groups are headquartered at 2885 W. Broad-st.

Two Hilltoppers became masters of units which meet at the downtown temple. They are Roy A. Kistner, 328 Demorest-rd, heading David N. Kinsman Lodge, and John C. Woodworth, 853 Josephine-av, leading Goodale Lodge 372.

Funeral service was to be held Wednesday, 10 a.m. at Jerry Spears Funeral home with burial at Union Cemetery.

Earlier Deadlines Set Next Week

Thanksgiving means many things to many people and for Hartley Newspapers — it means an earlier date of publication.

Correspondents are requested to have their copy into the office by no later than 9 a.m. Monday morning. Front page items must be in by 11 a.m. Monday.

Classified ad deadline will be 10 a.m. Monday and display ads must be in by 9 a.m. The above instructions apply to all publications but the Eastern Review.

The Green Sheet deadline is Tuesday noon for classified ads and Monday noon for display ads. Church and society items for all newspapers must be in by noon Saturday rather than Monday morning.

Correspondents will be given a week's vacation to enjoy the holiday and are to report only notices of meetings, clubs and other pertinent material. Personal items will be left out.

Ternstedt Lines Again Producing

Automobile hardware is again leaving the production lines at Ternstedt Division following a six-week shutdown because of the steel strike.

Some 2900 hourly workers were back on the job Tuesday, company officials announced. A few employes were recalled as early as Nov. 13 and 16 to prepare the plant for resumption of work.

The local General Motors plant was the company's first installation to be halted by the shortage of steel. It was also the only industry in the city that closed down.

Workers met last Sunday afternoon at UAW hall, 3761 Harding-dr for a back-to-work discussion and to go over details of their unemployment compensation.

Forde Johnston Dies At Age 62

Forde Johnston, 62, of 273 S. Sylvan-av, an elder of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, died Monday at Grant Hospital.

Heights Gridder Returns Home

Pat Burr, a tackle on the Franklin Heights football team, was brought home from Mt. Carmel Hospital Monday where he was held for examination after suffering a "serious brain concussion" in Friday night's game against Hillsboro.

A senior at Heights, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Burr, 1721 Brown-rd. The lad also competes on the Bird wrestling team and is active in Scouting.

His father stated Tuesday that it has not yet been determined what injuries had been incurred by the boy. He said that more tests are scheduled for Monday. The athlete has been advised not to return to school until he feels he is ready.

TEENS IGNORE TABOO

No Ban On 'Cranberry Ball!'

"We're definitely going to have a 'Cranberry Ball!'"

That's the word from the teenage set at Glenwood Recreation Center who said their traditional Thanksgiving dance is not going to be affected by the bad publicity cranberries are getting across the nation.

All high school students in the community are invited to the 8 to 11 p.m. dance at the center Wednesday, Nov. 25. Admission is free.

Howard Mauger's Orchestra will play, courtesy of Local 103 and the Music Performance Trust Fund.

BOARD OF TRADE OFFICERS CHOSEN

Auction, Santa Will Spark Kiwanis Newspaper Sales

Hilltop and West Side Kiwanis Clubs are using some "spinnerinctum" to step up interest in their annual Christmas Newspaper sales this year.

The election-coined word almost fits to a "T", the buzzing committee activity in both clubs this week. Having lost much of their revenue for community projects in the cutback of sales tax stamp redemptions, they are more determined than ever to "sell those papers."

There'll be cigars for the gents and roses for the ladies — even a special table for women bidders. Last year 64 bidders fell under the spell of Auctioneer Clarence Latham and gave a $1566 sendoff to the newspaper sale. Latham will be back again this year. C. C. Hartley, chairman, is assisted by Noble Allen, Sr., Ed Johnston, Moss Williams, Joe Goodwin, C. H. Campbell, Sam Alford, Bill Jones and Robert Miller.

On the following night 350 "adult newsboys" will conduct a door-to-door distribution of the papers, accepting any contribution. The group will meet at 6 p.m. at West High School cafeteria for a feed by the Kiwanikwee and instructions.

Santa Coming Nov. 29

Santa Claus himself will return to the West Side for the third straight year and help West Side Kiwanians publicize their sale, to be held Friday, Dec. 4. On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29 Santa will ride through most of the streets between Broad and Sullivant and Davis and Central.

With each greeting to the kiddies along the way he will toss a handful of candy. Homer Johnson is parade chairman, assisted by Joe Davis, Jr. and Frank Watts.

At 6 p.m. the night of the sale (Dec. 4), 100 Kiwanians and volunteers from other groups will assemble at Gladden Community House for food and assignments. They will sell 5,000 special editions of the West Side News in the following three hours.

In charge of the project are

Fire Ousts 11 Families At 'Manor'

Firefighters worked nearly an hour and half in Tuesday night's sub-freezing weather to bring under control a fire in the residence of Joseph Nutter, 2692 Briggs-rd.

Eleven families in the Westgate Manor apartment house were routed into the chill air by heavy smoke. They were allowed to return about an hour later.

First alarm was sounded at 5:05 p.m. and Fire Chief Orville Geis said the blaze was tapped out at 6:29.

Firemen estimated exterior damage to the two-story, four-family brick row at $3500. Loss of contents was set at $2000.

Cause of the blaze, originating in a clothes closet, was undetermined, said Battalion Chief Orville Geis.

The Red Cross was at the scene to aid the stricken family of six. Nutter, his wife, three children and his mother, Mrs. Freida Nutter, had moved into the apartment only last weekend. They are staying with friends temporarily.

One Fourth Of Lions Clinic Cases Sent From West Area

In anticipation of a complete sell-out of light bulbs in its current "Light For Sight" sale on the Hilltop and West Side, the Hilltop Lions Club last week presented $300 to the Lions Eye Clinic at Children's Hospital.

The clinic, operated under the direction of the Franklin County Sight Saving Committee of the Downtown Lions Club, accepts case referrals from all Lions Clubs within the Columbus metropolitan area.

Weaver said that the gift was a gesture of confidence that all lightbulb sacks now in the hands of members will be sold by tomorrow evening.

Before midnight Thursday all local Lion members must turn in to team captains the money they have collected from the sale of 22 sacks of bulbs assigned to each member. It is possible, Weaver

FOOTBALL CONTEST ENDING

Hey! Poorest Guesser Can Win Prize

Wait one minute before switching your thoughts to [illegible]

Take advantage of your season-long football lessons to enter the final Hartley Newspaper Football Guessing Contest.

And chances are better than ever that you might win one of the prizes being offered. In addition to the usual awards for the winners, a bonus is included in this week's contest.

It goes to the person who guesses the most games—wrong.

That's to compensate for the many frustrated entrants who each week have seen their carefully-picked winners list riddled by upsets and losses.

Another special feature is that there will only be 21 games in the contest making it easier for contestants to select their winners without taking chances on teams they know nothing about.

Prizes which will be awarded are a lady's or man's watch band from Fritch Jewelers (value to $12.98), five dollars worth of dry cleaning from Westgate Carraige Cleaners and five dollars in merchandise from Westgate Manor Drugs. The "lose-ingest" contestant will be awarded a Revereware 1½-pint double boiler from Gearhart Hardware.

A rash of upsets, plus several ties in key games, made this week's winners among the poorest guessers of the season. They were:

Elmer E. Haslop, 186 S. Warren-av; Julius H. Carter, 116 S. Clarendon-av; and Rose Ferguson, 3048 Crescent-dr.

They will be awarded, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, a turkey from Bill White Motors and $2.50 in merchandise from the Owl Market.

FOYAL Plans Theatre Party

Federation of Young Adult Lutherans will hold a theatre party Sunday, Nov. 22, to see "The Big Fisherman" at Hunt's Cinco Stage.

Matinee at 2 p.m. will be followed by a buffet dinner and discussion of the movie at Clinton Heights Lutheran Church.

Local Railroaders Tabbed For 'Good Neighbor Titles

Five Columbus railroaders will be honored Wednesday, Dec. 9, as outstanding "good neighbors" by the Railroad Community of the Columbus area.

To be honored are John G. Davis, 243 Harris-av, cashier for the Norfolk and Western Railway; Mrs. Edna A. Bishop, 491 N. Warren-av, yard clerk for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; M. L. Harmon, 205 E. Beechwold-blvd, signal maintainer for the Pennsylvania Railroad; H. J. Hammers, 2182 Dresden-st, gang forman for the Pennsylvania; John L. Biete, 624 Wedgewood-dr, clerk for the Norfolk and Western.

The winners were picked on the basis of their participation in civic, youth, church, club and business activities, with particular emphasis on their leadership qualifications.

Judging the candidates were Harold E. Eibling, superintendent, Columbus Public Schools; Charles Y. Lazarus, president, F. and R. Lazarus Co.; G. Weir Hartman, executive secretary, Columbus Area Council of Churches, and Henry Flaharty, president, Columbus Coated Fabrics Corp.

Final Phase Of 'Y' Drive Is Underway

Approval to launch the final phase of the Columbus Area YMCA-YWCA Joint Development Fund drive was received today by that organization from the city's Board of Charitable Solicitations under the chairmanship of Judge Dana F. Reynolds.

According to the board's authorization, the drive can continue until June 1, 1960.

In a concurrent announcement today, Richard C. Ninde, general chairman of the drive, said that the half-way mark in the goal of $2,520,000 has been reached. He stated the need for "Y" facilities for the youth of Columbus was never greater. "Only by reaching our goal can these needed recreational and educational facilities be made available," the chairman emphasized.

Under the joint program, the money contributed will be used to build a new YWCA Residence Hall, a Hilltop YMCA—on which work has begun, a South Side branch, a Spring-st branch and for modernization of existing buildings.

Razing of the present YWCA Residence Hall which was built 56 years ago, is planned for early next year.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Ex-Hilliard School Head Writes Home

We have appreciated thorough coverage you have been giving the Hilliard area in the Rural-Urban News. It is our source of information on news and developments.

We continue to enjoy good health in our work and community at Vero Beach. I am in charge of an eight-room elementary school, which is really a nice setup. Fishing is always good here. Saturday, I caught a 10 pound sea bass on light spin tackle.

Sincerely,
M. D. Hartsook,

Duffey Warns Against City 'Strangulation'

Says 'Another Cleveland' Possible If Water, Sewer Extensions Are Provided To Outsiders

The freeze on the extension of water and sewer lines beyond the city limits should be maintained.

This point was emphasized in the address on "Strangulation vs. Annexation and Freezes" delivered Nov. 18 at the meeting of the Hilltop Business Association by John J. Duffey, a member of the City Planning Commission and professor at Ohio State University.

The bulk of his address follows:

"As the intensity of fringe development grows, township and county governments cannot provide the services and control desired, and portions of the fringe incorporate on their own. Thus we begin to refer to the major city as the "central" city.

"The central city has no choice but to provide facilities large enough to take care of its suburban neighbors who drive the streets, use the water, fill sewers, receive police and fire protection while working and then return to their suburban bedroom and patio. Income, highway user and similar taxes take a stab at this inequity, but a woefully inadequate stab.

"The city tax base tends to deteriorate. But the things causing the drop prevent the city from broadening its tax base: There is no room for a new industry and development, frequently not even to expand existing business.

"Yet when the city wishes to expand, to get space, it finds its hands tied by a ring of autonomous municipalities and its feet tied by liberal incorporation laws and rigid annexation laws.

Cleveland Is 'Lesson'

"Now consider Columbus and Franklin County. Its growth as a metropolitan area is considerably later than most. In 1954 the immigration from the outside had reached flood levels, and the suburban shift was a steady stream. But Columbus still had large tracts of undeveloped, unincorporated areas surrounding it. Before the eyes of those who chose to look, were the Clevelands and other cities without a single inch of unincorporated land on their border—a mapmaker's delight of municipal bubbles three and four deep.

"Secondly, the suburbanite doesn't want to be "down on the farm." He wants at most the illusion of rural life, and most simply wants larger yards, quieter streets—to get away from the congestion. And they want these advantages together with all the protection and conveniences of muhicipal government; schools, zoning, police and fire, parks and recreation areas, etc.

Question Health Laws

"But all these municipal services and facilities cost money—it requires a substantial tax base, and an adequate tax base requires a sufficient density of development and a balance in the type of development. Septic tanks and water wells cannot support heavy urbanized development, especially in Franklin County. Here, under health requirements, the minimum size for lot without public sewer or water is 20,000 sq. ft. and there are strong indications a re-evaluation of city health standards is needed. Our ground waters are of limited value for industrial use.

"For Columbus to supply water and sewer services to its fringe areas would have been, and still would be, utter suicide. Recent annexations show the impact of public facilities on urban development and it is almost beyond belief. In the North-East between Oakland Park and Morse Road, hundreds upon hundreds of homes have sprung up in just one year. Look at the East and South and West Sides. Contrary-wise, the effect of their lack is graphically apparent in Mifflin Township. If the Mifflin area were to obtain sewer and water, I guarantee it would be fully subdivided and under development in two years, and incorporated in three.

Stiffer Controls Urgent

"Now consider the other problem—the metropolitan problem. If any axiom applies to present day metropolitan areas, it is that they must either progress to better the standards, or sink lower and lower. It cannot stabilize itself anymore than the central city can stabilize itself. It will grow because social and economic pressures of national scope will force it to grow.

"That growth can be controlled to provide living standards better than we now have. If we do not control that growth, we shall inevitably create urban monstrosities infinitely greater than those we inherited from our father and grandfather,—one that will require redevelopment and reconstruction on a scale many times greater than today's programs.

"To avoid it we need new industry to provide employment and a tax base. We need area-wide land-use control; an area-wide street program — not just expressways, but interior arteries, thoroughfares and secondary streets; area-wide sewer, water, fire, police and other services.

"What do we have? In the immediate area, we have 26 legal persons called municipalities, each developing in accordance with their local aspirations; a group of half-persons called townships, each developing in accordance with various subdividers' wishes; and one archaic, tottering, ineffectual old politician called county government.

"All the people in Hilliard, Arlington, North Columbus and North East Franklin County have just two east-west thoroughfares for their normal local traffic movement—Rt. 161 and Fifth Avenue. Regional Planning has recommended the linking of Fishinger and North Broadway to provide badly needed relief. Columbus programmed $2 million. Arlington with less than three-quarters of a mile to pave, refused. The saddest spectacle is a former governor who publicly has grossly distorted the purpose of that link and loudly proclaimed his intention of fighting any street in his back yard.

Majority Rule Required

"You cannot base a long-range, complex, expensive business venture on a hope that forty-some people will cooperate. You cannot operate under a requirement for unanimous consent for each step forward. That is even more obvious when you must deal with more than 40 governments, each with a veto power, and when the needed programs are going to require sacrifice by each of them.

"You must have a legal device which, while protecting minorities also provides for the fundamental right of majority rule. That is the purpose of the private corporation and the municipal corporation. But as somewhat of an expert in the field, I state categorically that there does not exist, nor has there been proposed, any legally and politically feasible means to effectuate majority rule in metropolitan Franklin County.

"The Columbus annexation program offers no solution to the metropolitan problem. But an aggressive, planned program can alleviate much of the worst effect of uncontrolled metropolitan growth, and it is the best existing means of doing so.

'Policy Should Rule'

"There are three points then, or three opinions, I want to express:

"1. Columbus sewer and water lines cannot be constructed merely with a view to hydraulic principles and efficiency of service. They are an important tool of public policy. The decision to build, or not to build, any particular line must take into account those policy needs.

"2. The sewer and water freeze, and the annexation program are vital to Columbus' welfare. They are basic weapons of self-defense, and more than that, they will enure to the long-range benefit of all the people in the metropolitan area.

"3. The creation of a county-wide sewer and water district or a metropolitan federated government for that purpose, would in the long run be economic suicide for Columbus and give tremendous impetus to the growth in Franklin County of the same desperate situation that now exists in Cuyahoga County and similar areas around the nation."

Goodwill Industries' Open House Set On Anniversary Date, Nov. 19

Goodwill Industries will celebrate its 20th anniversary in Columbus by holding open house at the plant, 1231 Edgehill-rd, Thursday, Nov. 19, 2 to 9 p.m.

Goodwill Industries is the largest single private rehabilitation enterprise providing employment, training and rehabilitation to handicapped people in the world.

Goodwill started operation in Columbus Nov. 20, 1939 in the old Mt. Vernon Avenue Methodist Church with seven handicapped employes.

By 1942, it had outgrown the Mt. Vernon Avenue plant and moved into larger quarters on N. Sixth-st, and on Nov. 1, 1954, started operation in the present modern plant.

There are now more than 300 persons employed in Goodwill Industries work shops. Their handwork is sold in four retail outlet stores in Columbus and in branches in Newark, Chillicothe and Marion.

Visitors at the open house will have an opportunity to see Goodwill Industries in operation. Handicapped people will be seen repairing and refinishing furniture, laundering, dry cleaning and pressing clothes, repairing pop cases and worn out shoes.

Meals are prepared for all employes in the modern kitchen and a spacious all-purpose room serves as recreation room, dining room and chapel.

All residents of Central Ohio are invited. Refreshments will be served by the Woman's Auxiliary and the Edgehill League.

Meal On Wheels Sets Dinner Date

Meals On Wheels will hold its third annual benefit dinner at Hilliard Restaurant, 2143 E. Main-st, Monday, Dec. 7, 4 to 9:30 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit Columbus aged and handicapped.

Carry-out dinners will be available during the same hours, and there will be free delivery by taxi for six or more dinners ordered from one address.

Mrs. C. G. Jackson is president and founder of the organization, and Mrs. Kenneth Jefferis is Meals On Wheels Auxiliary president.

Three From Area Aid With Chorus Program

Doug Goode, Ralph Paul, John Sunderlin, and Ed Young, resident of this area, are playing a prominent part in the success of this year's concert by the Male Chorus of Battelle Memorial Institute.

The chorus, 30 members, is putting touches on a new repertoire for this, the 12th Annual Edition of Tamasha, scheduled for 8 p.m., Nov. 20, in the Battelle Auditorium. The program will vary from sea chanteys to light classics.

Personal debt on such things as home mortgages, autos and appliances has increased 160 per cent since 1950, according to Ohio State University Extension economists.

LET'S FIND OUT FOR OURSELVES

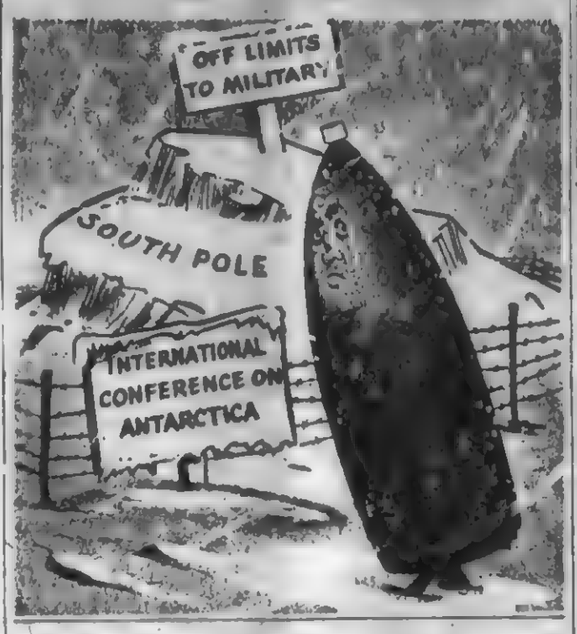
A lot has been said over the past few months about Ohio's mental hospitals.

Governor DiaSile's whirlwnid trip around the state peeking behind doors and into kitchens and dormatories has Caused considerable reaction. Public interest in the situation cannot be doubted.

Is there really a need for attention and help from citizens? This is one question still unanswered in the minds of many. Those who are really interested can find out for themselves.

Nothing can answer this question as conclusively as a visit to the Columbus State Hospital. There you can "feel" the institution's nature, its services, its patients and their needs.

It is possible for individuals and groups, whether their concern stems from a general awakening interest as a citizen or from a want to know how they can help, to visit the institution.



All you have to do is contact the Volunteer Office, Columbus State Hospital, 1960 W. Broad-st, and make arrangements for your visit.

Visits may be arranged for morning, afternoon or evening. An hour and a half of your time will give you an adequate initial exposure with necessary background information and opportunity to visit wards, service areas and activity areas of the hospital.

If you are really interested in finding out about the state of Ohio's mental hospitals, you will make this short visit.

When you want to do something for the good of somebody else you need not wait on any committee to meet, debate, disagree and postpone action.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

PLAN THANKSGIVING DINNER NOW

More turkeys are on the market this year. The 82 million turkeys raised in 1959 are five per cent more than last year's crop. Most of the increase is in the smaller family-sized birds. These are available at last year's price level or maybe even a little lower. You will be able to buy turkey in many forms—ready to cook, whole or in parts, fresh and frozen, and some of the frozen turkeys are stuffed. Do not purchase these frozen stuffed turkeys too far in advance unless you have a freezer that will hold them at a constant temperature of zero or below until roasting time.

How to Select—Most desirable are clean dressed plump birds with: 1. Wide straight breasts; 2. Moist, pliable, waxy skins; 3. Thick meated thighs; 4. Fat well distributed under [illegible].

Pork—either fresh or cured—makes a festive Thanksgiving platter with a minimum of fuss. And economical, too, for the pork supply is expected to remain large during November and into December. Fresh pork is grayish-pink in color, has a fine texture, and is smooth and velvety in appearance. In addition, look for flecks of fat throughout the lean; red porous centered bones; and a firm outside layer of fat. Tenderness is usually not a problem with pork, since the hog is slaughtered when about six months old.

"TO WITHS"

Heading the list of trimmings might be some of Ohio's greenhouse vegetables now in peak supply. Greenhouse tomatoes will add an element touch to the meat platter, the salad, or the relish tray. For greenery consider greenhouse lettuce—leaf or Bibb, and watercress.

Sweet potatoes may add just the needed flavor for the special occasion. These potatoes, both cured and fresh, are in ample supply at favorable prices. You may want to include creamed or stuffed onions, since dry onions are now available at give-away prices.

Apples for pie, sauce, salad or snacks, are in large supply. Nothing will whet your family's appetite for this holiday meal more than the aroma of apples cooking in your kitchen.

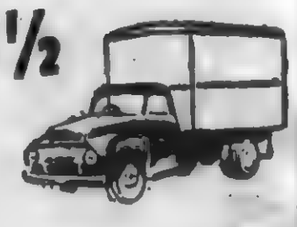
Papers Helped Drive To Success

We are most appreciative of the ongoing interpretation of United Appeal and member agencies given by the Hartley Newspaper editions throughout the year.

Your efforts certainly helped immensely in creating the type of impact that was needed to put the campaign across in successful fashion. The overwhelming victory scored in the residential campaign is concrete proof of what you helped UA accomplish.



My thanks to you are shared by everyone involved with the 63 agencies and the entire campaign organization.

BIBLE COMMENT

Silver Won't Satisfy Wish For Itself

The word "career" has become one of the most important in our language.

What does a career mean to the student, young businessman or businesswoman; to the writer, artist, teacher or doctor?

More often than not it has come to imply getting rich, securing prestige and property.

Many of the young adults in high schools and universities calculate their life's aim in terms of an amount of money per year. Achievement is measured often in respect to what they can persuade someone they are worth—not in respect to what they can offer to people around them.

The tragic reality to this state of mind is that it leads down a street with no end. True satisfaction can never be delivered in the form of a salary or sales commission.

"He that loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loves abundance, with increase: this is also vanity." (Ecclesiastes, 5:10).

Recognising these traits for what they are—vanity—we can understand that their satisfaction is no deeper than a rain puddle. It can catch the rays of the sun and the blue of the sky, yet its base is mud. Tomorrow it will be gone!

THE GREEK GOD WAS FED BY NATURAL GAS

ON MAKING IMPORTANT DECISIONS, GREEK LEADERS OFTEN CONSULTED THE ORACLE AT DELPHI—A PRIESTESS WHO "SECRETLY COMMUNED" WITH ZEUS, MIGHTIEST OF THE GODS. THE MYSTERY AND INTRIGUE OF THIS CEREMONY WERE HEIGHTENED BY AN EVER-BURNING FIRE—SUPPLIED BY NATURAL GAS.

TODAY, GAS IS NOT A MYSTERY BUT AN IMPORTANT ASSET TO EVERYONE WHO WORKS IN THIS AREA. ITS USE IN THE PRODUCTION OF PLASTICS, SYNTHETIC FIBRES, DETERGENTS AND MANY OTHER NEW PRODUCTS HAS HELPED CREATE JOBS FOR TENS OF THOUSANDS. Charity Newsie Editions Will Be Hawked Dec. 12

Many men of this community will be among those participating in the 53rd annual drive of Charity Newsies, called the "100 percent for charity" organization. LeRoy Weigand, 55 Haldy-av, is president and William F. Krause, 125 N. Terrace-av, first vice president.

They will join scores of other Columbus and Franklin county men in selling the annual special "open your heart" edition of the Charity Newsies newspaper on Saturday, Dec. 12.

Last year's sale resulted in 6172 children of 2610 families being clothed by the Newsies. In addition, other emergency calls from families in need due to sickness, death, fire or other calamities were answered. Every call received by the uniquely Columbus charity organization is answered.

Administrative costs are borne by members' dues and sporting and social events sponsored earlier in the year.

Newsies started Nov. 16 taking applications from needy families for clothing at their headquarters, 716 S. High-st. All applicants are investigated by Newsie members to make certain a need exists and to avoid duplicated aid. All clothing given by the Newsie is new.

Other Hilltop area men who will participate in the Dec. 12 sale are:

Warren N. Boyd, 15 Rodgers-av; John A. Brown, 93 Powhatan-av; William J. Cotter, 760 S. Sylvan-av; Richard Falter, 238 N. Warren-av; Don Farrow, 491 W. McClintock, 200 Whitehorne-av; Dick Rodenfels, 555 W. Broad-st; Rodney Thomas, 249 N. Harris-av; Ted Vollman, 75 Whitehorne-av; Charles Weigand, 2023 Crescent-dr, and Richard M. Young, 150 N. Roys-av.

The Pulse Of The City

By Bill Terry

Is the day of the "hard sell" in political campaigns on the wane, at least in Columbus?

That's the impression Time Magazine correspondents got after analyzing the defeat of Democratic Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner by Republican W. Ralston Westlake.

Usually the man in office has the edge on his opponent, and Sensenbrenner has been in office for six years.

Time characterized Sensenbrenner as "cocky, voluble" and as campaigning "in the typical give-'em-hell, revivalistic style that he calls 'spinnerinctum'."

By contrast, Westlake, labeled by Time as "lackluster," conducted a colorless "nice guy" campaign for better city government. Westlake won by more than 3,000 votes.

Time quoted a typical spinnerinctum of Sensenbrenner as "When you come to the end of the road, what you and I want to hear is the Great Scoutmaster reaching down the hand of comradeship and saying 'Come on up higher. You did a swell job down there on earth . . .'."

Sensenbrenner was confident the progress Columbus made in capital improvements since he has been in office would win him another term. The Sandusky Expressway was opened to traffic just before the election, even though it is not entirely finished. From a dollars and cents standpoint, expressways probably represent the largest Sensenbrenner administration achievement.

Sensenbrenner, an old-time salesman, based his campaign on "selling" the voters on past achievements and the fact "the best is yet to come."

Westlake couldn't point to a past record as the head of a city government, so he had no tangible product to sell. But he had an intangible service to offer which he called "better city government."

The Sandusky Expressway won't be finished until some time next year, although it is open to traffic. Because work is still underway you will find trucks of workmen parked along the expressway — a driving hazard.

All of the ramps will be in operation within the next few weeks, the city promises. But it will be next year before the seeding and sodding will be undertaken.

Most of the light standards are up. The city has yet to install wires in conduits and put in bulbs before the expressway can be lighted up for motorists.

Some drivers find it confusing to drive on the [illegible] but city officials say that always happens when they change their driving patterns. If more directional signs are needed, they say, they will be installed.

Ohio State University Extension economists point out that since 1950 total farm output has increased about 25 percent. In that time population has increased about 18 percent.

West Has Scoreless Game; Central Wins Final Try

Well, the West High football season of 1959 is a thing of the past. The Cowboys closed out last Friday evening at Linden McKinley where they might as well have not bothered to play . . . or so the score would seem to indicate. The final result found the Panthers, last year's City League champs, and the Cowboys fighting to a 0-0 standoff.

The entire game might be summed up as half "I don't want the ball, you can have it . . ." and the other half as "drop the red hanky" . . . or "who done it now?"

First reference is to the fact that both squads seemed to go nowhere offensively, but both kept busy giving the other the ball via fumbles, interceptions and gambles that failed as both went all out in the latter category trying to bring home the "bacon."

Especially notable were the penalties called, especially in the second half.

Official statistics will never show the full yardage because penalty after penalty was declined for one reason or another. However for awhile in the second half it looked like red flag day on the field—sometimes on 2-3-4 consecutive plays. Linden finished the evening losing 50 yards via penalties, while West lost only 20.

One penalty that was called (and very correctly no matter whom against) is a rare one. It was offensive interference called on the intended pass receiver for Linden who (probably quite accidentally) tripped Bob Saint as they were both going for the pass.

On the "I don't want it, you can have it" theme, the Cowboys fared much better than Linden, perhaps enough to keep Linden's scoring nil. West intercepted four enemy passes (two by Bill Biggers and one each by Jim Thornton and Gary Alwood), while Linden was picking off three West aerials, two thrown by Bill Kern and one by

West fumbled five times and lost it twice, while the Panthers fumbled the ball six times and lost it three of those occasions. (West recoveries were made by Jim Horn and Dave Duerler.)

Otherwise the statistics favored Linden. The Panthers racked up 23 first downs to West's 19, had the ball for 67 plays to West's 51, got 138 yards through the air and 96 on the ground for a total of 234, as compared to West's 28-69-97 figures.

The Biggers carried the most times, the only good evening was had by Jerry Rummel, who had 52 yards in 13 carries for a 4.0 average.

Fourteen seniors played their last game for West last Friday. One, John Peterson, did not see action because of a bad knee injury sustained the week before. Peterson, not a starter at the beginning of the season, was switched to offensive end after the season was under way and seamed to "find" himself there for the rest of the year.

Linden fumbled on the West five in the first period and the Cowboys recovered to stop the threat. They came right back to pound on the goal-line door again, but this time an interception stopped them on the six. That was their deepest penetration until the dying moments when they drove to the West 27, only to be thwarted again by an interception. This one, by Alwood, was done by leaping into the middle of a screen pass setup and, when it has stopped bouncing all over the receiver and his blockers, Gary had it.

Linden intercepted a West pass deep in Bronco territory as a short, quick basketball jump pass was deflected, then pilfered by a Panther. Later West returned the favor. Duerler's recovery came after their end had caught the ball (deflected off several pairs of hands), then fumbled when hit. This was deep in West territory. West fumbled it back to set up Alwood's pilfer.

West got to the Linden 27 in the first period, and to both the 14 and the 13 twice in the final two periods. For the first time this year, with a stiff cross wind blowing and at an angle, Saint tried a field goal from the 13. It was true but short. That was their last bid for victory.

Overall the Cowboys, especially the defensive platoon and specifically the line, played a good game. The Panthers made most of their yardage in the air, although it wasn't stupendous, while their ground game was even more contained.

Bob Saint played one of the best defensive games of his career in his first assignment as outside defensive linebacker. However he got somewhat "banged up" himself in the process. At least twice during the game he literally saw stars. He was sent to University Hospital, found to have a mild concussion but no fracture, and was released later in the weekend.

Other outstanding individuals were Hummel on pass defense, Alwood, Bill Pakse, Jim Horn and those already cited. Linden used a deep punt formation frequently for passing purposes—and could their specialist, Lee Poalini, really heave that pigskin! That's all he did, but oh boy!

Meanwhile CENTRAL's PIRATES broke their jinx in the season finale and rolled over Marion Franklin as predicted to the tune of 28-0. Thus they moved out of the City Loop cellar and M-F moved in; the Pirates finished the season 1-8 in league play and 1-8 overall.

Eddie Parks went "hog-wild" in his final performance as he scored all four TD's on runs of 52, 72, 21 and one yards. He scored twice in each the second and third periods.

Basketball slowly crept into the scene as Central traveled to Springfield for a scrimmage game. Holy Family is batting .500 after two games to date.

Hawks Play Kentucky Champs Here Nov. 22

The Westgate Hawks, who just finished a successful season in the Ohio Bearcat Football League, are looking forward to their game with the Yorkshire Rams from Newport, Ky., to decide the two-state championship.

The game will be played at East High's Hanley Field, Sunday, Nov. 22, at 3 p.m. Last year the same two teams knocked heads with Westgate winning 16 to 14.

There will be no charge for the game this year. The public is invited.

Looking back on this season's play, Westgate scored 210 points while holding their opponents to 18. Steve Takos was the big gun for the hawks, scoring 12 TD's and 12 extra points for a total of 84 points.

Following him were Larry Graves and Jim Bradley with 42 and 40 yards respectively. Takos was also high man in yardage gained with 634 while Bradley had 562 and Graves 323.

As a team the Hawks attempted 44 passes, completing 20 for 265 yards. They had 80 first downs and 1,984 yards rushing for 2,249 total net yards, an average of 250 per game.

There are numbers of smart people in the world, but few students.

Police, Community Groups Honoring West Side League

Closing of the first season of the Highly successful West Side Football League will be marked at a dance party from 8 to 10:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 21, at Gladden Community House.

All West Siders are invited to an earlier session (6 to 7:30 p.m.) when sports movies will be shown.

Players, coaches, parents and friends of the league will dance later in the evening to the music of the Columbus Police Department orchestra.

League organizers expressed appreciation to the Hilltop Lions club which gave $25 toward the party; and also to Gladden House, West Side Kiwanis Club and the police department.

West Side League Windups On Tap Sunday At Sunshine

Superiority of teams in the West Side Football League will be determined in contests at Sunshine Park, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 21. Fans of Little League-type football should find the show entertaining.

The popular Buck-Blazer combination will again open the fray. "Last Sunday the Bucks took a six-point lead in the first quarter and held their opponents scoreless the rest of the game. Tom Nash scored on a 25-yard run after intercepting a pass.

In the middleweight division the War Hawks dumped the Little Abners 14 to 6. John Schrader scored 8 points, Bill Barrit, 6. Bill Carrington intercepted a pass. Noted for outstanding play were Bob Nash, Ron Dodson, Jim Korting, John Crews, Jerry Gentile and Mike McFall.

In the heavyweights, George Latimer's Jokers hope to knock the Oklahomans out of first place in a game starting at 2 p.m. The Merchants will meet Rainbow at 3:30.

Last week the Jokers took a 32 to 0 drubbing from the Merchants. Barney Bland ran two TD's. John Lynd made two extras, and Bill Weaver accounted for 8. John Schrader ran 65 yards in two trips over the goal line. Pat Munyan also made two TD's and 4 extra points in 75 yards. Chuck Richmond backed up Potts with 2 extras.

Jokers' star players were Joe Boyle, Chuck Durbin, Frank Mitchel and Rob Timberlane (a new quarterback).

Giants Hold First Place At Glenwood

Jerry Francis scored three times on runs of 20, 4, and 2 yards to lead the Giants to a 20-14 win over the Rams this week at Glenwood Center. Rams scoring came on a 10-yard end sweep by Bob Weisenberger and a 40-yard burst off tackle run by Ed Smith.

The passing arm of Pete Krull proved to be too much for the Colts as the latter were downed 22-12. Krull pitched one to John Postle and one to Richard Moore. The Browns' other touchdown was set up by a 40-yard run by Willie Smith. Moore then went over for six points.

Behind the hard running of Richard Moore the Browns blasted the Rams 22-14. Highlight of the game was a pass from Moore to Howard Lewis. Moore was trapped in his own end zone when he fired a short pass to Lewis who in turn ran 80 yards for a score.

Hunters Welcome Another Season Of Sport

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Upland game hunting season opened with a bang, as usual. Pheasant hunting was a shade better than last year in this area, according to the first day hunters I contacted. A few who hunted in northwestern Ohio found the birds spottier than usual, and the total flushed and bagged was not as great as in 1958.

Rabbit hunters here found good sport the first day. Most hunters contacted said it was on a par, or maybe a mite better, with opening day rabbit hunting during recent years.

Bobwhite Ban Broken

Monday was the first day bobwhite quail could be legally hunted since 1913. During this time a lot of prejudice and overly sympathetic feelings have been built up around this fine game bird. Actually, some of the best quail range in the country lies in Ohio, and having no open season on quail is just as ridiculous as having year-round protection for pheasants, rabbits and largemouth bass. Sportsmen cannot push a species to extinction, even if they tried, if the proper habitat and environment are available.

PRACTICE SHOTS—When the hunting season opened Monday this trio was in keen condition, having polished up their pheasant killing skills on Ramblin' Acres' shooting preserve, Opossum Run-rd. Manager Gene Harbage, left, poses with a good dog and Alan Rowe, Columbus postmaster.

Ohio quail hunters have nothing to compare their sport with, but Division of Wildlife biologists reported recently that bobwhite populations were about the same as last year. This means there are plenty of quail around, for if one fact sticks out about last year's hunting season it's the fact that almost every hunter I talked to said he saw plenty of quail. Bobwhite hunting is permitted only on state-owned or controlled lands, and on commercial shooting preserves. Quail season closes Dec. 9, and the bag limit is six per day.

Soil Bank Farms Favored

This makes two years in a row when pheasant hunting has been good in central and west-central Ohio. Some hunters I know are finding bird concentrations on soil bank farms—those farms that have land under agreement with the U.S. Department of Agriculture that is not be farmed. These overgrown hay and weed fields are providing some excellent bird shooting. The densely-covered fields make it rough on rabbit hunters who do not have dogs.

It is hard to tell if the soil bank has increased game on large territories, but it is certain that it has helped many local conditions.

Hay Crop Affects Northwest

Officials of the Division of Wildlife point to the dry spring and the early harvest of alfalfa in northwestern Ohio, when asked about the pheasant decline there. If you have never seen the alfalfa operation there, it's difficult to believe. It is nothing like an ordinary hay harvest.

Alfalfa is cut there by mills that work around the clock. The crop is ground as it is cut, and hauled by truck to drying plants where it is made into alfalfa meal. This fast-moving machinery working at night gives young pheasant brood no chance to survive. When the harvest is early, as it was this year, the toll of game is even greater.

Rabbits Crowded by Farming

The rabbit situation in Ohio is also very interesting. Were it not for intense farming methods, the best rabbit hunting would be in the rich, flat agricultural lands from here westward. But farm practices today do not encourage rabbits.

The best hunting as a rule is found in the rolling and hilly land where every nook and cranny is not farmed, where there are some briar patches and brush piles. This land is not as fertile and not as potentially productive of cottontails as the flat land, but because of land use it gives us our best rabbit hunting.

With the flurry and excitement of the opening day out of the way we can now settle down to some good hunting. Seasons are getting longer and a lot of hunters appreciate this added opportunity. Pheasant season extends to Dec. 9, and rabbits are fair game until Jan. 4, 1960.

Correction, Please!

Due to an incomplete report given us about the husband-wife archery teams hunting deer in Michigan, we said recently that Clyde Thomas and his wife Elaine, 1049 Jackson-pk. came home without a deer. This was not the case, and our story caused Thomas a lot of kidding, especially from the people who saw his deer. Right now the Thomases are enjoying their venison, and we hope the record is straight.

Like Rex Harrison?

At a legal hearing in Walthamstow, England, a lawyer, Lord Stormont, was asked if his name were a title or a Christian name. He replied, "It is a title. Not like Duke Ellington."

Team Wins Last Game; 27 Will Receive Letters

By Leslie Shelhart

The Pirates put all they had into winning the game and held Marion, 26-0.

High man for Central was Senior Eddie Parks, who made four touchdowns. The two extra points were made by Claude Thompson, Jr.

Altogether, the season wasn't so bad. Pirate fans believe it was a training year which will probably lead to a very good team in the 1960 season.

But, on the whole, the 32-man team averaged only 150 pounds with a heighth of 5'9".

At the next assembly 27 boys will receive letters. A letterman must play half of all the season's quarters.

Anthony Porter Dies

Services for Anthony V. Porter, 92, 500 N. Warren-av, were held Thursday at Schoedinger Chapel. He died Nov. 16 at his home.

Surviving are his wife, Teresa; two daughters, Mrs. Gene Neylson and Mrs. Vivian Compton; stepdaughters, Mrs. Hilda Calendine, Mrs. Rosemary Wolfe, Mrs. Albertine Bussey; stepsons, Irvin George and Charles Blum; 15 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren.

Burial was at Green Lawn Cemetery.

Catholic Pupils To Be X-Rayed

Free TB chest X-rays will be offered more than 300 students, faculty members and employes of Rosemont (St. Euphrasia) and Holy Family High Schools Friday, Nov. 20, the Tuberculosis Society announced.

In addition, staff members from St. Agnes, St. Mary Magdalene and St. Aloysius will be X-rayed at the above locations.

The TB Society's free X-ray program for more than 3700 in 12 Catholic schools will continue until Thanksgiving Day.

that some Lions sales [illegible] will have to conduct a house-to-house canvass tomorrow evening to comply with the deadline.

Each sack contains two 60, four 75 and two 100-watt Westinghouse standard-socket light bulbs and sells for $2. All profits go into Lions work on behalf of the sightless and persons in the Hilltop and West Side communities suffering from visual defects who otherwise could not enjoy the gift of unimpaired sight.

Fourth of Patients Local

"It is fitting," he declared, "that our first gift out of the profits go to the Lions Eye Clinic because our club furnishes more than one-fourth of the patients on a referral basis to the clinic."

Besides the social service staff of the hospital, which assists in the screening of needy cases, the clinic is completely equipped for major eye surgery and staffed by prominent local eye specialists and surgeons. Local lens grinders and opticians cooperate in making glasses at cost to the participating Lions Clubs.

Some 400 patients are referred to the clinic every month by the Lions Clubs. Many of these receive minor treatment, special prescriptions, or eye exercises. The huge traffic of patients results in the clinic's supplying of some 150 pairs of glasses and some 35 corrective surgical operations each year.

The clinic also supplies glasses and eye care to the indigent at the Bejamin Franklin Tuberculosis Sanitarium.

Kiwanis Newsies Sell Papers Dec. 2

It is that time of year again for the annual visit of your Kiwanis newspaper "boy." Next Wednesday evening he will make the rounds on the Hilltop and then on Friday evening the West Side Kiwanians will canvass their community.

When you buy a Kiwanis newspaper you are helping a very fine program that reaches out all over this community. The work of Kiwanis deals primarily with youngsters in the area but many an adult is also benefited.

Kiwanians will be most grateful if you will have your porch light on and have some cash ready for the purchase of a paper. You may give him any amount . . . but a piece of folding money will do the best kind of a job.

HINT OF CHRISTMAS SEEN HERE THIS WEEK

You don't have to feel it in your bones to know that Christmas will soon be here. City crews putting up dazzling holiday beauty along the streets is proof enough.

But even more positive is the sneak preview of Santa Claus planned in the West Side by the West Side Kiwanis Club, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29. From 1 to 4 p.m. the bewhiskered marvel will ride through all the streets between Broad and Sullivant and Davis and Central. He'll toss candy to all the youngsters he finds and at the same time remind their parents of the Kiwanis Christmas Newspaper sale, Dec. 4.

Christmas lights in the West Side and Hilltop business sections are to be turned on Thanksgiving evening. Hilltoppers will see some new silver festooning this year, some illuminated Christmas trees and fancied-up light poles. Merchants in both areas bought the decorations.

Hilltop's community Christmas tree in front of Glenwood Recreation Center, will be lighted at a 6 p.m. ceremony, Sunday, Dec. 13. School, church and youth groups will sing and city officials will do the honors.

On the committee are Russell Friend, Jr., Chuck Moore, and Rev. Robert Clark, chairman. Groups interested in the project may call Rev. Clark at JE. 4-3728.

Eakin Link To 'Manor' Is Opened

A 430-foot stretch of new pavement linking Eakin-rd with Westgate Manor was opened to traffic at 5 p.m. Monday.

This information was sent to Public Utilities Director Ferd M. Pickens from the city engineers' office Tuesday and gave the green light for plans to open the area to a new bus route.

Pickens said he has asked the City Transit Co. to inspect the freshly completed concrete and see if it is ready for buses.

An extension of the Mound-st line was urgently requested by Mayor-Elect Ralston Westlake just before the election. Builder R. R. Lloyd built the street through his own project, Westgate Terrace, at a reported cost of $9,000.

The proposed bus line will serve several thousand families in the Miriam, Demorest, Rosary, Westgate Terrace additions and the Manor. Georgian Heights is still isolated bus-wise.

JACK SHANK "CRITICAL"

Central Boy Collapses, Dies On School's Athletic Field

Death of a Central High School junior who collapsed Monday on the school athletic field was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage by Dr. Robert Evans, coroner, after an autopsy.

James Stevens, Jr., 16, 956½ W. Broad-st, who was described as "healthy, and never ill," collapsed during a speedball game in physical education class.

A teacher, Frank Howell, used the school's respirator and a fire emergency squad was called. Stevens' pulse was slow and his breathing irregular, Principal L. W. Huber said. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Friends may call at the residence from 7 p.m. Tuesday until 9 p.m. Wednesday, at Southwick Funeral Home, 3100 N. High-st, Thursday, 2 until 9 p.m., and at St. James Church, Oakland Park-av at Calumet-st, from 9 a.m. Friday until time of services at 11:30 a.m.

Dr. Evans said that such hemorrhages are rare in persons of that age. He also added that the boy apparently did not suffer a head injury.

James was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, the YMCA and the Junior-Senior Choir. He was captain and squad leader of the school's speedball team. He was described by his principal as being an A and B student who was seldom absent.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens; brothers, Michael, David and Danny Jo; and sister, Elaine.

Burial will beat Union Cemetery.

Hawks Again Win Two-State Victory

Westgate Hawks of the Ohio Bearcat Football Association came from behind Sunday at Harley Field to capture the Little League Bi-State Championship from the Yorkshire Rams of Newport, Ky. by a score of 22 to 14.

The Hawks, coached by Dennis McDonald, West High All-City quarterback in 1957, and line coaches Karl Fulton and Gary Link, now hold a record of 18 wins without a loss in the team's two years participation in the Bearcat League. Sunday's fray marked the first time that the Hawks had to overtake another team to win a game.

The lead, however was short-lived. In the second period Rams quarterback Fred Kilmer ran 12 yards for a TD. The extra point try failed. With less than a minute left in the first half, left halfback Sherwood Arthur of the Rams took a pitchout from his quarterback and started to run his right end, stopped and threw a pitch out to his left end Wayne Ritcher who scored from 30 yards out.

The third period was scoreless. As the final period opened, Westgate had the ball deep in their own territory. Jim Bradley cracked the line for 35 yards. Steve Takos got 17 on an off-tackle play.

After a 15 yard penalty on Yorkshire, Bob Eberhard scored on a quarterback [illegible] from 6 yards out. The extra point was no good. With a minute and 39 seconds left, Takos fired a 21-yard pass to Graves, Eberhard a 11-yard pass to Takos and finally a 40-yard pass from Takos to Graves. Bill Wells got the extra point to make the final score 22 to 14.

The Hawks rolled up 293 yards and 12 first downs in their big win which was truly a team victory.

West Side Dems To Meet Nov. 25

Ninth Ward Democratic Club will meet Wednesday, Nov. 25 at Gladden Community House, W. Town-st and Hawkes-av.

The annual club Christmas party and other business will be discussed.

The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Catherine Brill.

Gladden Director Stresses Need For West Side Council

"People should get off each others' toes and up on their own" urged Al Wilder, director of Gladden House at an Avondale PTA meeting last [illegible].

With that, Wilder revived an often discussed point—that the West Side needs a community council.

"Service clubs, church, school and merchant groups are doing a good job on their own but lack the necessary coordination," Wilder observed. "We still have fine schools, churches and other services, but some people, especially the older ones are asking "What has happened to our neighborhood pride?"

Wilder is seeing the situation through the eyes of a newcomer, but as one experienced in social work. He arrived here in June after eight years on the staffs of settlements.

"A solid neighborhood approach is necessary if we are to solve such problems as sale of liquor and tobacco to minors, class and racial discrimination, decaying housing, poor health and safety and lax respect for the law," the director declared.

Wilder said recent questionnaires at a Gladden Center "open house" showed 74 per cent were interested in better recreational outlets; 16 to 20 per cent in civic improvement projects and 47 per cent wanted to know more about the health, welfare and educational facilities at their disposal.

"The 'I don't care' attitude must be defeated," Wilder said. "If the West Side is to progress. A neighborhood council is our first means of attack."

It is expected that the "Y" will be ready for occupancy about next July.

The House space committee has announced that it will begin hearings in January to determine why the United States was "lagging" in space exploration. Representative Overton Brooks, chairman, said the committee intended "to probe every facet" of the United States space program. The hearing will extend at least a month, he said.

Handel's 'Messiah' Is Offered

Ohio State University's School of Music, in cooperation with the campus YMCA-YWCA, is presenting Handel's great oratorio, "Messiah" in its 31st annual performance in two concerts at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. during the Sunday, Dec. 6, "White Christmas" program.

The University Chorus, accompanied for the first time by the University Orchestra, and organ, will present solo and choral numbers from the 200 year-old oratorio in the two hour program under the direction of Professor Louis H. Diercks.

More than 500 University singers, orchestra members, and committee members will participate

On the following Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 8 p.m., in Mershon Auditorium, the University Chorus, Symphonic Choir, and Women's Glee Club present a one-hour program of appropriate Christmas music. The second part of the Wednesday program is the annual "Christmas on Campus," coordinated by the Ohio Union Activities and the two "Y" groups. "Christmas on Campus" includes the traditional ceremony in which President Novice G. Fawcett lights the tree.

Marines, Scouts Arranging Dec. 12 'Toys-for-Tots' Drive

Columbus Marine Corps Reserve will again collect toys this Christmas season for distribution to less fortunate children in this area. Columbus Reservists will join other units all over the country in the 12th year of the "Toys for Tots"

The 8,000 Scouts of the Central Ohio Council, Boy Scouts of America, will place door knob hangers on the homes in Franklin County, Saturday, Dec. 5, and will return on Saturday, Dec. 12, to pick up toy donations.

The Marine Corps Reservists will pick up the toys at various collection points and take them to the Buckeye Building at the fairgrounds. During the next week the toys will be sorted and prepared for distribution to various institutions and deserving families, as determined by the Christmas Bureau, United Community Council.

Santa Sends Own Letter To Children

Children in the Columbus area this year will have the opportunity of receiving a personal letter from Santa Claus, postmarked from his home in Santa Claus, Ind., through special arrangements made by the Buckeye Federal Savings and Loan Association, 36 E. Gay-st.

A variety of colorfully illustrated Santa Claus letters complete with a full color envelope showing a picture of Santa Claus is now available free of charge to the public at Buckeye Federal's downtown office and branch offices at the Great Eastern Shoppers' Mart and Great Western Shoppers' Mart.

Persons interested in having their children receive a Santa Claus letter may obtain one at any of the three Buckeye Federal locations, where they simply address the envelope, affix a postage stamp and mail it in the special box in the bank lobby.

These letters are bulk mailed to the town of Santa Claus, Ind., where they are sent to children through the official Santa Claus post office. Letters should be mailed by Dec. 15 to be sure they will be postmarked from Santa Claus, Ind.

The Santa Claus letter will be discussed and shown by Dave Garroway on his "Today" show on Nov. 24, 25 and 30.

She's Thinking Of Home This Thanksgiving—

HELPED BY SEALS — Pumpkin, pie and all the trimmings will taste mighty good to Bessie Lucas and her fellow patients at Benjamin Franklin (TB) Hospital—but the dinner would seem much more delicious at her 2479 Eakin-rd residence. Christmas seals are salvaging precious months of life for nearly 300 Franklin countians sick in the hospital with active tuberculosis or isolated at home for treatment. They also pay for the TB Society's entire prevention and research program. Until her return home is possible, Bessie is passing her time working with oil paintings and glazes for her ceramic figurines.

Discussion Set On Veterans Bill

Capital City Barracks 461, Veterans of World War I, USA and the Auxiliary will meet at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6 at Veterans Memorial, 300 W. Broad-st.

Legislative officer R. M. Hartman reminded veterans that a new non-service disability law becomes effective on July 1, 1960. Veterans must file before that date to come under the present law.

Hartman said the allowances are based on need and are not to be confused with a pension based on service. Veterans are invited to attend the meeting and learn the details.

Expressway's Nice...Except

Ruth Foster, 501 N. Powell-av, is typical of those living in Valleyview and parts north who have had to find a newer more difficult route home.

"We used to come down from the north side and use River-rd to cut over onto McKinley, she said. "Now River-st is barricaded and we must go clear to Broad-st, wait out a light, then thread north again several streets to find McKinley. And usually several big trucks are trying the same thing. It's a big bottle neck—and we hate to hop-scotch it all the way out W. Broad."

He had this explanation:

"That place would require a deceleration lane, and we can't build one because of the bridge. Those cars are now on a limited access highway where speed of 45 and 50 are permitted. It would be a terrible hazard to allow cars to follow the old pattern of traffic now."

WINS AWARD

PRIZE WINNER — A photo of Taryn Lee Hunter, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hunter, 229 S. Wayne-av, won an honorable mention award in a national children's photograph contest. About 700 studios in 200 cities competed. Taryn Lee was also named all-city supreme queen in a contest held in Columbus when she was nine months old.

A TIME FOR THANKS

The cranberry fiasco cast something of a shadow on Thanksgiving festivities this year. But it would not do for any of us, fretting over the prospect that the holiday bird might lack the gustatory accent of cranberry sauce, to forget what this day is all about.

It is a holiday, a heartwarming time graced with traditions of fellowship added from year to year ever since the Pilgrims sat down to their harvest feast in Plymouth colony more than three centuries ago. If it were no more than that, then Thanksgiving would be worth celebrating.

But it is more than that, far more. Thanksgiving is above all a holy day, a day for counting one's blessings. And the problem, for most Americans, is to enumerate those blessings without growing weary of it. The problem is how to let sincere thanks and gratitude shine through the very surfeit of good things that most of us enjoy.

It is a pleasant sort of problem, doubtless yet a very real one. For when people have as much as most Americans have, they tend to forget the divine origin of abundance. This is a time for remembering — and for giving thanks unto God.

Consumer Report

HOLIDAY FOODS CALL FOR DRIED FRUITS

Will have extra folks around for the holiday we ? If so, you'll be looking for "nibbling fo as well as something to add a special glow to holiday menus.

Dried fruits can answer both needs. They go into fruit cake, spicy puddings, breads and salads. Combined with nuts they make nutritious and delicious candies. Sometimes we find them mighty good eating just as they come from the package. No doubt you can recall slipping into the family pantry in years gone by to snitch a handful of raisins or some other dried fruit mother or grandmother had stored there.

PRICES on dried fruits will likely be a little lower this year. Crop reports show that this year's supply is somewhat larger than last year. This is especially true of raisins. And there are more prunes, dried apricots, pears and peaches.

How To Tell Quality—Dried fruits of good quality will be clean and plump, fully colored, and soft enough to yield to pressure. The USDA has set up grades for dried fruits based on size, color, quality and moisture content. Packers may not list these grades on their labels. If not, you may need to do some testing of different brands or depend upon past experience in deciding which brand to buy.

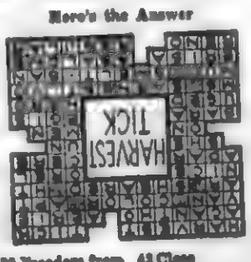
Tips on Using—Dried fruits are actually ripened fruit with about three-fourths of the natural moisture removed. As all experienced cooks know, they take in moisture and swell in cooking. Allow for that in preparing them.

Storage is not usually much of a problem with dried fruits. They should be kept dry. At this time of year, store in a tightly covered container. In warm weather the refrigerator makes an ideal storage place.

NEW CHERRY PRODUCT

Cherry sauce, a new product being introduced in this area, will be available in many stores this weekend. It's a jellied sauce made from red tart cherries and ready to use as it comes from the can. You'll like the bright red color and tangy flavor it can add to your holiday meals. It's delicious with either poultry or pork.

DRIED FRUIT CONFECTIONS



Chop or grind one part each of dates, raisins, nuts, and one-half part of figs. Add chopped candied orange, lemon, or grapefruit peal if desired. Dredge a board with powdered sugar and knead the mixture until well blended. Add a little orange juice if too stiff. Make into balls or other shapes. Roll each piece in sugar and store in the refrigerator. It makes the best of "nibbling foods" for either children or grownups.

MUSTACHE CROWN SOUGHT

SAN DIEGO, Cal.—A tamale maker with an 18-inch mustache says he is out after the tip-to-tip championship of the world.

John A. Todd, 41, said he has heard that a man in England has a mustache measuring 18 inches. He said he expects to exceed that before long.

BIBLE COMMENT

Things Aren't Always Way They Seem

Is it totally within the ability of man to see right from wrong?

If we depend on our own emotions and short range reactions, we cannot.

How things may seem good but be harmful, or harmful and seem good is illustrated in this story of two farmers.

A farmer was complaining to his neighbor that his prize stallion had broken through the fence and run off.

His friend consoled him on his loss. But when he returned the following day he found the farmer smiling, and was told that the stallion had returned, bringing into the farm a group of wild horses.

On the following day, though, he returned to find the farmer saddened again. One of the wild horses had kicked his son and broken his leg. Since this accident happened during the harvest season, the neighbor did his best to console the farmer for his great loss.

The next afternoon, however, when the neighbor called again, he found the farmer jubilant. The army had marched through that morning, conscripting young men for service in the war. Because of the broken leg, his son was passed by.

Things are not always what they seem. Man's complete knowledge of the value of events in his life is prohibited by his mortal vision.

God alone can judge the value of every happening which shapes our lives for good or worse.

But Definitely!

HITCH-HIKES 3,000 MILES

VERMILLION, Kans.—Skippy Ann, a wire-haired terrier owned by Mr. and Mrs. Clarron Shafer of Vermillion, hitch-hiked a 3000-mile ride from British Columbia, Canada, and arrived at home before her owners.

The dog was lost while the Shafers were on their way to Fairbanks, Alaska, by way of the Alcan Highway. By rare luck a southbound couple from Parsons, Kansas, found Skippy Ann and brought her back home.

In the second quarter Danny Edwards added the second touchdown on a five-yard run, with Owora Miller adding the two extras for a 14-0 margin. Burroughs narrowed the spread to 14-6 as Howard Lewis fired a 15-yard scoring pass to Jay Kaiser.

After the half Highland added its last marker on a short plunge by Miller with Reginald Jackson accounting for the last two points on an end sweep. Burroughs closed out the scoring on a five-yard run by Howard Lewis who also added the extra points. Highland was coached by Arthur Wilson.

WEST PRE-SEASON PEEK:

Heischman Finds Big Gaps To Fill

By Bob Wilcox

No sooner is football over for West High fans than the basketball season is before them. The Cowboys travel to Newark this Friday night for their traditional Thanksgiving weekend liftlifter.

Only two lettermen are returning — and both depart in January with mid-year graduation. They are 6'3" Roger Street up front and "little" 5'8" Bill Castle, the backcourt and long-shot ace. Others returning with some varsity history to their credit are seniors Carl Brown (6'1") at forward, Tom Hartranft (5'9"), Charles King (5'10") and Bob Wesley (5'9"), all guards.

Street, though a forward last season, may have to fill the center slot this year. Brown, one of the finest ball players to hit West in recent years, ran afoul of scholastic difficulties last year and didn't become eligible until midyear. Thereafter he turned in some good performances, especially at Steubenville.

Spears' Record Impressive

The biggest "holes" to fill this year will be the losses of center Jerry Spears, forward Dave Brady and guard Ray Horkey, all via June graduation. Spears left a big gap in more ways than one—not only in size, but he was the City League's leading scorer last season (setting a single game individual mark of 45 points against Eastmoor. He was an All-City choice and West's leading rebounder.

Brady, who could cover the boards at 6'5", possessed a potent shooting eye at times. Horkey, the playmaker and floorleader, was usually the sparkplug, but didn't use his scoring ability enough.

Other varsity men this year, up from last year's reserves, are 5'9" guard Garry Weigand, 6'1" center Bill Detwiler and 6' forward Bob Montgomery. Detwiler could be a real "sleeper" as he has fabulous jumping ability and a shot to boot that is impossible to stop.

Newcomers via transfer are Terry Barrnett (5'11") from Mifflin and a boy not new to West athletics, Bill Biggers from Franklin Heights, and Dick Smith from Pickerington.

From the 50-odd who tried out for the squad this year, Heischman will keep 12. His starting crew is fairly well set, but with the usual "ifs" for this time of year. It will consist of Street, Brown, Castle, Hartranft and either Barrnett, Biggers or King. Only two, Biggers and Montgomery, joined the squad from the football team.

Sees More Speed

Heischman, believing the squad to possess more speed than in past years, will use the fast break much more, but the overall offense per game will be dictated by the opponent's defenses. He also characterizes the squad as "pretty good shooters, but lacking in height." He feels that the taller boys will have to come through to make it a good team.

After losing his "midyear height," those spots will probably go to Detwiler and Dwight Newman. The latter, a sophomore from Hilltonia Junior High, is a fine looking prospect and will play reserve ball until midyear.

The Cowboys play only seven of 17 games at home and only one before the new year. Newark, U-A, Chillicothe, Bexley and Zanesville are non-league foes; the Zanesville fray comes during Christmas vacation.

Hoping to improve on their 1958-59 season finish of fifth in the City Loop and an overall record of 7-9 (plus beating Watterson, then being dumped by a good London crew in the tourney), the Cowboys will play the following 1959-60 schedule (newly revised):

Nov. 27—Newark, there.
Dec. 4—Linden-McKinley, there.
Dec. 11—Central, here.
Dec. 12—Upper Arlington, there.

Sullivant Muscle Men Beat Schiller Squad By A Grunt

Displaying a surprising team spirit for a brand-new club, Sullivant Gardens Weight Lifting Club put on a furious last minute spurt to muscle out a Schiller Park Weight Lighting team by only 35 points at Schiller Park Nov. 17.

The Sullivant boys, all of them in their first weight lifting contest, were behind by more than 200 pounds going into the last event of the evening.

Close to the finish, which was the dead lift, the Sullivant Gardens team had more than made up this deficit and had totaled 3,645 pounds while the Schiller team recorded 3,610 pounds.

In the deadlift event, bantam weight (under 121 pounds), Leonard Reed lifted 225 pounds. Thomas Rippey, a feather weight (under 132 pounds) lifted 250 pounds. Dan Pertee and George Chaffin, light and middle weights (under 148 and 165 respectively), each lifted 300 pounds. Ronnie Green, in light-heavy class (under 181 pounds), lifted a hefty 360 pounds, while Phil Pertee, in the middle-heavy class (under 198 pounds), lifted the second highest weight of the meet, a rugged 400 pounds.

Lifts 450 Pounds

However, the real surprise came when Robert Jackson, in the Sullivant Gardens' heavy weight class (over 198 pounds), hoisted a staggering 450 pounds, the best lift of the contest. The combination of these good lifts proved to be enough to edge the Schiller team from the lead by 35 pounds.

Judge Robert Draper, sponsor and counselor, was happy that the boys won but declared "The fact that they won by such a narrow margin should stimulate them to improve themselves further."

The club meets at Sullivant Gardens Recreation Center where Phil Pertee of the Columbus Recreation Department, assists Judge Draper in instruction.

Teams At Glenwood Center In Pre-Season Basketball

Playing a well rounded game, DeMolay downed Hilltop Vandals 50-20, in the Senior Boys Basketball League at Glenwood Center. Dick Curtiss, Ed Fredendall, and Mike Richer led DeMolay's attack by scoring eight points apiece.

Joe Pitt, Bob Gaines and Bob Johnson, all scoring in the double columns, led the Astronauts to a 47-32 victory over the Gung Ho's. Steve Galentine and Sonny Ring scored 16 and 12 points respectively for the [illegible].

Joe Eitrick led the Emulsifiers to a victory over the Crew Cuts, 43-36, by scoring 12 points. The Emulsifiers went ahead in the last quarter.

West Side League Honored Nov. 21 By Crowd Of 200

By Brad Engert

West Side Football League "Awards Night" dance at Gladden Community House attracted 200 West Siders.

Harry Essick and George Weber representing West Side Kiwanis and George Blackmore of the Hilltop Lions were present and Essick presented awards to four of the coaching staff of the league. They are George Latimer, Bill Latimer, Steve Bond and John Perris.

Final game of the season Sunday found the Blazers defeating the "undefeatable" Bucks, 12 to 2. Outstanding for the Bucks were Chick Frasure, John Czug, Bob Thompson, Butch Bond, Roger Calhoon, Steve Katell, Tom Nash, Mike and Jim Herreld and Creed McFall.

Pat Munyan made the TD for the Merchants during the second quarter. Outstanding players were John Potts, John Lydn, Robert Parsons and Bill Weaver.

The teams were closely matched. Oklahoma gained the longest single yardage.

The heavy weight season continues for two more weeks. This Sunday the Jokers meet the Oklahomans at the Goodale field. If the latter win they will be tied with the Merchants. The playoff game, if required, will be at Sunshine Park at 2 p.m. Dec. 6.

The all-star game for the light weights of the WSFL was played at Westgate park. The Hilltop Lions defeated the All-Stars 24 to 0.

In the light weight division, the Bucks scored top wins for the season. In the middle weight it was the War Hawks. Heavy weight champs are still undetermined.

Thanksgiving Traditional Day For Hunters

The Thanksgiving season is one that appeals to sportsmen. Probably more than any other festive day, Thanksgiving holds meaning and anticipation for the outdoorsman.

Historically, the Pilgrims gave thanks for the bounty of the new land on this day, and much of this bounty was the game and fish that they found here. Were it not for good hunting and fishing, the newcomers would not have lived through the first winter.

First Try For Many

So it is with a great deal of tradition that many hunters will take to the field this week on Thanksgiving Day. Always a school vacation, many of us associate our first hunting trip with this day. Because of these associations this week holds almost the same excitement as the opening day of hunting. The attraction of the outdoors is in some way tied up with warm memories of past days afield and the anticipation and planning of future days. This is the appeal of Thanksgiving to the hunter.

The picture of Pilgrims with black hats, shiny buckles on their shoes and a primitive gun on their shoulders carrying wild turkeys and deer to the festive board is firmly imprinted on the mind of every school boy. To this young hunter, this picture is the most interesting in the history book.

Adding to this treasured day of hunting and feasting is the tradition in many families to have a game dinner on Thanksgiving. With all this in prospect it is little wonder that the picture of the first Thanksgiving is well-studied by youngsters in this land.

Pheasants Seen Wary

Usually, the Thanksgiving hunt in Ohio means rabbit hunting. Some pheasants are seen in this area, especially by hunters with bird dogs. After the first day of hunting, cock pheasants get pretty cagey, and difficult to flush. They act more like pacers and trotters than birds, and turn fencerows and corn rows into race tracks. It is almost impossible for a man to flush a pheasant that doesn't want to fly. A bird dog trained for pheasant hunting, will work around in front of a running bird and pin it for the gun. Hunters who hunt carefully with trained dogs will take pheasants on Thanksgiving Day.

Rabbits, however, will fill the Thanksgiving bag. Most hunters will not want to travel far and will hunt close to home. They will hunt part of the day, and then head for the big dinner, whether it be turkey, game or whatever. Rabbits are found almost everywhere, and the holiday hunters will find them. Some hunters will follow the merry ring of a beagle's voice, and their enjoyment afield will be so much the greater. Others will simply walk across frosty fields and along brooks crusty with ice. They will rattle brushpiles and investigate briar patches.

Rabbit Is Favorite

Rabbits have been called the "game birds" of farm boys. This definition could well be enlarged to include all beginning hunters and most oldsters. The rabbit is the favorite game animal in Ohio. This is a dubious reputation to hold, from the rabbit's standpoint, but a standing it has earned by its productivity and its sporting qualities. Whether it is shot in front of dogs, or sprinting away from a "hidy hole" (southern Ohio terminology) the cottontail rabbit is our number one game animal.

We will not be shooting wild turkeys or deer this week, except perhaps for a few archers who are after deer, but our hunting will be very meaningful. In some ways it will go back to the days of settlers, and most assuredly it will go back to our early days of hunting.

Thanksgiving Day is for us all, but it is mostly for hunters. And hunters give thanks by going hunting and storing up new adventures and memories for the future.

Cancer Society Says Study On Leukemia Is Duplicated

The Franklin County Unit of the American Chancer Society has received information from its state office that a professional fund-raiser named Eugene P. Weil is now in the state raising money for the Leukemia Society. He has attempted fund drives in Toledo, Cleveland, Akron and Dayton. What success he has had has not been reported.

Leukemia is cancer of the blood. The American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute, working cooperatively, are doing research in leukemia and are devoting more dollars for leukemia research than all other organizations combined. Such was the statement made last February by Dr. Wendell Scott, M.D. of the medical staff at Washington University in St. Louis.

American Cancer Society this year has allocated more than $1,300,000 for leukemia research —some at Ohio State University. The Society and the Cancer Institute cooperate to see that no research project is duplicated, in order to save time and money.

Because the Society has so long been leading leukemia research, it feels that other organizations will merely produce duplication of effort and cost. The Society does, contrary to some reports, purchase laboratory equipment for research as well as necessary supplies and salaries.

We feel definitely that any organization which springs up to do research in any respect of cancer is creating confusion in the minds of giver groups. We will appreciate your suggestions as to how we can reduce duplications in research. Three other organizations have attempted to raise funds in Columbus in the past two years claiming leukemia research as their objective, when in truth one group is building a hospital in Memphis, Tenn., and a second is asking us to support maintenance of a hospital in Southern California. Only recently there was a special hour-long TV appeal for funds to build a hospital in Denver.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES . . .

Pirates Hit Court Trial; FTA Honors Teachers

By Leslie Shelhart

Basketball season is here at Central again.

Central Varsity cheerleaders are selling red and black shakers to all Pirate fans. They can be purchased from Linda Thompson, Leslie Shelhart, Margaret Williams, Cathie Lakin, Sandy Skinner, or Sharon Alkire.

Three of these will not be able to serve the whole basketball season as they will be graduated in January. Boosting the team until January are Linda Thompson, Cathie Lakin and Leslie Shelhart.

Serving as reserve cheerleaders, and hoping that the reserve team will copy its record of last year, are Judy Shelhart, Sharon Byers, Judy Bush, Joy Mundy, Nancy Campbell, and Carol Jones.

Returning varsity lettermen this year are Gary Jewell and Fred Gray, 12A's; Ed Tucker and Herman Reeves, 12B's and Roosevelt Coffey, 11A.

Teachers' Recognition

Teachers' Recognition Day was held Monday, Nov. 23 at Central. The FTA Club thanked Central teachers with presentations of white carnations decorated with red and black ribbons.

The desks of vice-principals, Miss Griffith and Mr. Beigger, were turned over to vice-president, Cathie Lakin, and corresponding secretary, Martha Ward.

Other club officers are recording secretary, Sandy Skinner, and treasurer, Carolyn Weller.

Doubloon

"At least 800 Doubloons must be sold this year," says the Central High yearbook staff.

After too many years of trying to keep the Central Annual for as little as possible, the Journalism department realizes that something must be done or Central will not have a yearbook next year. Selling for under $3 in the past, the Doubloon must be raised to $3.50 this year to break even.

All seniors have been asked to join in the campaign of selling Doubloons and getting ads and business listings. We are urging all students and alumni of Central to order a yearbook now.

All ads will be appreciated too.

On the cheerful side, though, Centralites will find a different Doubloon this year than in previous ones. Padded covers, silhouettes, and many other surprises are in store, along with a beautiful, really different cover.

Memories of high school experiences for graduating seniors are captured. Treasures of Junior activities are folded into the pages. All the wonders of first-year are shining in the Doubloon for 1960.

A true Pirate is never without a Doubloon.

Red Carpet Welcome Awaits Santa Saturday At Central Point Center

Santa will arrive at Central Point by helicopter at 12:30 p.m. Saturday and hundreds of small fry will be on hand to greet him. Enroute to Central Point, Santa's helicopter will put down for a brief greeting to the boys and girls at Franklin Village.

After being paraded around the center in a horse-drawn wagon, he will be ushered to his beautiful "Santa House" where he will receive his young friends until 8:30 p.m. For each, too, he'll have candy. Thereafter, Santa will visit children from 4 until 8:30 p.m. week-days and from 1 until 8:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

The entire center has been gaily decorated with Christmas trimmings. On each Saturday before Christmas, free rides for the kiddies are offered in an old sight-seeing wagon, drawn by a team of show Clydesdale horses. They've been at the center before and the kids love them.

All shops are bulging with every imaginable gift for Christmas. Point merchants are ready and waiting for the shopping rush which they are sure will add up to the biggest Christmas yet.
